erning the matter that definite arrangements had been made for our school, until at the Canby meeting. I thought reference had been made only to our grades. Gladly I took up the matter at once. It is true as claimed, however, that I would not then or now force a contest of this kind upon any student or students. Such work must be voluntary for best dents to try for the team plans and to do their part in all other educational functions of the county. The team was selected less than two weeks before the date of the general con-

Neither of these debaters reported off the team op account of illness were at Paraplace. Two others, one of whom had been selected two days before, did go and probably took notes. The Oregon City superintendent, while not suggesting it, knew these members of the team were go-ing there, but did not believe any injustice lay in the act then and is of the same opinion now. No attempt was made to disguise the attendance. That there was no unfairness to Estacada's team is obvious: (a) It and the same privilege and no complaint would have ensued. (b) Similar cop-ies of literature containing same arguments on the same question were fur-nished all schools of the county, by the state library so there was little to be gained from this source.
