LOCAL BRIEFS

Charlie Baker and Kirk Cassidy, of Astoria, were in this city on Friday. G. Starkweather, of Riley, was in Oregon City on business Friday.

Mr. Wilson says also that Americans in Mexico City are becoming alarmed, and that the unrest is due in some measure to apprehension of the failure of peace negotiations and a prevalence of anarchy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sawyer, who have been visiting for several months at Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, the guests of relatives, have returned to Oregon City on Friday morning.

Thurston Johnson, formerly an Oregon City boy, but now foreman of the Oregonian, was in this city on Friday and a fishing trip at the falls, in company with F. Alexander.

Mrs. W. A. Shewman and son, Alon, will leave this city on May 15 for Portland, where they will remain until May 16, when they start for Florida, Pa., where they will spend three months with Mrs. Shewman's parents.

ANXIOUS FOR AMERICANS.

Two Sons of Judge Melvin Goodman Reported Murdered. WASHINGTON, May 5.—Increasing anxiety, approaching alarm, is felt by administration officials for the safety of Americans in Mexico, especially in the vicinity of Acapulco, on the West Coast.

Conditions described as intolerable were reported to the State Department today by Ambassador Wilson. It is probable naval forces will be ordered to Acapulco at once.

State Department officials plainly were worried by the disquieting advice received from the American Ambassador, despite the fact Mr. Wilson said the Mexican War Department had sent urgent telegrams of instruction to the commanding officer at Acapulco to afford all possible aid to Americans.

The matter was taken up by Mr. Wilson, as the result of the report

That two sons of Judge Melvin Goodman had been murdered by alleged revolutionary bandits at their father's hacienda, Buena Suceso, not far from Acapulco.

OUTDOOR COSTUMES.

Braid and Buttons Are Seen on Most of the New Models.

SMART OUTDOOR DRESS.

Careful study of this picture will supply you with many hints in regard to what is correct for the season's outdoor dress. For instance, the hat of straw braid and velvet has the side elaborations which are one of the new notes in millinery.

In nearly all the new suits the favored trimming is braid, especially the wide braid, which sometimes forms the collar, cuffs and revers and trims the skirt as well.

Panels of braid coming down the front and back of the jacket and continued in the same way on the skirt are distinctly the thing.

Narrow braid is also very smart, especially when worked out in ornamental designs on the skirt and coat.

A touch of color is added by oriental embroidery on the collar, sleeves and revers. There is merely a hint of this, and it is not allowed to become too prominent in the color scheme.

Buttons are also very much in evidence, some of them of the same color as either the suit or the trimming or gilt. These latter are very small—quite tiny, in fact.

Edelweiss For Congo. A very charming custom has been inaugurated in Belgium to honor the birthday of Queen Elizabeth. Her last anniversary was made "rosy day," and the sale of the queen's birthday roses realized $20,000, which was given to the tuberculosis relief fund.

The queen has now issued a semi-official proclamation in which she announces that it is her royal pleasure that on her next birthday the edelweiss shall be substituted for the rose and that all the money raised from the sale of these blossoms shall be devoted to the fund for combating the sleeping sickness in the Congo.

One of the darkest stains on Leopold's reign was that known as the "Kongo atrocities." One of the chief efforts of King Albert is to show an honest intention to remove that stain. In this effort the queen plays a charming second.

Ribbon Lorc. Black and white striped ribbons are shown in both velvet and taffeta, with black velvet stripes on a white taffeta ground. Black satin stripes are shown on white taffeta also.

Faille ribbon is being used much by milliners, especially in black and white combinations. Warp and jacquard prints are also seen everywhere, most of all in the lighter colored patterns.

Finally black and white checked taffetas are much in vogue in Paris. Sometimes the stripes running one way are in satin woven into the taffeta. In other words, although not a great number of ribbons are shown, those that we do have are beautiful and elaborate in weave and design.

WONDERFUL PICTURE SHOW.

The "Fall of Troy" is the Greatest Film You Ever Saw.

The Electric Theater is showing a wonderful picture this afternoon and evening. The subject is the Trojan War and the title of the film is "The Fall of Troy." The people who saw this splendid picture yesterday say they never saw anything like it before. The settings and costumes are beautiful and the story itself is interesting. The fact that it is an historical picture detracts nothing from its heart interest.

CORRESPONDENCE

MILWAUKIE.

F. D. Lehman who is putting up a new fire kiln to burn his filling, will hereafter burn oil.

He is building a very substantial furnace and when completed, will add another industry to Milwaukie.

The moving picture show is a thing of the past, having gone to the wall for want of patronage. Too bad.

The streets are so muddy the school children are everlastingly roasting the mayor, contractors and councilmen. Very poor judgment was shown in taking away the walls in front of the old Evangelical building, before ready to do anything.

Like all jobs of this kind, main strength and bull headedness, seemed to be the chief characteristic, irrespective of what the long suffering public had to put up with.

But as Milwaukie's population is mostly German and like her Eastern namesake, she has to be noted for something—in this case not beer) characteristic of the German, she had to go at her street work "hind side before."

It was amusing to see two, up-to-date, hobble skirted females from busy Portland making fun of our muddy streets Thursday-afternoon. The last seen of them they were wading ankle deep in mud up Washington street by Wetzel's property toward the new depot.

It is likely they kept going rather than attempt to get back onto Main street again. Later developments prove that after a round about trip they took a boat home from the "Tavern" and let their feet hang overboard all the way down to Portland in order to wash the clay off.

Rumor has it that a new barber shop will be opened next to the post-office.
