OREGON CITY COMMERCIAL CLUB DEPLORES USE OF THE REFERENDUM.

The Commercial Club of Oregon City had adopted resolutions opposing the referendum on the appropriations for educational institutions in this state, as follows:

Whereas it appears that an attempt is being made to invoke the referendum on appropriations for the University of Oregon, the Oregon Agricultural College and the Month Normal School for the biennial period of 1911-1912, and,

Whereas, these appropriations are at this time reasonable and necessary for the several institutions for said period, and were by the Legislature properly made, now therefore it is

Resolved, That it is the sense of this club that the attempt to invoke the referendum on these appropriations is not in the interest of the state's good or the development of this state, and that every citizen should be discouraged from signing these positions.

Oregon—Showers, south to west winds, high along the coast.

"Rising" young men are wearing these clothes. We're not satisfied with the "skimming along" or "drifting" in the clothes question.

We are always going up higher—higher in price but quality—on a plane ourselves. If you are a keen observer of style don't fail to see the L. Schaefer clothes—they are a class in themselves.

PLANS OF CHURCH MEET WITH BOOST

REPRESENTATIVE MEN AGREE TO KEEP ST. PAUL'S—BUILD NEW STRUCTURE

LARGE COMMITTEE NAMED LAST NIGHT

Guests of Rector and Vestry of Parish in Enthusiasm Over Proposal to Erect Modern Edifice.

Unusual in the extreme, but none the less successful, was the gathering of representative business and professional men in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple Wednesday night, all of them present as the guests of the rector and vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church to discuss the needs of the parish relative to the construction of a new edifice.

The invitation list was not confined to communicants of the church, and the general interest of the affairs of the parish is best evidenced by the fact that every man at the table gladly expressed his willingness to become one of a building committee to assist in the erection of a structure that will be a credit to Oregon City and that will enable Rev. C. W. Robinson and his co-workers to proceed along the broad lines undertaken since the arrival here of the rector, four months ago.

Dr. H. R. Mount will head the building committee, and Postmaster T. P. Randall will act as treasurer. The personnel of the committee embraces some of the best known men in the city, and follows:

- | | |
|--|---|
| Dr. H. R. Mount, chairman. | T. P. Randall, treasurer, postmaster Oregon City. |
| Hon. George C. Brownell, mayor of Oregon City. | Judge J. J. Campbell |
| W. A. Huntley | C. W. Evans |
| L. E. Jones | H. S. Moody |
| Dr. A. L. Beatie | E. K. Stanton |
| J. R. Humphreys | A. C. Warner |
| Geo. A. Harding | E. P. Rands |
| Carl Joehneke | R. B. Beatie |
| W. Harris | H. C. Salsbury |
| Arthur Deute | W. B. Howell |
| J. E. Hedges | G. L. Harding |
| E. Schwab | Oscar Woodfin |
| T. Osmond | H. H. Hughes |
| G. H. Gregory | J. N. Wisner |
| E. G. Caulfield | E. E. Brodie |
| Clarence Simmons | C. G. Huntley |
| Henry O'Malley | R. C. Gansong |
| E. A. Chapman | Dr. C. Mount |
| F. T. Barlow | W. A. Shewman |
| Wm. Hammond | W. R. Logus |
| John Adams | Dr. L. A. Morris |
| John Lewthwaite | Rev. C. W. Robinson |
| E. T. Fields | Judge G. B. Dimick |
| W. B. Stafford | John R. Oatfield |

Brief talks were made by many of the guests. Mr. Robinson presided and made a very happy introductory talk, proving his worth as a teller of stories with sharp points. John R. Humphreys, senior warden of the vestry, opened the addresses with the statement that St. Paul's is the oldest church in the diocese, with the sole exception of Trinity, at Portland, which ante-dates St. Paul's by only a week. George A. Harding, the oldest churchman present in point of membership, told some of the early church history, praising the efforts of the women's societies in their work of improving the church property.

J. E. Hedges spoke of his indirect connection with the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, he having been a student and later an instructor in the Bishop Scott Grammar school. Dr. H. S. Mount, E. E. Brodie, T. P. Randall, Judge R. B. Beatie and E. P. Rands contributed encouraging remarks and encouraged enthusiasm, concluding Dimick's address with the statement that good schools and good church buildings improve the moral and social standing of the community. He contended that it is the duty of the people of Oregon City as citizens, even if not church members, to help along the erection of a new church, built of material that will endure.

From the body of citizens whose names are connected with the building committee, an executive board

ANIMAL SHOW MAKES HIT IN CALIFORNIA

GREAT AGGREGATION OF BEASTS WILL APPEAR AT OREGON CITY, MAY 8.

Without doubt the best attraction, delighting both young and old, that has yet visited Bakersfield, is the Barnes wild animal circus. The circus reached here early this morning and the work of unloading over 20 cars was carried out rapidly and systematically, as was the work of pitching the large main tent and a number of smaller ones, comprising the circus.

The feature of the whole was the quiet and orderly way in which everything was done. A large crowd attended this afternoon, taking in the side show previous to entering the big tent for the main performance. It is safe to say that the Barnes circus is unique in that the many species of wild animals are the actual performers, and do what the human beings do in the ordinary circus, the most wonderful thing being that their difficult turns are the result of infinity, care and patience, making these accomplished animals all the more valuable.

ELKS BUILDING FUND IS GROWING RAPIDLY

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE COMING IN AND SOME MAY BE DOUBLED IF NECESSARY

The subscription committee of the Oregon City Elks lodge, composed of W. H. Bair, Wm. Mulvey and B. T. McInnis is rapidly completing plans for the campaign for subscriptions. Blanks have been mailed to all members and by the end of this week, list of subscribers to date will be given to the public. Two or three members have promised to subscribe for amounts $500 to $1,000, and with a few like these, the entire issue of $25,000, 6 per cent first mortgage bonds is almost sure to be subscribed before the required date. The membership of 175 at this time is rapidly being added to and by the date the building is started, say April 1, 1912, it will be 300 to 350. Some of those who have already signed, promise to double their subscriptions if necessary in order to be assured of the agreed amount.

Subscriptions will be accepted from non-members as well as Elks, so anyone wishing to invest in these bonds at par can do so at this time.

Thomson, also a Portland boy, who is in his junior year in the electrical engineering course. Thomson's former place as news editor will be filled by Jay C. Leedy, an agricultural course junior from Hood River.

FOUR AND A HALF FOOT FRONT WITH UNOBSTRUCTED VIEW OF INTERIOR

ORDINANCE ADOPTED BY COUNCIL

Gas Franchise Is Granted Seattle—Police Reports Are Heard and Accepted—Woolen Mill Refused Damages.

The council last night passed the much discussed Home Rule ordinance. The ordinance as passed provides that the front of all stores occupied as saloons shall be glass fronted four and a half feet above the sidewalk level to the ceiling and that there shall be an unobstructed view of the whole interior of every saloon.

The ordinance granting a franchise to A. L. Beattie to build and operate a gas plant for twenty-five years was also passed without opposition.

The matter of transferring the license of the Hub saloon from Fred Cooper to Daugherty and Kirby was referred to the committee on Health and Police.

The Oregon Engineering and Construction Company's successors to Moffatt and Parker applied for the changing of the name in contracts held by Moffatt and Parker. This was referred to the Finance committee.

Viewers who had A. W. Cheney's application for damages on street assessment reported they could find no damages. Their report was accepted but later they were asked to make another report as Mr. Cheney had had no opportunity of meeting the committee and stating his side of the matter.

A number of other street matters came up and were referred to various committees.

City Attorney Geo. L. Story gave it as his opinion that the Oregon City Manufacturing Company were not entitled to damages from the city for damages done by water that ran down the south end road and flooded the companies basement last winter.

WOMAN SAYS HUBBY GAVE POISONED TEA

THEN THREATENS HER LIFE AND TREATS HER CRUELLY. SHE HAS PROPERTY.

Martha Jane Hartwell has filed a suit for divorce against her husband, William Hartwell, to whom she was married in Portland, July 31, 1910. Mrs. Hartwell claims that many times her husband has treated her cruelly and has threatened her life. On one occasion he placed poison in a cup of tea for her to drink, and she became very ill from its effects, suffering great pain and injury.

The plaintiff is the owner of lots 18 and 19 of block 3, Filley Park, Multnomah County, and her husband has no interest whatever in this. She asks for the control of the property rights and to assume her maiden name, Martha Jane Hazel. Mrs. Hartwell is represented by George W. Wilson, of Portland.
