Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE

TO A MOTHER.

Dear Madam: I am a "mere man" and incapable of some things advisory, but I wonder if you realize how grave a mistake it may be to overindulge your daughter.

The daughter graduated and—Returning home discovered that she was out of touch with the old farm ways. Her education should have broadened and sweetened the child, but it did not. It simply unfitted her.

It is not harsh to put burdens upon her. She must get a new view of life by meeting hardships, conquering difficulties, bearing burdens, facing responsibilities. Else you deceive your child; else your sacrifices will make her selfish, ungrateful and miserable.

There is but one way to make character. Ease and luxury will not do it. The fiber of womanliness is developed only by bearing burdens, meeting cares, overcoming obstacles.

Bert Staats spent several days with his parents in Oregon City the first of the week. A. Fisher, the druggist, returned home Sunday after several days in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Maggie Johnson, of Milwaukie, was here Wednesday on business. Theo. Worthington is hauling cement for W. Cederson who will erect a fine residence south of his mother's house in the same yard.

Road Supervisor Harrington, of Gladstone, has charge of the work to finish Center street. W. A. Hanson, of Milwaukie, was here Wednesday looking after his interests and drug store.

Several of the young people attended the Oaks Monday evening guests of the railway company. W. B. Starkweather, the assessor, was here Wednesday on business.

Three Hundred Hidden Lights Illumine Pulpit of Cathedral

Copyright by American Press Association.

THE splendid Cathedral of St. John the Divine, which has been in process of erection on Moranside heights, New York, for nearly twenty years and is not nearly completed, but is far enough along to be dedicated, is in many respects different from the famous cathedrals of the old world.

It is getting pretty hard to tell one from another. Some husbands fear the wife's no, and some stand in awe of her know. The horse is known by its ears.

Unfortunatly in a good many orchards the trees are known by their scales. POTATOES—Prices for tubers are still climbing and have gone over $1.50 and $1.75, with some fancy stock bringing $2.25.

WHEAT—The local market for wheat is a trifle better and the price advancing a little from last report. In fact prices are on the climb but with little outward manifestations.

APPLES—Local stock is commanding from $1 to $2 bushel, with very few in the country of any kind and fewer yet that will get the higher price. Hood River stock is bringing $2.50 for good and a little more for fancy.

VEGETABLES—Little change since last report; onions are a little stiffer in price but other vegetables remain about the same. Onions 2 1/4, turnips and carrots 75c to $1 sack, pumpkins $1 to $1.25 sack, cabbage 3c pound.

MARQUAM. Fine weather still prevails. Mutton and beef buyers are seen quite often in these parts. John Barth has gone over into the State of Washington to look for land.

NEW YORK TO REBUILD CAPITAL. ALBANY, N. Y., April 28.—The State architect has approved plans for the rebuilding of the New York State Capitol. The plans involving an expenditure of $9,000,000 are now before the State Trustees of Public Buildings for their approval.

Oregon City Markets. There is an uncertainty in the markets today. Those who object to the changing of the tariff by the Democrats blame the uncertainty on the prospects of a change and say that the changes in prices are along the line of things that are likely to be changed in the schedule.

WHEAT—The local market for wheat is a trifle better and the price advancing a little from last report. In fact prices are on the climb but with little outward manifestations.
