The suburban housewife can find plenty of young shoots of dandelions at this senson to use on her table if salads and pot herbs at this season gather the delicate young leaves early in the morning, as the hot sun of midday seems to toughen them.

The dandellop is such a bitter little herb that a salad made entirely of it is not to be advised. The leaves combine well with lettuce or onlens and may be used with new beets or deviled eggs. An excellent French cook adds a bit of bacon cut in dice to a salady of bleached dandelion

Macaroni and Bacon. To cook macaroni and bacon take a quarter of a pound of macaroni, a quarter of a pound of rashers of bacon, four tomatoes or six if small, grated cheese, butter pepper and sait. Boil the macaroni in saited water till tender, then drain and out into shortthe Fill a buttered taking dish with layers of macaroni and tomatoes. flavoring each layer with pepper, sait and grated cheese and putting some small bits of butter between. Cover the top with breadcrumbs and bake for half an hour in a moderate oven. Serve with nicely fried rashers of bacon on top.

Coffee Cake.

To make coffee cream cake take one and a half cups of sugar, two of flour. two eggs, two and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a pinch of salt, about three-quarters of a teaspoonful of lemon, a quarter of a cup of butter and a tablespoonful of coconnut. Melt the butter, break in the eggs without beating and pour in an eighth of a cup of milk and half a cup of cold coffee Make in three layers.

For filling use a pint of milk, half a cup of flow two eggs (beaten), sait, essence and a cap of sugar Boll ingre-

Torragon Sauce

To make tarragon souce, which is suitable accompaniment to various kinds of fish, vegetables and dressed eggs, bent up the yolk of an egg with a teaspoonful of tarragon vinegar and stir it into half a plut of boiling melted butter after taking the saucepan from the stove. Continue to stir for a few minutes to prevent the sauce from curdling, then add a large teaspoonful of finely chopped fresh tarragon and it

A Cooking Hint. Whenever you are baking cookies pin a piece of muslin over the bread board, stretching it tight. Flour the muslin well and you can roll the dough as soft and thin as you please. A piece of muslin around the rolling pin is still another improvement.

As a city and as a people we have confined our efforts toward demon-strating that we are deserving of the trust that the people of the state have reposed in us. We feel that it is our sacred duty to contribute to the moral and physical welfare of the young peowith us and attending college. We feel that it is a parental duty to to strive to keep from them those inple of our state while they are residfluences that may injure the moral character of the student and thus cooperate with the college authorities in developing the highest degree of citizenship. We point with pride to the fact that Corvallis was the first AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMEENTS town to adopt local option, and not only that, but in no town in the state has the unlawful disposition of liquor been more vigorously and diligently

"The health of the student is dependent upon two things more than upon anything else; good water and systematic sewerage. We have both. The source of the water supply of the college and the city is a mountain stream, sixteen miles away at the foot of a snow peak.
