GARY SAYS TRUST HALTED BIG PANIC

STEEL HEAD DECLARIES HIS COMPANY WAS BEHIND MORGAN IN UPHEAVAL.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL PREDICTED

Tennessee Coal & Iron Company Bought to Prevent Crash of Banking House in New York.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, told the Stanley steel trust investigating committee today that his corporation stood behind J. P. Morgan in averting a disastrous financial upheaval in 1907.

He insisted, challenging the statements of John W. Gates before the committee, that the purchase by the steel corporation of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company at that time was made at a price more than it was worth for the express purpose of preventing the crash of the New York banking firm of Moore & Schley.

Mr. Gary related a dramatic story of the momentous events which preceded the absorption of the Tennessee concern. He described in detail how he and Henry C. Frick, at the instance of Mr. Morgan, had revealed the plan of buying the company at a price greater than its value to President Roosevelt and Elihu Root, then Secretary of State. He told how he concluded, after their interview with Mr. Roosevelt, that any government prosecution of their act would have been an "outrage."

Mr. Gary made surprising statements during his eight hours' examination, but none more startling than his declaration that government control and publicity of corporations in this country must come. He said that through the American Iron & Steel Institute, the heads of the steel industry are trying to steer a course between the Sherman antitrust law, which he characterized as "archaic," on the one hand, and the old-time method of destructive competition on the other, in order to operate for public welfare.

OAKS BEAT BEAVERS IN GREAT FINISH

FANWELL GOES AEROPLANING IN EIGHTH AND NINTH— SCORE 8 TO 2.

PORLAND, June 2.—(Special)—The Oaks turned the tables on McCreary's frisky Beavers today, and won by a score of eight to two. Fanwell was anything but an enigma, the visitors making thirteen hits. Portland connected with Pernoll's curves eight times, but the hits were pretty well scattered. The fielding was somewhat ragged, Oakland making three errors and Portland two. The Oaks did not score until the eighth, when they made three scores, adding five more in the next inning.

The results Friday were as follows:

Pacific Coast League—Oakland 8,

Portland 2; Sacramento 8, Vernon 2;

San Francisco 8, Los Angeles 5.

Northwestern League—Tacoma 6,

Portland 3; Spokane 5, Vancouver 1;

Seattle 6, Victoria 4.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES OF 1911

EDITORS ELECTED FOR SCHOOL PAPER

BIG STAFF SUCCEEDS TO MANAGEMENT OF THE HESPERIAN.

The members of the Oregon City High School at a meeting Friday afternoon elected the editors and managers of the Hesperian, the school paper. The candidates voted upon had been selected by the faculty as best fitted for the work. The following were elected: Editor-in-chief, Ambrose Brownell; assistant editor-in-chief, Louise Huntley; exchange editor, Evanson Harrison, alumni, Waldo Caulfield; athletic editor, Kent Wilson, Jones, Pearl Frances; artist, Florence White; business manager, Gilbert Morris; assistant business manager, Charles Beatie; subscription manager, John Dambach; assistant subscription manager, Edith Aldredge; association editor, Eulie Schuebel; literary editors, Esther Healy, Ruby Frances.

The present issue of the Hesperian for the present school term was issued Friday, and is designated Commence-ment Number. It is forty-eight pages, not including the cover, and is handsomely illustrated. The paper is replete with poems, stories, editorials and jokes, and reflects much credit upon the editorial staff. There are also several pages of "business," which proves that the business management was busy. The table of contents is as follows:

Half-tone of Superintendent F. J. Tooze, half-tone of the faculty of the High School; "When Betty Interfered," a story; "Springtime," a poem; "Art's Aid," a story; "O. C. H. S. For-ever," song by Louise Huntley; "History of the Class of 1911," Bernice Dawson and Evelyn Harding; "The Senior Class Prophecy," by Margaret McCulloch, Zeta Andrews and Louise Dauté; class poems, editorials, school notes, senior, sophomore, freshman notes, athletics, exchanges, "Uncle David and Forest Fires," and "Quips and Cranks." The paper also contains half-tones of the members of the graduat-ing class.

Other important features of the program were a solo, "Voices of the Woods," by Helen Ely, accompanied by Carol Ely; address of welcome, by Evangeline Dye; recitations by Maud Davis, Otto Allison; violin solo, Allie Levitt, and song, "Stars of summer Night," by Eighth grade Barclay School girls.

Superintendent Tooze complimented the class upon its work, and offered good advice. All the children participating did remarkably well, and the exercises were declared to be as fine as are ordinarily given by High School graduates.

The following are the pupils who received certificates:

Barclay School—Aline Phillips, Alice Miller, Bernice Buckles, Violet Roberts, Cynthia Pace, Dorothy Latourette, Helen Blanchard, York Hammon, Elizabeth Schatz, Delta Woodward, Everett Cross, Marjory Money, Mable Davis, Evangeline Dye, Guy Waldron, John Beatie, Mabelle Woodward, Roberta Schuebel, Alice Levitt, Carl Hodges, Harold Nash, Clark Story, Freda Martin, Emilie Staats, Frank Nelson, Wilbur Roberts, Alvin Wevesilk, Zena Moore, Elizabeth Monell, Jane Lacey, Myrtle Henderson, Glen Jeremiah, Ted Miller.

Eastham School—Otto Allison, Herbert Calliff, Walter Elliott, Loy How ard, Richard Frederick, Arthur Farr, Thelver McCune, Walter Jones, Ralph Griffin, Louie Strohmeier, Helen Baker, Alice Brown, Helen Ely, Georgia

MELBA KIDDER CONVULSES HOUSE

Roberta Schuebel Acquits Herself Admirably — Rev. Proctor Urges Right Living.

Fifty-five pupils, the largest and best eighth grade class in the history of the Oregon City Schools, were on Friday, at the Shively Opera House, given certificates of promotion to the High School. The exercises were to have been held in the Eastham School, but long before 10 o'clock, the time set for the beginning, the big assembly room was crowded, and hundreds clamored for admittance. As a result, Superintendent Tooze decided to have the exercises in the opera house, which was well filled.

The recitations of Melba Kidder and Roberta Schuebel were especially fine. The former appeared as an imitator of girls less gifted than herself in the art of declaiming. She showed remarkable versatility, and kept the audience laughing almost all the time she was on the stage. Miss Schuebel was just as clever in her line, and delighted the audience.

The Rev. W. M. Proctor delivered an interesting address, the most important feature of which was his advice upon living. He said that children had been taught to master the "Three R's," but in reality there was one more important than reading, writing and arithmetic—right living. He depicted the relation of education to right living, and declared that the two should be inseparable. Mr. Proctor was given rapt attention, and his discourse was as much appreciated by the older persons present as the members of the class.

HORSES STAMPEDE ON TRACK HALTING TRAIN

ANIMAL CAUGHT IN TRESTLE IS SERIOUSLY HURT—POLICE TO RESCUE.

Several horses, thought to have escaped from a pasture near Oregon City, stampeded on the Southern Pacific tracks near the station early Friday morning, and caused a freight train to be delayed almost two hours, and the through passenger, which arrives here at 2:14 o'clock, almost an hour. One of the horses became fastened in the trestle near the plant of the Hawley Paper & Pulp Company, and it required the efforts of Policemen Green and Cook and the crews of the passenger and freight trains to extricate the animal. The horse was seriously injured, and is being cared for in this city until the owner can be found.

PROFESSOR CROOKS GIVES ADVICE

Simple Exercises Mark High School Commencement—12 Graduates to Enter College—Five Will Teach.

Thrilling his auditors with his message of inspiration and convulsing the house with his quaint humor, Professor Crooks, of Albany College, Friday night addressed the largest graduating class the Oregon City High School has sent forth, on the subject of "Being Young."

Professor Crooks urged upon the members of the class the necessity of retaining the enthusiasm and sincerity of youth as the means of attaining the mood of success that is before them. He also urged the continuance of the study habit that may continue the development so well begun.

prodigal profusion among the flowers. A program simple, but impressive, marked the passing of the High School days for this group of young persons.

After a song by the school Glee Club, Rev. Zimmerman, of the Methodist Church invoked the blessing. Professor Tooze then introduced the speaker of the evening. The address was followed by the presentation of diplomas and scholarships, closing with another song by the Glee Club.

The general ensemble as the graduates sat in their places on the platform facing the audience was an inspiration to better things long to be remembered.

Judge Beattie Marries Couple.

Miss Susie Farrar and C. E. Hatch, of this city, were married at the court house on Friday afternoon. Judge Beattie performing the ceremony. Miss Nellie Derby acted as bridesmaid.

While J. F. Johnson was the best man, the bride was attired in a gray traveling suit, with hat to match.

Elks Postpone Site Selection.

The Oregon City Lodge of Elks, at a meeting Friday night, postponed indefinitely the selection of a site for a club house. The Hawley property, which the lodge had arranged to purchase, was rejected because of a hitch in the title.

Couple Granted License.

Susie Farrar and C. E. Hatch, of this city, were granted a marriage license on Friday by County Clerk Mulliss. Miss Maud Woodward, mistress-at-arms, Miss Clara Schlenthart.
