OSLER MADE BARONET BY KING

GEORGE SIGNALIZES COMING CORONATION BY DISTRIBUTING TITLES TO MANY.

ROSEBERY IS NAMED AN EARL

George Alexander, Actor-Manager, One of Forty to Be Knighted—Twenty New Baronets.

LONDON, June 19.—The coming coronation of King George is signaled by a free-handed distribution of honors. In the list announced tonight the royal Premiers figure prominently. Joseph G. Ward, Prime Minister of New Zealand, is promoted to a baronetcy. Andrew Fisher, Premier of Australia, and Sir Edward Morris, leader of the New Foundland, are made baronets.

The bestowal of a baronetcy upon William Osler, regius professor of medicine at Oxford and formerly professor of medicine at Johns Hopkins University, at Baltimore, and McGill University, at Montreal, is the most interesting item in the honor list to Americans and Canadians.

Three new Marquises. The Earl of Crewe, who was the liberal leader in the House of Lords until his withdrawal on account of illness, is made a marquise. Lord Rosebery, Lord Curzon, of Kedleston, and Lord Brassey are made earls. Rosebery hereafter will be known as the Earl of Midlothian.

The Right Hon. Alexander W. Murray, master of Ellbank, the chief Liberal whip in the House of Commons; Baron Knollys, the King's secretary; Baron Allendale and the Right Hon. James Aker, Douglas, Unionist member of the House of Commons for West, are made viscounts.

High Secretaries Honored. Both of the King's secretaries are honored. Lord Knollys and Lieutenant Colonel Sir Arthur J. Hodge, the latter being one of nine new Baronets created. The others are Lord Mountbatten, Sir Charles M. McLaren, Sir Alexander Aoland-Hood, the chief naval whip; Sir William T. Lewis, noted mining expert; Sir James L. Mackay, who has given much time to the affairs of Archibald C. Corbett, member of Parliament for Glasgow since 1895; Thomas Gair Ashton, M. P. for Bedfordshire, and Geoffrey R. Benson.

Altogether, 20 new Baronets and 40 Viscounts are created. The stage has been recognized by the knighting of George Alexander, the actor-manager.

FARMERS URGED TO SAVE DOOMED DOGS

BREED ANIMALS MAY BE OBTAINED FROM POUND BY PAYING $1.

Farmers and other persons seeking dogs may be supplied by applying at the pound, which is in the stable of J. J. Roman, 501 Water street, and paying $1 if the animal desired is to be taken to the country, and if it is to be kept in the city, the license fee is additional. Chief of Police Shaw said Monday that the dogs picked up in the streets by the dog catcher would be kept only two days, and if not called for in that time by the owners, or taken by others, they would be killed.

"It is an excellent opportunity for farmers to get good dogs," said the chief. "We have picked up several well bred dogs, and all of them have been above the average. We have to kill them in order to make room for more."

The men at the stable see that the dogs are fed, the city having made no provision for this from the time of their capture until they are chloroformed. Persons desiring dogs may obtain information about those at the pound by calling up on the Pacific, Lines 2922, and on the Home telephone B-184.

Mrs. Lamora Leeson, wife of Albert Leeson, who last Saturday was arrested upon complaint of his wife, charged with disorderly conduct, Monday filed a suit for divorce. They were married August 3, 1910. Mrs. Leeson says her husband used profane and abusive language and threatened to kill her with a knife. On February 8 of this year, at Ellwood, he is said to have struck his wife, and again at Beaver Creek on October 10 last. Last Saturday Mrs. Leeson, who lives on Fourth, near Water street, telephoned to Chief of Police Shaw that she desired her husband arrested and he was lodged in jail. He lives in the city and came to Oregon City to live. In her divorce suit she prays to be allowed to resume her maiden name of Moldenbough. George C. Brownell and William M. Stone are her attorneys. ## PARROT SUMMONS AID TO STRICKEN VETERAN

JOHN F. SHOUP, POP-CORN DEALER, SUFFERS STROKE OF PARALYSIS.

"The chattering of his pet parrot which had discovered his predicament, brought aid to John F. Shoup, a veteran of the Civil War, who was paralyzed early Monday morning, in his room in the rear of his pop-corn store on Main street. Mr. Shoup, who is more than seventy years of age, lives alone. He retired Sunday night at the usual time. He suffered the stroke, which affected his entire left side shortly before midnight, and was unable to summon assistance. The parrot, however, heard his moans, and commenced emitting loud screeches. Policeman Green and J. J. Tolin, proprietor of the Electric Hotel, were attracted, and breaking down the front door they found Mr. Shoup helpless on the floor. Members of Meade Post were notified, and the old man was taken to Wildwood Hospital. Dr. Fox, who was summoned, said Mr. Shoup's condition was serious, but he will probably recover. The parrot which gave the alarm, and a canary, were taken to the hospital, to keep their owner company.

GOING TO CHINA? TAKE CLUB'S NEW ELEVATOR

SIGN AT PROMOTION BUILDING OFFERS LONG JOURNEY FREE OF CHARGE.

An oversight of the management of the Commercial Club, has caused much amusement for several days, and a correction is to be made with all possible haste. The object of the club of course, is like that of all other commercial clubs, to promote the interests of the city and county and induce persons to locate here. But one would hardly think so upon reading a sign, below the big front window of the new one-story promotion building on Main street, opposite the court house. The sign reads, "Commercial Club Headquarters," which is innocent enough, but in the lower right hand corner are the words, "Take the elevator," after which is a painted hand pointing downwards. It is needless to say that prospective settlers would not take the elevator. The sign was formerly at the entrance of the club's headquarters on the third floor of the Masonic building, which has an elevator.

DR. M'LOUGHLIN'S MEMORY HONORED

DUTY, LONG DELAYED, IS PERFORMED AT UNVEILING OF FOUNTAIN.

SPEAKERS LAUD PEOPLES' FRIEND

Mayor Brownell Says Roosevelt Persecuted John H. Mitchell to Win Glory of Panama Canal.

One of the largest crowds ever assembled in Oregon City was present at the unveiling of the memorial fountain of the city, in McLaughlin Park Sunday afternoon. The fountain, which was provided by the Woman's Club, is of beautiful design and an ornament to the park and city. Mayor Brownell and Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, the principal speakers, eulogized Dr. McLaughlin. The mayor said that it had remained for the Woman's Club to perform a duty which should have been performed long ago. He also offered to contribute $100 to a fund for a monument to Dr. McLaughlin. Both speakers of Portland provide a suitable monument for Mitchell.

"I ask you," said Mr. Brownell, "who was the better man, John H. Mitchell, convicted of nothing but practicing law before the Interior Department, his state's benefactor, or Theodore Roosevelt, who accepted $250,000 from E. H. Harriman for his campaign fund, when legislation was pending in Congress relating to the great railroads in which Mr. Harriman was interested, and who later went to Africa to kill calves and rhinoceros?"

Quartet Renders Selections. Mrs. Leon DesLarzes' quartet, composed of Mrs. W. C. Green, Mrs. A. E. Frost, Mrs. E. H. Cooper and Mrs. DesLarzes, gave several selections, and Mrs. DesLarzes sang "The Star-Spangled Banner."

In behalf of the professional and business men of the city, Rev. A. Hildebrand, of the Catholic church, which is on property donated by Dr. McLaughlin, presented Mrs. J. W. Norris, who has beautified the park and is a leader in the movement to honor the memory of Dr. McLaughlin, a large silver platter. Mrs. Norris, in her response, said that she had received all the credit she had expected in remarks made by children and young men who visited the park. She liked to hear the children, in referring to the fountain say, "Gee, ain't it a peach? It's just a dandy."

Mrs. Dye traced Dr. McLaughlin's history from the time he came to this part of the country, and related many interesting anecdotes and reminiscences regarding him. She took issue with other speakers who declared that Dr. McLaughlin was not given credit for his benevolence when he was alive.

MAYOR GEO. C. BROWNELL

were listened to with rapt attention and frequently applauded. The mayor, in the course of his address, referred to the late John H. Mitchell, and declared that he had been convicted by a packed jury. The speaker also said that Theodore Roosevelt ordered the prosecution of Mitchell for selfish reasons, and in order that he might get all the credit for building the canal through the Isthmus of Panama.

Reciting that Mitchell was chairman of the Inter-Oceanic Canal Committee of the United States Senate, and favored the construction of the canal along the Nicaragua route. Mr. Brownell asserted that Roosevelt, realizing that Mitchell would not yield to him the glory of accomplishing the great work, sought to destroy Mitchell in order that he (Roosevelt) might gratify his selfish ambition. The speaker said that Mitchell favored the Nicaragua route, not only because he thought it was the better of the two proposed, but because the people of the Pacific Coast wanted it selected. Roosevelt is Blamed.

After declaring that Mitchell had been convicted of nothing but practicing law before the Interior Department, Mr. Brownell called attention to the old story that E. H. Harriman had contributed $250,000 to one of Mr. Roosevelt's campaigns, asserted that the money was solicited by Mr. Roosevelt, and said it was a far more incriminating act on the part of Mr. Roosevelt than anything that had been proved against Mitchell.

The reference to Mitchell came after the mayor had lauded Dr. McLaughlin, called attention to his charity, his ability and the aid he gave the early settlers in Oregon and Washington. He said the people had taken too long to honor the memory of Dr. McLaughlin, and that the same delinquency existed in the case of Mitchell. He credited Mitchell, in his service of 22 years in the United States Senate, with having done more for Oregon than any other man. Among other things for which he gave the ex-Senator credit was the government appropriation for the Lewis and Clark Exposition in Portland.

Monument is Urged. Mitchell, he asserted, had obtained the appropriation after spending on one dinner to United States Senators $1900 of his salary of $5000 a year, in order that he might show them the necessity for the appropriation. The speaker declared that the Corbets and Ladds and other rich men of Portland, having been the chief beneficiaries of the exposition in enhanced land values, had shown little gratitude in allowing the grave of the ex-Senator to be almost forgotten and unmarked. He declared that Portland's remarkable growth dated from the time of the exposition, and urged that the people

MEN NAMED HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

S. E. DUFF ELECTED ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL AT SALARY OF $1,000.

WOMEN FAIL TO SEND IN CONTRACTS

Financial Statement Read at Taxpayers' Meeting Shows Total Receipts of $70,712.36 For Fiscal Year.

Radical departure from previous years was made Monday night by the Board of Directors of the city schools in the election of S. E. Duff as assistant principal of the high school and H. F. Pingleton as instructor in sciences. Mr. Duff will receive a salary of $1000 per annum and Mr. Pingleton will receive $90 a month.

Last year there was not a man on the high school faculty, and the failure of three high school teachers to file their contracts within the time specified opened an avenue for the board of directors to elect two men, and both men elected Monday night are possessors of rare educational attainments and have had large experience. Mr. Duff having taught four years as principal and four years as superintendent. He holds B. S. and A. B. degrees from Valparaiso University, Indiana. Instructors in languages and in history are yet to be chosen, and the directors will probably hold meetings some night this week to fill existing vacancies.

Prior to the directors meeting Monday night, the annual taxpayers' meeting was held in the county courthouse. The attendance was very light, and the annual reports of the directors and clerk were received and filed. They are published elsewhere in this morning's issue.

Receipts Total $70,712.36. The financial statement shows total receipts for the fiscal year of $70,712.36, embracing a bond issue that netted $40,634.36, and a total expenditure of $56,990.50, of which amount $32,763.55 has been paid for a site and on the construction of the high school building that is now nearing completion. Salaries of teachers took $14,788, supplies and fuel $1677.63, repairs and improvements to grounds $1069.94 and interest on bonds $2862.50. The directors, under authority of law, are providing a sinking fund to take care of maturing bond issues. The bonded indebtedness of the district is now $57,500, and $6000 becomes due June 1, 1913. The sinking fund amounts to $6550, and there is a net cash balance in the school treasury of $13,359.26.
