GOVERNMENT BY COMMISSION.

Municipal Government by commission is beginning to be a popular thing. We have it now in Baker, Or., in Tacoma and Hoquiam, Wash., and in many large cities of the East and South where it has been tried out and found to be some improvement over the aldermanic system. Though Portland this week defeated the commission government candidate for mayor, the sentiment in that city is very well developed and unless Mayor-elect Rushlight enters serious obstacles to the proposal it may soon be a reality.

Commission government has really passed the experimental stage. Its basic principle is that three or five men, receiving decent salaries, can manage the affairs of a municipality better than nine or more who many times have had no experience whatever in city affairs. With a commission, the people of the city conduct their business upon the plan of any other large corporation, following along strictly business lines, paying for what they get in the way of service, and demanding and securing the best service for their money.

We think the time is not far distant when we shall face the problem in Oregon City. Our city government here is no doubt fully as good as the average town where affairs are conducted under our system. But whether it is the best we can have is the question that will, sooner or later, have to be determined by the voters of this city.

There are members of the Oregon City Council who are not averse to trying the commission plan. They may not be ready at this time to give it their indorsement, but they believe the existing condition can be bettered, and that the city will not suffer by a change.

The mayor and councilmen of Oregon City do not receive a salary. Some of them work hard, giving many hours every week for the good of the city without a dollar of compensation. This is not right. We should not ask the right kind of men to handle our important public affairs for nothing, and if we do ask them, and they make mistakes, which of course they do, we have really no ground for criticism. Something for nothing is seldom desirable and the wonder is that we obtain desirable candidates for "thank you" jobs.

PORTLAND FAILS TO SCORE ON CRIEGER

ANGELS CRACK SOUTHPAW IS INVINCIBLE—ROADSTERS ALSO LOSE.

PORTLAND, Or., June 9.—(Special.)—Los Angeles defeated Portland today by a score of 6 to 0. Criege, the crack southpaw, did not allow but four hits. He was steady at all times and never in danger. After Stein had been batted freely Farnwell went in, but had to retire in the fifth because of a split finger. Fullerton, who succeeded Farnwell, pitched good ball. The Roadsters lost to Vancouver, 4 to 2.

The results Friday were as follows:

Pacific Coast League—Los Angeles 6, Portland 0; San Francisco 1, Sacramento 9; Vernon 6, Oakland 2.

Northwestern League—Vancouver 4, Portland 2; Tacoma 3, Victoria 2; Seattle 4, Spokane 3.

National League—Brooklyn 4, Chicago 1; New York 6, Pittsburgh 3; St. Louis 2, Boston 1; Philadelphia 4, Cincinnati 1.

American League—Philadelphia 5, Detroit 4; St. Louis 5, Boston 4; Cleveland 5, Washington 2; New York 9, Chicago 2.

Convicts See Circus.

SALEM, Or., June 8.—Sixty-five boys of the Oregon State Training school saw the circus today at the expense of Governor West and of the convicts at the penitentiary. The suggestion was made to the convicts while the governor was at the penitentiary and the prisoners voted unanimously to stand half the expenses from the entertainment fund and the governor agreed to stand the other half. The convicts have about $600 in their amusement fund.

American Girl Is Learning to Run Aeroplane; Seeks License

Photos copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

MISS HARRIET QUIMBY, a young woman from California who has been doing newspaper work in New York, has decided to learn to manage an aeroplane, and she is taking lessons in flying at Molsant's school at Mineola, N. Y. She expresses herself as highly pleased with her experience as far as she's gone and says that she thinks flying is safer than riding at high speed in an automobile. Like most other persons, she enjoys the sensation of rapid motion, and she says this delight can be had in its most fascinating form while in the air. Miss Quimby's experiences have not been altogether pleasant, as she has had a part in two accidents, neither of which resulted seriously to her, though two Molsant monoplanes were smashed. Miss Quimby was riding as a passenger when a bad landing was made, and she was thrown from her seat. She escaped with a few bruises. A day or two later while running the machine along the ground she smashed one wheel when the craft careened. In the pictures above Miss Quimby is shown in her fetching aviation costume and when seated in the driver's place on a monoplane.

45 Years Ago

From the Weekly Enterprise November 24, 1866.

The Barlow Road.—The gatekeeper on the Barlow road across the Cascade Mountains, furnishes us with the following summary of travel over that route for two years:

| Description | 1865 | 1866 |
|------------------------|--------|-------|
| Loose cattle | 55,827 | 3,955 |
| Sheep | 13,662 | 5,644 |
| Animals with riders | 741 | 540 |
| Animals with packs | 351 | 181 |
| Loose horses and mules | 699 | 485 |
| Wagons | 541 | 328 |

The 541 wagons crossing in 1865 were drawn by 462 yoke of oxen, and 542 span of horses and mules, owned by immigrants. Of the wagons crossing in 1866, 134 belonged to immigrants, and were drawn by 119 yoke of oxen, and 195 span of horses and mules. There has been quite a falling off this year, which is partly attributable to a reduction of rates of transportation on the Columbia, and the immense flocks and herds east of the mountains.

MRS. RISSBERGER BURIED.

Services Conducted at St. John's Church By Father Hillebrand.

The funeral of Mrs. Josephine Rissberger, wife of John Rissberger, was held at the St. John's Catholic church, Friday morning at 9 o'clock. The services were conducted by Father Hillebrand. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Many friends attended, and the casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings.

COUPLE WED AND THEN TELEPHONE PARENTS

MISS FLORENCE WANG, OF CANBY, BECOMES BRIDE OF ALLEN ADAMS.

Miss Florence Wang, of Canby, and Mr. Allen H. Adams, of this city, were quietly married in Portland Thursday night by the Rev. Henry MacCotie, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church. The ceremony was performed at the manse.

The young couple are well known in this city. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wang, of Canby, and is one of the most popular young women in that city. She has lived in this city for the past year, having been a primary teacher of the Canby public school, and while here made many friends. Mr. Adams is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, of this city, and was connected with his father's business until recently, when he went to Portland, where he is connected with a shoe company. The young people surprised their friends as well as their relatives, and the latter were advised by telephone as soon as the marriage ceremony was performed. Mr. and Mrs. Adams will live in Portland.

RED MEN LAUDED FOR BIG PORTLAND SHOW

WAR DANCE OF LOCAL ORDER PROVES INTERESTING FEATURE OF FESTIVAL.

The Improved Order of Red Men and members of the Degree Pocahontas who appeared in the grand parade, in Portland Thursday night, and afterwards put on "The Indian War Dance," received the congratulations of their friends in Oregon City Friday. The entertainment was in charge of Charles W. Kelly. All along the line of march the Indians were applauded. The Red Men rode on a large float, at the rear being the tepee covered with skins, and near the center was the fire, and red lights. The Red Men were painted in war colors and wore the Indian costumes, while some of the members of Degree of Pocahontas followed in the Bohlander automobile. Mr. Kelly accompanied the past sachem, in an automobile.

Immediately after the parade the war dance was given, in which 35 Red Men and the Degree of Pocahontas participated. Those having the leading parts were Mrs. Henry Henningsen, Mrs. Richard Bittner, Mrs. Mike Gross, Mrs. Walter Symes, Mrs. Webb Burns, of the Pocahontas order, Master John Fredricks, the papoose; Ed. McFarland, Henry Meldrum, Henry Henningsen, John Munch. The play was impressive as well as weird, and thousands of persons witnessed it.

Good Form

The Wedding Reception

Congratulations are usually offered as soon as an engagement is made known, and therefore there is no need to repeat them at the wedding reception. At the reception it suffices to shake hands with the bride and bridegroom after having shaken hands with the bride's mother. If an acquaintance with the bride who should not wait to be introduced to her. She will offer to shake hands with you as a matter of course, you being a friend of the bridegroom and a guest in her mother's house. If you are a friend of the bride and unacquainted with the bridegroom she will introduce him to you after you have shaken hands with her. If you have not had an opportunity of congratulating her on her engagement you might say, "I most wish you both every happiness." and it is an old fashioned custom to offer good wishes to a bride at a wedding.
