LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

SCENE FROM "THE SPENDTHRIFT" AT THE HEILG. Dramatic Sensation at the Heilig Theatre for Four Nights, Beginning, May 4, With a Special Price Matinee Saturday.

"THE SPENDTHRIFT" TONIGHT. Vital Drama of Today for Four Nights at the Heilig.

At the Heilig Theatre opening Thursday night, May 4, Frederic Thompson will give Portland Theaters their first opportunity of witnessing "The Spendthrift," the latest dramatic work of Porter Emerson Browne, whose "Fool There Was" has given him a position among other American dramatists. The piece is a "vital drama of today" and deals primarily with the extravagance and wasted opportunities of a class of women who are numerous in certain strata of society. The basic theme of "The Spendthrift" appealed to Browne for a long time before he set his thoughts on paper and when he did he put into his writing all the vitality with which the idea was invested during the mental evolution.

OAK GROVE. Mrs. W. Wells and children went out to her father's, Mr. Murphy, on the Woodstock car-line to spend the day. Mr. Murphy fell down the cellar steps and broke the ligaments in his limbs besides other scratches. Fourteen people boarded the 9:18 car Saturday morning going to Portland. That speaks well for our little burg. Several of our prominent business men went to Oregon City and were taken into the Elks Lodge Friday evening, returning home in the wee small hours of the morning, wiser and we hope better ones.

again and will renew her school work Monday. Lexy had a severe case of blood poisoning. The band girls are practicing and learning new pieces. W. H. Counsel, who was awarded the contract to improve Main street through the business district, began work Monday. The contract price for the work was $12,000, and includes the grading of the street and laying crushed rock for a distance of about eight blocks.

This is the first of the several improvements to be made. The council is advertising to improve Washington from Main street to the Southern Pacific track, a distance of about three quarters of a mile, the cost of which will range from $15,000 to $20,000. Also it is proposed to improve Harrison east from Main street, and bids will be asked for in a short time.

The three improvements projected will cost about $50,000. It is proposed to take up the improvement of Front street at a later date, and it will cost about $20,000 to carry it through. This street is occupied by the Oregon City Railway.

WILSONVILLE. Prospecting for oil has begun on Aubrey Woods' farm, about two miles from Wilsonville. Mrs. Marion Young left on Wednesday for Corvallis, to spend a week visiting her son Doris, who is attending the O. A. C.

Henry Aden spent a couple of days at Brooks last week, buying a bankrupt stock of goods, which he has placed on sale and the store has been crowded with bargain seekers in consequence.

Those who attended the Booster Day festivities at Oregon City, say it was the best ever. The Commercial Club of our county seat has certainly been working hard to better conditions for this county at large, and it would seem to be but a just token of appreciation, that when we farmer folk want to go outside of our own little village to do our trading, we should patronize the merchants at Oregon City, who are going down into their own pockets to help the county come to the front.

Ben Toozie, who was reported as being seriously ill with scarlet fever, is quite well again, the attack having proven to be but a light case of scarlet rash. Quite a number of village people attended the celebration at Champoo on Tuesday, May 2, despite the drizzling rain. The "Pomona" was crowded with the happy throng of pleasure-seekers, and the ship looked very gay, bedecked with flags as they wended her way to the little village of Champoo, where this historical fête takes place each year.

A local lodge of Odd Fellows was organized at Wilsonville on Saturday evening, May 29, with about 25 members. The names of the officers of the lodge will be given next week. A fraternal spirit prevails in Wilsonville, and doubtless the new lodge will be a prosperous one, on this account.

A missionary tea was given at the beautiful home of Mrs. Frank Toozie, on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, at which time Mrs. Uphaw gave a very interesting talk on "Missions." The farmers near Wilsonville are expecting big returns from the seed sown this year, as the crops look extra fine.

A jolly crowd of young people enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Peters on Saturday evening last, at their beautiful and commodious home near the river. Dancing, games and music were features of the evening's pleasure, after which refreshments were served, and the merry-makers bade a reluctant "good-bye" in the wake of the wee small hours.

The last game of the W. A. C. was played by the Donald team on the Wilsonville diamond, and was a splendid game, resulting in another victory for our village team, the reckoning being 2 to 0, in favor of Wilsonville. The Wilsonville batteries did splendid work, and the heavy hitting of Moore of the village team was one of the chief features of the game. Joe Thornton was pitcher for the village team, and covered himself with glory, making eighteen strike-outs. The pitcher from the Donald team was Fellers, who proved a close second to Thornton, making twelve strike-outs, and playing a fine game. The next game will be played against the W. A. C. Club of Portland, and is expected to be a dandy.

JENNINGS LODGE. Mr. Dodson, of Pleasant Hill, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Roberts.

Mrs. Chas. Harris entertained the Pastime Club of Meldrum at her home on Tuesday, May second. We are glad to note one of our former musicians, Gladys Boys, gave a concert in her home at Kelso which proved to be one of the best ever given at that place. Miss Boys planned the program and gave some very skillful executiosa in concert work. She was assisted by Mrs. Rose C. Reed, the Portland contralto.

April 28th being the fifteenth birthday of Helen M. Panton, her parents gave a party in her honor, which was especially well enjoyed by the bevy of lady and lassies who attended.

The home was prettily decorated with dogwood and Scotch-broom and the evening brought about by the well planned youthful games. Miss Mable Morse assisted in serving delicious refreshments to thirty-five of Miss Helen's school-mates.

Mr. Gould Heathman returned from Lyle, Wash., Sunday, and while there purchased some very choice lots in the heart of the business center of that city.

Mrs. Jennie Jones entertained two of her Portland friends on Thursday, when Mrs. J. J. Adkins and Mrs. Geo. Williams were her guests for the day.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. Morse were pained to hear of the accident which befell Mrs. Morse on Thursday of last week, when she fell down stairs and sustained a number of bruises which has confined her to her bed ever since. Dr. Mount, of Oregon City, was called, who made her as comfortable as possible. At this writing is doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Criss, of Riverview, Cal., is occupying the Haberman cottage while receiving treatment from a Portland specialist.

Rev. Heverling will preach his last sermon of this conference year at the Grace Chapel on Sunday, May 7. The conference will convene in Milwaukie the following week, and a number of our people are planning to attend.

The Sunday school has been graded which seems to be more satisfactory. This service is held at 2 p. m. Mr. G. D. Boardman has charge of the Bible class. Rev. Heverling of the young peoples'. Mrs. Lucy Nowell of the intermediate and Mrs. Lillian Strain of the primary classes. A. F. Russell is the superintendent, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal. P. Morse entertained at tea on Sunday evening when seven of their friends enjoyed a social chat at their home.

Mr. Mack, the U. S. fish warden, and family, will enjoy camp life during the coming summer on the banks of the Willamette at this place.

Mrs. T. J. Spooner returned on Saturday from a visit in Vancouver with her sister, Mrs. Hodgkin. Miss Edna and Lillian Westerfield were callers at the Spooner home and Mr. Spooner is also enjoying a visit from his niece, Mrs. Salome.

Mr. Edson Downing, of Sellwood, was a caller at this place on Saturday. Mr. J. P. Strain and Frank Pratt were week-end visitors at the latter's ranch near Carus.

Mrs. Dunlap, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. L. Wilcox. Mrs. Dunlap has also enjoyed a visit with California friends previous to her arrival in Portland.

Mr. Williams who recently arrived from Missouri, have started to build their new home on the county road near Covell. Mr. H. C. Panton, of this place has the contract for the water system.

Miss Vivian Spooner and Miss Virginia Umbdenstock became enrolled in the school during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Newell, of Portland, spent Sunday with the P. D. Newell family.

The special meeting of the Jennings Lodge Community Club met on Wednesday evening of last week. Twenty-five members were present. Mr. Moore, of the P. L. & P. Co., gave the cost in regard to the lighting system and a number signed to have the electric lights installed at once.

A committee to look after the improvement of Jennings avenue, consisting of Messrs McFarlane, Finley and Welch were appointed. A banquet was also given, and a committee of Messrs P. D. Newell, G. P. Morse, Geo. A. Shaver, J. Welch, H. L. Heathman and Mr. Tompson to further perfect plans for this. The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, May 3. All members are urged to come and help in the work as the Community Club needs the assistance of all its members.

Mr. H. L. Heathman was a business visitor at the county seat on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Elias Scripture and the Mesdames Betzel and Farr, of Oregon City, and Mrs. Moulton, of Fern Ridge, were called at the home of Mrs. Geo. Morse during the week.

Miss Leah McGovern, of Gladstone, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Chas. Redmond.
