The fountain for the parking for the McLoughlin residence property on Seventh street will arrive this week from Chicago, and as soon as it ar-rives will be installed. An appropri ate design of early days has been selected, and is a child standing beneath an umbrella. When the water bor de la Barra, Minister of Fore is turned on in the fountain it will UNION STOCK YARD'S I the revolutionists for provisional rain. The fountain will stand on a pedestal and will be about eight feet igh. The present basin, which was installed in the early spring is 10 feet in diameter. Another similar basin will be installed, and this will be about four feet in diameter.

The grounds of this property have recently been improved. New seats have flower boxes were recently donated by G. R. H. Miller, one of the prominent pioneers of this city. The rose bushes planted some time ago are growing rapidly, and many new flowering plants have been added to the park, making it a most attractive place. Every day visitors to this city visit the McLoughlin home, where a register is kept, and each one registers his name. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alldredge, who are oc cupying the second story, have fitted the rooms formerly occupied by the McLoughlins in a most homelike manner, and any day visitors can be shown all through this residence.

The purchasing or the fountain was made through the efforts of the Women's Club of this city, the members of which take a pride in the grounds as well as the former home of Dr. John McLoughlin, the father of Ore-

WANTS LAND BACK COURT SAYS KEEP OFF

AUGUST HORGER LOSES $12,000 EJECTMENT SUIT BROUGHT AGAINST PRESTON BROTHERS.

The suit of August Horger against George and Henry Preston, for ejectment was tried yesterday before Cir-cuit Judge Campbell, and decided in favor of the Preston Brothers, who bought 137 acres of land at Eagle Creek from Horger, agreeing to pay $12,000. The sale was made on a contract, the Prestons paying $$2,000. They had defaulted 30 days on the second payment of $2,000, when Horger brought suit for ejectment. It is said the land is worth about 200 an acre. Within 30 days from the time the payment was due, the amount was tendered and refused by Horger. Judge Campbell ruled that a foreclosure suit was necessary in order for Horger to regain posses-sion of the property, as the Prestons certainly had an equity in the land. This afternoon Horger accepted the money from the Prestons, which validated the contract. George C. Brownell, William M. Stone and U'Ren & Schuebel appeared for Preston Brothers, while Horger was represented by Attorneys Dimick &

LIVE WIRES TAKE

COMMERCIAL CLUB ORGANIZA TION HAS ACCOMPLISHED MUCH IN FEW MONTHS.

OAD MASTER IS MAIN ACHIEVEMENT

Federal Building, Stafford Rural Route and Rail-Road to

The Live Wires of the Oregon City Commercial Club have suspended publication until fail.

At Tuesday's weekly luncheon which was an unusually toothsome af-fair, the Wires concluded to dispose with the regular session until the after the summer is over, giving the Trunk Line, under which name the head of the organization is designated, ample authority to call a meeting at any time. The summer season is close at hand, this being the main reason for the recess. While several important matters are pending, it may be necessary to have evening meetings about once a month. The Live Wires have been working for some months upon the establishment of a rural route out of Oregon City into the Stafford coun-try. The ground has been carefully gone over and maps have been drawn and the matter is now in the hands of City Engineer Noble, who has agreed to prepare a map showing the s proposed to establish a new route When this map is completed a petition will be circulated among the farmers directly interested in establishment of a new route and for-warded to the postofffice department at Washington, D. C.

The principal achievement of the Live Wires since its organization last fall has been in securing the appoint ment of a county roadmaster . H. E. Cross was the man who proposed the installment of a system in the con-struction of roads in Clackamas County and he had the united backing of all the Live Wires, and when the matter was put to the County Court and thoroughly discussed, the appointment of a roadmaster speedily followed. This one thing is expected to make a saving of several thousands of dollars annually to the taxpayers of the county.

Another matter that the Live Wires have taken a very deep interest in is the construction of a railroad into the Molalla country. Judge G. B. The first drift Monday night was Dimick, W. A. Huntley, Frank Busch. made by Charlie Gates, he brought in O. D. Eby, and other members of the al luck. He had so many that his zation from the start. Rights of way boat was sinking and to save boat and surveys were obtained, thousands of dollars subscribed, nearly every member of the Live Wire taking some stock, and grading of the roa toward Beaver Creek has been in progress for several weeks. Sufficient money is in sight for the actual construction of the road as far as Beaver Creek, and there is little doubt of the successful termination of the project. which is strictly a home grown move ment, building with local capital and governed by local men, who are not drawing any salary for their work in getting the enterprise on a sound foot-

The introduction or an ordinance in the council providing for a weights and measures commission is another matter that the Live Wires initiated. Considerable publicity has been given to the Government report calling attention to faulty scales in some of the Oregon City business houses, and an ordinance was presented to the council and will soon come up for final passage. The purchase of a site and the erection of a federal building in Oregon City is a subject that attracted the attention of the Live Wires, and through the efforts of a committee, a bill was introduced in the United States Senate last week, carrying an appropriation of $75,000. It is not expecied that the bill will pass at the extra session, but if the right kind of work is done, the appropriation has an excellent chance of getting through
