Did you hear of Joe Sheahan, the boy who made Oregon City famous at Eugene. Happily, there was no official to shut out our high school athletic team.

Those who failed to attend the Molalla railroad meeting at the Commercial Club Friday night did not hear an extremely lucid presentation of the scope of the project.

Our own Attorney-General says the state railroad commission cannot force the railroads to advertise time tables. This is a decision that the public should appreciate.

One hundred and fifty tons of wool from the several thousand sheep belonging to a firm of sheepmen in one of the Washington farming sections will be taken on a rather circuitous route in its transfer from seller to purchaser's place of business.

Heart to Heart Talks. By EDWIN A. NYE.

EASTER OBSERVANCE. I am an optimist. However, I strike a minor note occasionally. Now that Easter Sunday is far enough away let me sound that note.

For several weeks preceding that Sunday I noted the advertising of the milliners and tailors and ready made dealers. If you remember they ran like this:

"Garments for Easter Sunday." "Get into the Easter procession." "And so forth. Without desiring to be irreverent it seemed to me there was a kind of resurrection and what will you wear for an Easter bonnet? mixture of suggestion in the newspaper announcements.

On the other hand—I could not help but note the fact that there were people in the church that Easter morning who seldom had been seen there. Perhaps they came to worship.

And I thought of all the tired milliners and tailors and sewing women and clerks who had been rushed almost day and night to furnish forth the trappings of the Easter celebrants. Were they at church?

Day of all meaningful days in the long 2,000 years since the angel rolled away the stone from the mouth of the sepulcher and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel of the resurrection!

"Well, the new things were perfectly lovely. And there certainly is nothing wrong in wanting to wear and see the beautiful things, is there?" "No," I said. "No, but—"

EDUCATION is as important when applied to one extremity as to the other. For instance, Miss Bessie Clayton has highly educated toes. To be sure, she has not neglected her mind either, and she has many charms of person, but her educated toes and the muscles that control them are in more ways than one her real support.

TOOSE PROTEST IS HEARD

(Continued from page 1) Estacada defeated Mount Pleasant in their debate on an entirely different question with the Parkplace team in the debate. Professor James denied that he had been any intention to shut the Oregon City High School out of the contest. He said that Superintendent Toose was at fault declaring that a debate had been arranged between Oregon City and Estacada teams.

Professor Jolly, of Parkplace and Miss Glover, principal of the Parkplace schools, testified in behalf of Superintendent Toose.

Show Women Criminals No Mercy; They're as Bad as Men. By Judge NORMAN S. DIKE of Brooklyn.

THERE is no sex in crime. A woman who commits a felony should receive no leniency merely because she is a woman. If women desire EQUAL RIGHTS they must be prepared to meet EQUAL OBLIGATIONS. I am quite willing to believe—in fact, I am very well convinced—there should be no sex in POLITICS. But I must say, as a judge, I am entirely convinced there should be no sex in CRIME. A CRIME IS A CRIME. A MAN AND A WOMAN COMMITTING THE SAME FELONY MUST SUFFER EQUAL PUNISHMENT. FROM THE JUDGE'S POINT OF VIEW THAT IS QUITE CLEAR. It is ridiculous to plead for a lighter sentence because the criminal involved happens to be a woman. In some cases that very fact makes the wrong more difficult to understand.
