ELABORATE LIBRARY OPENING PLANNED

RECEPTIONS FOR CHILDREN AND GROWN PERSONS TO BE HELD.

Elaborate arrangements have been made for the opening of the Oregon City Library next week, probably Friday. Two receptions will be given, one in the afternoon for the children, and the other in the evening for the grown folk. It is probable that prominent men of this city and Portland will be asked to make addresses along the line of the benefits to be derived from libraries. Miss Alma Moore, the librarian, has been assisted in the re-arrangement of the library by Miss Topping, a member of the State Library Board. More than 400 volumes have been received since the library was closed several weeks ago, the number of volumes now being more than 1,100. The same system had been adopted as that used in the Public Library in Portland, and new chairs and tables have been provided. ELLEN A. MOORE IS MARRIED. Young Woman Becomes Bride of Portland Man. The wedding of Miss Ellen A. Moore, of Oregon City, to Ernest A. Miller, of Portland, took place Wednesday evening in the manse of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. J. R. Landsborough performing the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride, who came here from Iowa with her parents last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make Portland their home.

Old Games. "I spy" is an old game and a found with a few variations in nearly every country in the civilized world. Blind man's bluff is almost universal. The name varies, but that is the only difference in most cases. In Norway it is called "blind thief," in Spain "blind hen" and in Italy, "blind cat."

An Orchestra. The orchestra made an orchestra. That was both rare and grand. More strange than any music ever heard on sea or land. For drums you'd hardly guess it. Had turtles from the mid. And with his wings as drumsticks. He gave them many a thud.

CAN DONLIN COME BACK?

Baseball Fans Anxious to See Whether He is a Has Been or Not. Will Mike Donlin, the once famous outfielder of the New York Yankees, be able to come back? That is a big and interesting question, since the National commission reinstated him the other day. Mike is a murrin nitter, and a lot of men of that sort have retained their batting eyes long after the advancing years have made them too slow to get out of their own way. He played more or less semiprofessionally in the New York Yankees.

MIKE DONLIN, WHO WILL TRY TO REJOIN HIS OLD FORM.

alonal ball while under suspension for not reporting to New York, but he was not constantly in the game. It would be unwise to draw comparisons between him and Jimmy Callahan of the Chicago Americans, the greatest come-back of the age, for Callahan played regularly throughout the season every year when he was under suspension. Mike has been bying around the country in the show business, and the constant appearance before the footlights hardly brightened his own lamps. He may be the Mike of old, but we will have to wait until he has been in harness for a couple of weeks before judgment can be passed upon him.

SPITBALLS DON'T BOTHER SWEENEY.

"I don't find that the spitball bothers the catcher any in throwing to bases," says Ed Sweeney, catcher of the New York Americans. "It depends somewhat on the pitcher, but Russell Ford wets only a small spot on the ball, and the chances are small that the catcher's fingers will take hold on the wet spot. "There have been times when I have got hold of the wet spot and had no idea where I was going to throw the ball, yet made perfect throws. But I throw the ball with the whole hand instead of with two fingers and in that way generally avoid getting in trouble through the ball slipping off the fingers."

PIRATES HAVE MANY VETS.

No Other Club Hangs On to Old Timers as Long as Pittsburgh. There is not a club in either major league which is harboring as many veterans as the Pittsburgh club of the National league. Manager Fred Clarke himself is way up in the thirties. Then comes Tommy Leach, who is not far behind Clarke in the matter of age and yet displays more energy and aggressiveness than 90 per cent of the youngsters who break into the game. Hans Wagner is by no means a kid. He has been playing for years and yet is a star. Last, but not least, comes Deacon Phillippe, the veteran twirler, who is really being carried because of the fact that he did much for the Pirates in years gone by. No other club shows such an array of veterans. When the average ball player grows old he is turned adrift, but there appears to be more real sentiment in the Pittsburgh club than in any other.

Chance Not a Great Trader. Talking about trades, Clark Griffith does not make all the bad ones in getting, Miller and Pfeiffer, former Cubs, are going good with Boston. Ludrus and Moran are "there" with the Phillies. It appears that Frank Chance is also something of a "opinion thropist" in making deals.

CURRENT SPORT EVENTS

Sir Thomas Lipton may challenge again for the America's cup. Washington will have a new ball park if the present plans of the owners of the club do not fall through. Work will start on the new grounds on the next trip of the Senators, July 2. England will be represented at the motorboat races for the British international trophy by three boats. A determined effort to bring back the cup to England will be made by the British yachtmen. Tennis has been recognized as an intercollegiate sport at Wisconsin, and regular team tournaments will be awarded to those who make the team. The season for the Badgers will wind up this month at the Chicago tournament.

MAUDE BROOKS AND LOUIS R. NOBEL WED

ONLY RELATIVES ATTEND CEREMONY WHICH IS HELD IN PORTLAND.

A pretty marriage ceremony was performed in Portland on Wednesday morning when Miss Maude Brooks became the bride of Louis R. Nobel, of this city, Father Black, of Portland, officiating. Miss Genevieve Kelly and Mr. Roy Tobin, of this city, acted as bridesmaid and best man. The bride was becomingly attired in gray with hat to match, and the bridesmaid was attired in white. Only relatives of the bride and bridegroom attended the ceremony, after which a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Peters, of Portland. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Nobel will return to Oregon City this week, where they will reside. The former is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nobel, of this city, and has resided here most of his life, where he is well known. He is an employe of the Pacific States Telephone Company, while his bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brooks, of this city with whom she has made her home recently. She is a highly esteemed young woman, and has many friends in this city.

BEAVERS AGAIN TAKE VERNON'S MEASURE

SEATON HAS HOGAN'S MEN EATING FROM HIS HAND—SCORE 7 TO 3.

LOS ANGELES, June 15.—(Special.)—Portland repeated today, winning from Vernon by a score of 7 to 3. The California boys were never in the struggle, if such it may be called, and Seaton didn't have to extend himself. He allowed only six hits and might have done better had it been necessary. The Beavers made sixteen hits and had Raleigh aeroplaning badly. Then, too, Hogan's men didn't field as well as they were expected to do and no wonder the twirler lost heart. The Roadsters again trimmed Spokane. Following were the results Thursday: Pacific Coast League—Portland 7, Vernon 3; Los Angeles 2, Oakland 1; San Francisco 6, Sacramento 4. Northwestern League—Portland 8, Spokane 2; Seattle 6, Tacoma 6; Vancouver 11, Victoria 6. American League—New York 5, Detroit 6; Washington 8, St. Louis 7; Boston 4, Cleveland 2; Philadelphia-Chicago game postponed on account of rain. National League—Philadelphia 1, Chicago 0; Boston 8, Pittsburg 7; New York 3, St. Louis 0; Brooklyn 1, Cincinnati 0.

STONE.

The people around here are busy. The ground has been pretty well dried on top, but the grass is growing rapidly. The seeds that have been planted seem to hold a nice green color, and the weeds are in for a place in mother earth. The strawberries in this vicinity are fine. The gooseberries are of a large crop, while the currants are still growing nicely. The Loganberries and Burbankberries will soon come into the markets. The people of this place realize they are living in a town, as we now have a grocery store at Clear Creek Park. The Messrs. Mindenhall have charge of the store, and sell many goods. If things improve here fast enough we may incorporate, as we have the Grant Mumpower Pocket Sawmill, and the Clear Creek Butter Factory, besides the other buildings close by. Ed. Mendenhall's residence was burned a few days ago, most of contents of which were saved. The house was insured. The Home Oil well has commenced operations again and progress is being made through the rock and earth. The people around Stone and those who have taken stock in the well may be surprised and happy to know that prospects are favorable. Two men have charge. The shareholders may hear of or see a gusher well here in Clackamas county.

Points for Mothers

Infantile Paralysis. Infantile paralysis is a germ disease. Being a germ disease, infantile paralysis is communicable from person to person. It is contagious and infectious. The germ is mainly taken through the nose. It is communicated by means of the nasal discharge. Wherever possible handkerchiefs should be destroyed when soiled. In any event, they should be thoroughly boiled. The use of the pocket handkerchief, however, is not sufficient to protect a child from infection. The nasal passage and throat should be kept thoroughly-sterilized. A mouth and nose-wash of hydrogen peroxide may be used for the purpose. This may be applied with an atomizer or other form of spray. Children should be made to avoid the filth of the streets. Under no circumstances should they buy fruit or candies which have been exposed to the dust charged air of the streets. Do not let your children indulge in kissing. Infantile paralysis may very readily be spread in just that way. Above all, keep your child clean. These precautions are more necessary in the summer months, but it would not be unwise to practice them the whole year.

Gifts For Children.

The joy of welcoming a new baby into the family often finds expression in deluging the newcomer with offerings and tokens. No gift can be too great and costly for baby. Proud grandparents and doting aunts and fond uncles, and sympathetic friends all wish to attest their interest in some tangible way, and "what to give" baby continues to be a source of anxiety throughout its career. It seems almost a crime to think of the large amounts expended upon toys whose usefulness are over in a day. Why does not some one think of the future and give things that are really worth while and which will give real pleasure later on? Think of the joy of possessing a good library when one is old enough to fully appreciate it. Some girls possess strings of well-matched pearls whose beginnings were formed when they were tiny tots, and who received one at a time as birthday gifts. Sets of silver forks and spoons have also been gathered together in this way, and pictures which have some true artistic value. It is true that all these things are of but scant interest to the very young boy or girl, but as they grow older their interest is awakened, and a real appreciation for possessing beautiful things is found to be a great delight.

Mothercraft For Boys.

Mothercraft for boys is the newest thing in the various settlements in the east side of New York. Boys are taught to help their mothers at home. Mothercraft includes care of the baby, cooking, dressmaking, laundry work, home management, home hygiene and many other things. "I think the time soon will come," said a settlement worker, "when boys throughout the country will be taught domestic economy just as are girls. Among the poorer classes men frequently are out of employment, and the women can find work. Naturally the husband should be able during his idleness to attend to the household duties. The sooner a boy learns much about the care of the home the better fitted he will be in an emergency to look after the home. He should be trained to help his mother. Then he will be prepared to help his wife."

A Boy's Friends.

Welcome Tom, Dick or Harry if he is your boy's friend. Treat him with as much respect as you would an older person. His friend's remarks will influence your son mightily in his regard for home. Moreover, if the friend is undesirable your boy will more easily see in the refinement of home. Outside he may be a hero; within, all his defects stand out. Encourage your boy to bring his friends home. You can see his associates then, and he does not need to go out to see them.

Evenings at Home.

Mothers, don't keep your tired moments for the evening. Rest, if need be, in the afternoon, for you have very important work to do later on. Be ready to play games, to accompany songs, even to dance, for there is nothing so good or so jolly, and many perfect dancers have been made at home. If the home is a proper club it will have its dramatic society, its choir, its band, its parliament, its lending library, its smoking-converts and its "ladies' night." You can make the boys think there is no place like home if you like.

Crochet Hooks.

Pretty little socks are made for baby in handmade lacework. They are extremely fine and of an intricate design, but they would be pretty and serviceable if made from soft cotton in any pretty crochet stitch, and the woman who is handy with the hook could easily make them without a pattern.
