MORMON LEADER MUST TELL STORY

CONGRESS INSISTS UPON HEAD OF CHURCH TESTIFYING IN SUGAR PROBE.

OTHERS SUGGESTED TO TAKE STAND

Joseph F. Smith Urges as Excuse Home Obligations—Officer to be Sent For Him If Necessary.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Joseph F. Smith, of Salt Lake City, head of the Mormon Church, must come to Washington to testify before the House committee investigating the Sugar Trust, regarding his connection with the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company. Replying to a message from Mr. Smith, saying that an attack of rheumatism and business obligations would prevent his appearance here, Chairman Hardwick of the committee, sent this ultimatum:

"Committee has determined to have your testimony; the only question left is will you come on the 22d without subpoena, or shall we send an officer to serve you? Please answer at once."

Another Man Suggested.

In his message to Mr. Hardwick, the head of the Mormon Church said:

"The sugar industry in Utah and Idaho is one of the great blessings to the people of those states. The men in management are capable and honest men, any one of whom can give you all the information that I can and more, in reference to the details of the business."

"I am always willing to give evidence in any business with which I am connected, but my obligations here make it exceedingly difficult, if not impossible for me to reach Washington by the 22d."

Prominent Men Summoned.

John H. Smith, one of the presidents of the church, a director and member of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company, is now in the East and could, without expense to the government, meet your committee and answer questions asked. Besides, Mr. Smith is in no health to go to Washington.

Among the prominent sugar men asked to appear in the near future are Joseph F. Smith, of Utah; John D. and Adolph Spreckels, of California; Chester S. Morey, of Colorado, and Thomas E. Cutler, of Utah. Mr. Cutler left Salt Lake today, according to a telegram received here.

WE'RE STEERING YOU

The unveiling of the fountain in the McLoughlin Park in memory of the father of old Oregon, will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mayor Brownell and Mrs. C. H. Dye will make addresses, and Mrs. Leon Des Larzes addressee, composed of Mrs. W. C. Green, Mrs. A. E. Frost, Mrs. E. H. Cooper and Mrs. Leon Des Larzes, will render several selections. Miss Veda Williams has charge of a chorus that will sing several appropriate selections.

Park Is Attractive.

Never before has McLoughlin Park made a more attractive appearance than now. The roses are in their fullest bloom, as well as the other flowering plants. The lawn has been well kept, and Mrs. J. W. Norris, who is deserving of much of the credit for the appearance of the grounds surrounding the historical old home of Dr. McLoughlin, has worked faithfully to obtain these grounds, whether the building was moved, and for keeping them up. A rustic summer house was recently completed, overlooking the city, and this will be covered by beautiful vines.

Woman's Club Deserves Praise.

The unveiling of the fountain will be under the auspices of the Woman's Club of this city. This fountain is the first memorial erected to Dr. McLoughlin and the Woman's Club deserves much credit for its work. Although the city has been late in honoring the memory of its illustrious founder, a large crowd is expected to attend the exercises this afternoon.

MAN IS CAUGHT THIS MORNING

OREGON CITY, Or., June 18.—A man with short hair was caught loitering around the Grand Theatre this morning. He evidently hadn't had anything to eat for some time, as his teeth were rather long. When asked what he was doing there, he replied that he was just looking at the posters and was crazy for the show to open up so he could see the good pictures to be shown there today.

We're well "bunched" on fine things for men and young men. Don't forget us.

GET THE GUN! Here is a facsimile of a cut printed in the N.Y. papers along with the official statement of a large tailoring concern to the effect that the New York man will look like this! It's true, too. Is it any wonder that so many of us are doing our best to get a job on a farm?

WET GOODS. About now the woman who looks like this picks out her bathing suit pattern with great care, selecting one of the new Jersey-harem styles that are depicted in the fashion plates but, as usual, you will see her going into the water looking like this, take it from me and I can prove it too.

JUDGE CAMPBELL HOLDS THAT COMPLAINT WAS NOT DRAWN PROPERLY.

Judge Campbell has dismissed the charge against Joseph Kerrick, proprietor of the Log Cabin saloon, who was convicted before City Recorder Stipp, of having women in his place, and fined $75 and given a jail term of ten days. Kerrick applied to the Circuit Court for a review of the case, and Judge Campbell decided that the lower court erred.

Gilbert Hedges, attorney for Kerrick, argued that the complaint against his client was improperly drawn in charging two crimes. It was on this point that the decision was reversed.

Two women were found in a room above Kerrick's place sometime ago.

They forfeited their bonds of $20 each, and have not been seen since.

They are thought to have come from Portland.

SHERIFF ON TRAIL OF SHASTA LIMITED BANDITS.

ROSEBURG, Or., June 17.—Sheriff Quine and Deputy Sheriff Stewart, who are on the trail of the two highwaymen who held up the Shasta Limited near Yoncalla last night, reported late tonight that they had struck the trail of two men who went west from Yoncalla.

The highwaymen walked backwards up a hill for half a mile to throw pursuers off the trail. A hole in the toe of one of their shoes easily gave them the trail.
