WAR IS ON AGAIN IN OLD MEXICO

ALL COMMUNICATION BETWEEN GOVERNMENT AND REBELS IS AT AN END.

REVOLUTIONISTS ARE SURPRISED

Preparations for Continuing War Are Being Made by Madero—Juarez First Point to Be Attacked.

EL PASO, Tex., May 6.—The armistice covering the Chihuahua district was ended, all official communication between the Mexican government and the revolutionists was broken off today, and tonight the insurgent army under General Francisco I. Madero, Jr., is preparing to pursue the revolution as vigorously as ever.

Juarez will be the first point of attack, but the rebels probably will not move for another 24 hours.

Though determined to pursue their demands to the last ditch, the rebel leaders tonight plainly showed their disappointment at the outcome of the day's events. They had thought that some announcement from Diaz would be forthcoming. They were under the impression that the government had received from Carranza a copy of their demands with regard to the resignation of Diaz. The answer which Carranza gave them today, addressed to Gomez, they found vague and inadequate and without explanation of that point.

HOSPITAL WILL BE READY VERY SOON

BUILDING IS TO BE READY FOR OCCUPANCY IN TWO WEEKS.

Oregon City will at last have a hospital, and this will be located in one of the most desirable locations in this city, which overlooks the town, and having an excellent view of Portland and old Mount Hood besides many of the other mountains in a distance. The old hospital place has been sold for this purpose and the building has been thoroughly renovated, having a ward, private rooms and surgery, the latter is as well equipped as any surgery of any hospital. This will be known as the "Wildwood Hospital."

There are seven lots surrounding the building, and these are to be beautiful, where the patients may be taken and may enjoy the sunshine. The nurse in charge are Miss V. C. Parkes who is president of the institution, Mrs. R. B. Nesney and Miss Bailey, all graduate nurses from the Illinois Nurses' Training School. These nurses come here with the highest recommendations, and will no doubt give their patients the best of care while under their charge.

This institution will be ready for business in about two weeks, when the city water will be taken there. This has caused some delay, and the pipes are being laid from the city reservoir at Mountain View, which is in the neighborhood of the hospital.

RUSHLIGHT HOLDS LEAD.

PORTLAND, May 6.—(Special.)—Early unofficial returns from yesterday's primary nominating election at midnight indicated the probable nomination of A. G. Rushlight as the Republican nominee for Mayor. Gay Lombard is a close second. Complete unofficial returns from 60 and incomplete returns from 47 precincts out of a total of 155 precincts at that hour gave Rushlight a plurality of 284. The vote as compiled at that time was: Lombard, 3,289; Rushlight, 3,573; Werlein, 1,762. Werlein ran a poor third.

BOAT GOES TO PIECES.

Fishermen Borrow a Boat and Meet With an Accident.

Two men from Portland, one about 60 years of age, came to this city this afternoon to enjoy fishing for the Royal Chinook salmon. A boat was loaned to the men by Fred Miller, of the Portland General Electric Company. The men had started but a short distance from shore when they got in a current, and the boat went to pieces. The men were thrown into the river, and no doubt would have been drowned if Miller had not come to their rescue in his launch. The men were taken out, drenched to the skin. They had enough of fishing for one day.

PLANS MOST READY FOR COUNTY FAIR

SHOW THIS YEAR WILL BE MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER HELD IN COUNTY.

Arrangements are being made for the coming county fair, and from all indications this year's fair will be one of the most successful ever held by the Clackamas County Fair Association. There promises to be more attractions than ever. One of this year's features will be a merry-go-round, and Paul Traglio, of Salem, has already applied for the rights, which have been given him.

Among the firms of this city that will have exhibits at this year's fair will be the Oregon City Enterprise; J. Levitt, Huntley Brothers' Company, Oregon City; J. J. Miller, C. G. Miller, Wilson & Cooke, Burmeister & Andresen. There will be a prize offered for the best exhibit. The Oregon City Enterprise won first prize last year, and there is no doubt but there will be great rivalry for the prize this year, which will be $10, the same as last year. Chairman Gladstone, Barlow, Maple Lane Grange, Warner Grange have already applied for space in the big auditorium. One of the advantages of this year's fair will be the installation of the electric lights before the opening of the fair, which no doubt will be greatly appreciated by the exhibitors, as the lights used in previous years were not satisfactory.

J. L. Lattelle, the secretary of the Clackamas County Fair Association, is in communication of several attractions that will no doubt be put on this year. Last year there was some disappointment as to some of the attractions that were booked and did not show up, but Mr. Lattelle intends this year to have most of the lights used in previous years were not satisfactory.

BIG CROWD SEES VANCOUVER CONTEST

ANDERSON AND DAN O'BRIEN FIGHT 15 FAST ROUNDS AND DRAW RESULTS.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 6.—Notwithstanding the arrest of the participants in the matches at Vancouver the spectacles bouts scheduled under the auspices of the Vancouver Athletic Association were pulled off before a packed house. The seating capacity of 2500 was taxed to overflowing and the S. R. O. sign standing out before the bouts began.

The first event on the program was a wrestling match between Clyde Treser, of Vancouver, and Walter Arndt, of Portland. Treser won first round in 4 minutes, 7 seconds. Second round was a close second. Complete unofficial returns from 60 and incomplete returns from 47 precincts out of a total of 155 precincts at that hour gave Rushlight a plurality of 284. The vote as compiled at that time was: Lombard, 3,289; Rushlight, 3,573; Werlein, 1,762. Werlein ran a poor third.

Two soldiers from the Barracks furnished the next. Privates Egan and Hines. Both men sealed 158 points. This bout ended suddenly in the first round, Egan landing a dream and tumbled on Hines' jaw, putting him out for several minutes.

Kid Exposito and "Yankee" Alley furnished six rounds of comedy. One was afraid and the other dazed. Allen was the most aggressive and received the decision.

Danny O'Brien entered the ring at 10:05, and was followed by Bud Anderson five minutes later. From the tap of the gong the fans were treated to as pretty an exhibition of clean clever boxing as ever seen around this part of the country. O'Brien outboxed Anderson several points and was more effective but Anderson outshined him in footwork.

It is to be hoped that the management of the association will be able to pull off their cards regularly. The crowd was most orderly, no drinking or gambling of any kind seen. Neither was there any profanity. Several women were present.

FREE SPRING OPERA

JAMES' STATEMENT PROMPTLY REFUTED

ESTACADA PRINCIPAL SAID TO AGREE TO POSTPONEMENT OF JOINT DEBATE.

PROMISED EXPLANATION NOT GIVEN

Superintendent of Oregon City High School Writes Complete Resume of Facts Relative to Debating Protest.

Oregon City, Or., May 6.—(Editor of the Enterprise): It is with genuine reluctance that I ask you to print the following. There is usually very little to commend in bitter public accusations and personalities such as appeared in the article signed by my old friend from Estacada, in Friday morning's Enterprise. The public usually take but a passing interest in such controversies and are often led to biased judgment, and are often led to a desire to confine the protest of the Oregon City team to the league itself and to official acts that I insisted that members of the team and others interested should withhold criticism from print and executive decision of the executive committee of the league, whose duty it is to pass judgment and render decisions upon all protests submitted to them.

A copy of the protest appended was submitted to each officer of executive committee, March 20, or ten days after the date of the Mt. Pleasant Estacada debate. I also wrote a note to the president of the debating department at Estacada as a matter of courtesy to him at the same time, regretting the necessity of protest. His first reply to me or protest was this morning's vituperative communication.

The chairman of the executive committee had found it impossible to get the members together so far and so promptly replied that by the rules of all contest organizations there could be no championship title to a team before the decision of the executive committee had been rendered. This committee must feel very highly complimented, however, by the following advance notice—the Estacada principal's own words, published in this morning's Enterprise: "Park place—won the county championship. As president of the Clackamas Debating League, I declared them such and I will see to it that they retain the title, etc."

With what feelings of dignity and pleasure a presiding judge would receive such notice from a defendant in a case! What a splendid example of democracy in this in this county educational institution under this dictatorial policy! We protested not against Parkplace and the press misunderstood our attitude when it stated that we desire to debate with her so near the close of the year when there is so much work to be done in all departments in both schools.

Permit me to further speak of a few statements in Friday morning's Enterprise that were evidently intended to put me in the distinguished company of Roosevelt and his celebrated club.

(1) The sarcastic comment that Tooz had more important business on hand than to attend the election in Portland falls flat. No business transacted at the State Teachers' meeting was in my judgment, more important than to inaugurate a system of debating in our schools. I expressed my regret at not being present to the county superintendent of schools and others. During that time I gave an address on arithmetic as a part of the general program of the meeting.

HUSBAND CALLED HER "DIRTY OLD THING"

MAEBELLE CLARK AND MAUD SWOPE SEEK SEPARATION IN THE COURTS.

Maebelle Clark, who was married at Grand Junction, Colo., February 27, 1901, to William G. Clark, has filed a suit for divorce. She charges him with using vulgar and profane language, and says he threatened to kill her. He is also said to have called her a "dirty old thing." While they were living at St. Johns, in August, 1906, he said to have left her for a week, without funds, and he is charged with having threatened to take her life if she undertook to get a divorce from him. He is also charged with threatening to kill her father and mother. She desires to resume her maiden name of Arnett.

Maud Swope and J. W. Swope were married October 25, 1906, at Alexandria, Va., and she has sued him for a divorce. She says she remains away from home frequently until the small hours of the morning, spending much of his time in the company of other women. She wants $185 alimony for the month of May, and $50 per month alimony for every month thereafter. She also asks for $100 attorney's fees.

MOLALLA TO CLIMB INTO BAND WAGON

CLACKAMAS SOUTHERN WILL BE PUSHED FROM THAT PLACE TOWARD TOWN.

The railroad meeting held at Molalla Saturday by the directors of the Clackamas Southern railroad, was very well attended. More would have been out but the notice of the meeting was delayed and many could not arrange to be present.

The people of Molalla have been on the fence in the railroad matter for several weeks owing to the rumors emanating from Canby that a road is to be put into their country from that town by outside interests. This decision put something of a damper on the earlier part of the meeting but when the directors made it plain to those present that work would be started at Molalla and carried on from that end of the road just as soon as they themselves showed their intention of boosting the work along with subscriptions for stock either in money or work they felt off the fence on the Oregon City side in a hurry.

L. W. Robbins, J. W. Thomas and I. M. Tolliver were appointed a committee to rustle stock subscriptions and arrange for another rally in a few days. The directors announced that work could begin at the Molalla end of the road within three or four days of the time the subscription list is brought to the point where it will pay for the grading of the line from the Molalla end back to a junction with the section protected between Beaver Creek and that place. Almost enough has already been subscribed to complete the grading to Mulino. Mulino is slightly over half

J. D. STEVENS HANDS O'REN HOT STUFF

SCATHING JEREMIAH GIVEN ON STREET BY RABID SOCIALIST.

J. D. Stevens who announced early last week that he would talk in Oregon City Saturday evening against the Single Tax and W. S. U'Ren was on the job alright. Such a scathing Jeremiah as Stevens delivered is not often heard on the streets of this city and quite a crowd gathered to hear. While getting in a few licks at the single tax that showed on the face that they were meant more for U'Ren than the tax. Stevens did not spare U'Ren in the least. Coward, politician, bribe taker, hypocrite and shy-heel lawyer were some of the mildest terms in his vocabulary of abuse. Stevens is an inveterate enemy of U'Ren and so proclaimed himself in no uncertain terms.

The crowd listened good naturedly but it is very doubtful if any converts were made for the anti-U'Ren forces by what Stevens had to say. His language being too personally abusive.
