FIBHING SEASON OPENS WITH HUNDREDS ON THE WATER AND MORE ON SHORE

Boats, Many Coming From Port-

The fishing season opened at noon oday with nearly a hundred boats on the river below the Falls. There were twice as many disciples of Walton out after the finny beauties that come into the Willamette, many of being compelled to fish from the rocks because of the shortage of boats.

During the earlier part of the day a few fish were brought in, but not nutil evening did the boats arriving at landings show that the fishermer had had any great luck.

A party of sports from Salem tool home sixteen fine salmon and many others had good single catches. Some of the better catches went to local peo ple and many more to those who came from Portland

The scene on the river was ceedingly interesting and many per-sons lined the banks to watch pro-ceedings on the water. Some of the boats pulled too far up into the white water and this caused a number of amusing incidents that happily did not result in accidents. Taken altogether, Oregon City's "Spring Open-ing" was decidedly a success.

COX, STILL CHIEF, RELIEVED.

Mayor Refuses Resignation and Ap points Moore to Act for Cox. PORTLAND, May 1.—(Special.)— Public opinion in Portland seems to be in favor of A. M. Cox, who yesterday resigned as Chief of Police when indicted by the county grand jury. Many people censure the grand jury for their action and hold that Mayor Simon and Police Commissioner Sichel should be held responsible for the actions of their appointee. John T. Moore, captain of detectives, is acting chief. The Mayor and Commissioners at a meeting this morning refused to accept the resignation but relieved the chief of his duties by appointing Moore to act temporarily.

The case against Cox will be brought to trial at the earliest possible moment.
