At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller on Seventh and Center streets, Thursday afternoon, was a large gathering of young folk, the occasion being the celebration of little Gordon Miller's fifth birthday anniversary.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller on Seventh and Center streets, Thursday afternoon, was a large gathering of young folk, the occasion being the celebration of little Gordon Miller's fifth birthday anniversary.

The decorations were very pretty, consisting of vines and roses. Refreshments were served. Before the departure each little guest recited or rendered a solo.

Those present were Miss Alice Lethwaite, Velma Randall, Alice Anderson, Judith Hodges, Mary Fields, Sylvia Westengard, Gladys Eberly, Helen Anderson, Doris Mayville, Elizabeth Hayworth, Pearl Wickham, Jean Moffatt, Maxine Melrum, Mary Campbell, Doris Melrum, Anna Lennon, Emma Lenno, Rhoderick Porter, John Moffatt, Dwight Hodges, Buster Westengard, Edwin Zumwalt, Donald Butler, Jamie Butler, Jodie Miller, Gordon Miller.

St. Paul's Spoke of Autographs. Every preacher who occupies the pulpit at St. Paul's, in London, signs his name after the service in a book that is kept in the vestry.

The Skeleton at Large. "Do you know," she said. "The Browns have a skeleton in the closet?" "Oh, no," he replied carelessly.

Literary Funds. The royal literary fund in England was established as a result of the commission felt for Floyer Sydenham, a Greek scholar of Oxford, who was thrown into prison for a debt for meals and died there at the age of eighty.

Hume and the Saints. David Hume's residence in the new town of Edinburgh was the first building in a new street, and a young lady chatted up on the wall.

The FOLLY OF WORRY. Speaking of worry, that is one thing that a man must learn to avoid if he will be well and happy.

$10 REWARD. For the arrest and conviction of any person or persons, who unlawfully remove copies of The Morning Enterprise from the premises of subscribers after payment has been placed there by carrier.

A Rigid Sabbatarian. A Canadian university man was touring in Scotland last summer. One Sunday morning he put his little hammer in his pocket like an amateur geologist and, strolling out upon the hills, began to chip off such specimens of rock as interested him.

A Celebrated Suicide. Haydon, the celebrated historical painter and writer, overcome by debt, disappointment and ingratitude, laid down the brush with which he was at work upon his last great effort.

Excursion Committee Named. At the firemen's meeting held at the Cataract headquarters a committee was appointed to arrange for the coming excursion to Cascade Locks.

The capitalization of sentiment, for a pipe organ for the church having reached $981.00, is a most encouraging expression of progressive musical appreciation on the part of the church.

While this is not a sufficient amount to make advisable the purchase of an instrument, yet it is an excellent start and the matter will be left open for the present in the hope that sufficient amount of money shall be obtained from other sources to purchase the organ.
