VACATION TIME.

Often it is a Mere Farce to the Busy Wife of the President.

© Ill. by American Press Association.

MR. WILLIAM H. TAFT

About this season of the year the first lady in the land packs her household effects, or at least some portion of them, and transfers herself and family from the White House at Washington to a temporary White House in more rural regions.

With the Roosevelts it was home to Oyster Bay, but with the Tafts it is to a rented villa at Beverly Mass. No doubt the going home of the Roosevelts was accomplished with a minimum of fuss and trouble, for in going back to one's own home new and stylish wardrobes are not required nor is it necessary to carry along this or that convenience which sojourn in even the most carefully fitted fashionable villa will not supply.

To leave the White House household in such order that its domestic machinery will run smoothly until her return to superintend dressmaking and packing on a large scale, these are some of the worries that confront the first lady in the land on retiring to the semi-privacy of the vacation at Beverly.

Fortunately the summer White House is located in a region where rest and invigorating air are to be obtained and those bores of great people the lion hunters, have little chance to reach them.

The house is located on the crest of a hill, five minutes from the water, where yachts may anchor. Golfing is excellent, the neighbors are agreeable and unobtrusive, and it is to be hoped, the summer will afford the first lady in the land that rest and recreation which will completely build her up after her late illness and permit her once more to assume the place as White House hostess, which, during her indisposition, her daughter, Miss Helen, has been so ably filling.

A BALTIMORE BEAUTY.

Her Engagement to Alfred Vanderbilt Often Rumored.

Mrs. Smith Hollins McKim is regarded by many persons as the most beautiful woman in New York society. She is a Baltimorean by birth, a daughter of Captain Isaac Emerson and heiress to much wealth. When about seventeen she married Dr. Smith Hollins McKim. She was granted a Reno divorce from him last October.

Mrs. McKim is very much interested in horses. She attends all the important exhibitions. Society has persistently whispered that she might marry Mr. Alfred Vanderbilt, but a number of other society men are equally attentive to the fair divorcee, who so far has shown no intention of relinquishing her recently won freedom. Her beauty is of the blond order, and she is clever as well as beautiful. Should she become Mrs. Vanderbilt she is quite charming and brainy enough to assume the social leadership in New York which no one seems clever enough to capture since the death of the late Mrs. Astor.

HENDERSON FINDS VERNON MEN EASY

McCREIDIE'S HIRED MEN POUND THE SPHERE AND WALK AWAY WITH GAME.

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—(Special.)—The Beavers with Benny Henderson in the box had no trouble in winning from Vernon today. Benny didn't seem to extend himself, but the home team couldn't do much with his delivery. Vernon made a run in the first and two in the fourth. The Beavers, however, were always ahead, and after the fourth Henderson tightened up, not giving Hogen's men a chance. Portland hammered Willett at will, sixteen hits being the grand total. Each team made one error. The results Friday were as follows:

Pacific Coast League—Portland 8, Vernon 3; San Francisco 7, Sacramento 1; Los Angeles 2, Oakland 1. Northwestern League—Portland 13, Spokane 12; Tacoma 5, Seattle 0; Vancouver 5, Victoria 2. American League—Cleveland 5, Boston 2; Washington 6, St. Louis 0; Philadelphia 10, Chicago 6; New York-Detroit game postponed on account of rain.

National League—Chicago 6, Philadelphia 3; Pittsburg 8, Boston 2; St. Louis 8, New York 4; Cincinnati-Brooklyn game postponed on account of rain.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

The Portland Union Stock Yards Company reports as follows: Receipts for the week have been as follows: Cattle 592, calves 50, hogs 1733, sheep 6790, horses and mules 24. Owing to the scarcity of supplies in the cattle division, prices stiffened up somewhat the last of the week. One prime load of good steers, brought $6.40, while several loads brought $6.25. While these prices are not as high as those obtained before the slump, shippers realize that it is now time for grass cattle and corresponding lower prices. The cow market remains steady to strong with best qualities at $5.50, medium $5 to $5.25. There is a good market for light, well finished veal, one lot bringing $7.75 and another of sixty head $7.50.

The price of best light hogs continues to advance about a nickel a week, top now quoted at $6.90 with steady demand. A good many stockers were on the market, prices ranging from $7.00 to $7.25, owing to quality. Heavy hogs are selling from $5 to $6 with marked tendency on the part of the buyers to discriminate against this class of swine. Demand for draft horses continues good and the record of sales for this week is encouraging.

The suspect was first seen acting in a suspicious manner near Twilight Thursday evening. He is said to have obtained for supper at farmhouses. He went to the home of Thomas Kell and Friday morning, and finding Mrs. Kell alone, demanded that she give him breakfast. She promised to do so, and he stopped at the door to wash his hands. Mrs. Kell went into the house and locked the screen doors. She says she was not much alarmed for the man had done nothing up to that time to excite suspicion. Finishing washing, he rolled a cigarette and without making any attempt to enter the house through the door began peering in the windows. Still Mrs. Kell did not become excited and continued her housework. Finally the man left the house and looked back as he walked toward the front gate. Arriving at the gate he stopped for a moment, still keeping his eyes upon the house. He left through a field, but until he was out of sight he would occasionally stop and look back.

Man Hunt Is Started. Mrs. Kelland notified her husband of the stranger upon his return home for dinner, and he in turn called the attention of his neighbors to the suspect. The man, carrying a club, crossed a road near a force of workmen early in the afternoon and Mr. Matcone and his men, several of them obtaining firearms, started in pursuit. They chased the fellow through a field, and every now and then he would stop and brandish the club.

BASEBALL

RECREATION PARK, Cor. Vaughn and Twenty-fourth Sts. SPOKANE vs. PORTLAND. June 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18. Games Begin Weekdays at 3 p. m. Sundays, 2:30 P. M. LADIES' DAY FRIDAY. Boys Under 12 Free to Bleachers Wednesday.

When called upon to halt he increased his speed. Several shots were fired at him, but none is thought to have taken effect. Finally one of the party caught up with the man, and after the short encounter at the edge of the woods, the suspect disappeared. Meantime the authorities here had been notified, and the flying automobile trip was being made to Twilight. Search was made for the fugitive until dark, and another effort will be made to find him today. He is about 5 feet seven inches tall, has a dark mustache and about a week's growth of beard. He wore a white straw hat with a black coat and blue overalls. Search For Slayer Active.

Watchers stationed by the sheriffs of Clackamas and Multnomah counties at the various farmhouses in the vicinity of Ardenwald saw nothing Friday of the mysterious prowler, who every night previous to the several weeks has shown himself momentarily to the farmers. The houses along the Willsburg road within half a mile of the Hill house, and particularly those near the fringe of woods that covers the Johnson creek bottoms, were carefully shadowed by the deputy sheriffs and the men were so placed that it is thought impossible for the man to have ventured out without their having seen him. If he did leave the woods it was to steal into a pasture and back again without attempting to approach the houses.

Obritz, the farm hand who was attacked by the prowler early Thursday morning and who had seen him following the cattle in from pasture every morning as he went out to his milking, missed him for the first time in several days Friday. A careful watch was maintained all about the Dysle dairy and in the pasture to the north of the house where the man has so often been seen by Dysle and Obritz skulking among the trees but he failed to show himself—perhaps suspecting a watch would be kept as a result of his attack on Obritz.
