HARMON LAUNCHES BOOM.

Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, has a press agent who is no slouch. It is evident that Ohio's favorite son views with alarm the Western popularity of Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, for we have just received a letter from the American Press Association, offering us, without charge, six full columns of matter ready for the press.

NO PARDON FOR BANKERS.

It is not surprising that the President has refused pardon to both of the two bankers, Morse and Walsh, whose large and influential circles of friends have been working for their pardon ever since their incarceration.

We Need a Little Less Faith In the Mighty Dollar

By Rabbi WISE of New York

TWO problems at least are involved in any consideration of the ethics of business, the matter of BUSINESS and the manner of its CONDUCT. It is not only the methods of business which are on trial in our own time, but the fact of business itself.

To make of business the end of life instead of merely a MEANS OF LIVING is in itself unethical. Some men say proudly, others half ashamed, "I live for business." The man who lives for business is unethical, however his business be conducted.

Divided Bathing Suit Appears; It Seems to Have Advantages

THERE was no doubt that it would be here, and here it is. What? Why, the harem bathing suit, or the divided skirt bathing suit, or the trouserette bathing suit, or the jupe culotte bathing suit—call it what you will, the picture above shows it—or them.

There should be placed in every pig yard and pasture a box with salt, charcoal, air-slaked lime, bone meal and hardwood ashes, so the pigs can help themselves at will.

The harvest season is the most trying of the year. There is so much to be done, so little time to do it in and so few hands to accomplish it, that we are often at our wit's end.

An Eastern paper announces the receipt in New England of 500 barrels of Oregon salmon.

The Oregon City Postoffice.—We are pleased to state that the postoffice in this city is about to be made a first class office.

INSPECTOR CONDEMNS TEXAS POTATOES

EMBARGO PLACED BECAUSE OF INSECTS—CALIFORNIA SPUDS TABOO.

An embargo has been placed upon Texas potatoes all along the Pacific Coast and all future shipments will be closely watched and this is likely to cause a stoppage of supplies from there.

Another carload of Texas potatoes was condemned by the Portland fruit inspector owing to the appearance of the potato bug in the shipment. Some of the stock was removed from the car previous to the embargo placed upon it by the inspector, but warning has been given all interests not to molest supplies until passed by the county official.
