J. G. Shaw was elected school clerk and G. R. Woodie director for the year.

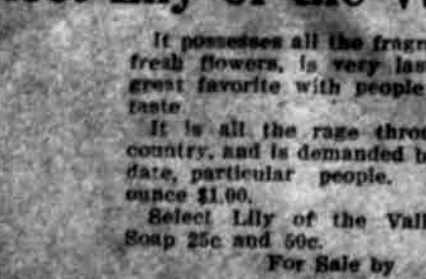

When Fish Was Scarce.

The scarcity of fish in the times in England made it difficult for the poor to keep Lent. Pops' remarks: "The talk of the towns now is whether Lent shall be kept with the strictness of the king's proclamation, which is thought cannot be, because of the poor who cannot buy fish."

Ways of the Wily.

On one of the trips of a crack Atlantic liner a distinguished looking man called the smoking room steward's attention to the presence of two "professional card sharps" whom he pointed out.

DOUBTFUL ABOUT THE PET.

—Berrymen in Washington Star.

The hard working Oregon editors are going to have a "jinks" of their own at Portland, September 21-23. These meetings have never been very profitable. We suggest that hereafter the Oregon Editorial Association meet at the various towns of the state, instead of always going to Portland.

All the wisdom of Fortia may well be accorded to Judge Lummus, of Lynn, Mass., who says a man has a perfect right to get drunk on his birthday. It's too bad that some of the bibbers of Lynn have only one birthday a year.

With rich mineral prospects at Ozle Mountain, and oil near discovery at Stone, Clackamas County may well boast of her diversified products.

Have you visited Oregon City's new library? Why not? It's accessible and there is no charge.

Children Dance Like Fairies and Elves on Settlement House Roof

Photos by American Press Association.

ALL children believe in fairies and elves, or, at any rate, it is easy for them to pretend that they do. Believing in these wood nymphs, it is easy to see how they would enjoy playing that they are sprites with nothing tangible holding them to the earth.

Additional, is completed and a family has moved in. There is a big demand for homes and many more houses could be rented.

For Safe and Sane Vacations. WITH the advent of the summer season all of those who can afford to and many of those who cannot make plans for their SUMMER VACATIONS.

One should be CERTAIN, however, that the place to which he plans to go is better than his own home before making his final arrangements.

Admitting that SOME benefits may be derived by one whose life is too monotonous by a brief change to a summer resort where all is life and gaiety and that some benefit may be derived by one whose life is too active by a visit to some quiet place in the country, yet no one can FAIRLY ALLEGE that BENEFITS will come from abandoning a pure, wholesome, abundant water supply for one which is absolutely bad or of doubtful purity and which is available only in limited quantities.

ON THE WHOLE, MY ADVICE TO THOSE WHO ARE PLANNING THEIR SUMMER VACATIONS IS TO LOOK WELL BEFORE THEY LEAP. LEST IN THEIR EFFORTS TO AVOID THE DISCOMFORTS OF THE CITY THEY ENCOUNTER THE DISEASE AND DEATH OF THE COUNTRY AND OF CROWDED CITY SUMMER RESORTS.

"JUST LIKE THE FLOWER" Select Lily of the Valley Perfume. It possesses all the fragrance of the fresh flowers, is very lasting and a great favorite with people of refined taste.

C. E. SPENCE NAMED ON ROAD COMMITTEE

EFFORT TO BE MADE TO PREVENT DUPLICATION OF HIGHWAY MEASURES.

Salem, Or., June 28.—To avoid duplication of good roads bills to go before the people through the initiative or by way of the Legislature, as well as to avoid confusion in preparing such bills, Governor West today named a committee with one representative from each county except Multnomah, which has a representation of five.

He declares that he has received many requests to name a committee which can handle all this legislation and harmonize it so that the people will have one distinct law to vote upon that will be as nearly as possible an expression of the wishes of every county in the state.
