OFFICERS COMING TO AID COUNCIL

KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF SECURITY TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP HERE TO 300.

ORDER HAS 100,000 ON ITS ROLLS

National President and Secretary To Visit Leading Cities in Northwest to Arouse Interest.

W. B. Kirkpatrick, national president, and John V. Abrahams, national secretary of the Knights and Ladies of Security, are to visit the Pacific Coast this summer and will reach Portland about September 11. The five councils of Portland, and Willamette county No. 873, of Oregon City,

J. V. ABRAHAM.

The national officers during the evening, and the national president will personally distribute souvenir prizes to the members who obtain the applications of new members. There also will be dancing and the best of music will be furnished for the occasion.

The Woodmen of the World Hall is the best equipped for such a class initiation, banquet and entertainment, of any hall in the state, having one of the best dancing floors, and a banquet hall that will seat 600 persons. A dispensation to admit members for the medical examiner's fee only, during this campaign, has been granted. Order Has Big Membership.

The Knights and Ladies of Security is now operating in twenty-three states and has more than 100,000 members. There were 19,000 members admitted to the order in the first six months of this year, the greatest number ever admitted in the same length of time in the history of the order.

The national officers will visit all the Pacific Coast and Northwest states, on this tour, and large classes are to be initiated in San Bernardino, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Oakland. Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Wash., Butte, Helena, Boise City, Portland and Eugene.

The members of Portland and Oregon City councils are determined to make the class initiation at Portland one of the biggest of all of them.

SCHAEFER A "COMEBACK."

Veteran Player of Washington Putting Up Brilliant Game at First Base.

Talking about "comebacks," Herman Schaefer, the Washington's veteran infielder, furnishes an interesting illustration. He has been in the American league since 1905, during which period he has played both the in and out fields. It does seem that his real position was not found until he was placed at first base by McAleer. There is no doubt that Schaefer, when his batting, base running and knowledge of the game are taken into consideration, has played a better first base than any man covering that place for the Nationals in recent years.

The fact that he is fast on his feet makes him a valuable man for the team, and, what is more, he is a quick, accurate thrower and has been in the game long enough to know what to do with the ball when he gets it. If Schaefer can keep up the pace he has set to date McAleer will have no occasion to look about for a first baseman, for Schaefer has it on several playing in the major leagues today.

Ramsdell to Defend Sprinting Titles. "Texas" Ramsdell, the University of Pennsylvania sprinting star, will very likely defend his 100 and 200 yard dash titles at this year's English championships.

VANITY FAIR.

Pin Tucks Are Used to Embellish Linen Dresses.

The linen bathing suit is much worn. The plain top sleeves in mannish style or the kimono or peasant cut is still a dominant characteristic.

Pin tucks have again appeared in the lingerie blouse, with insertions of lace and fine embroideries.

Rhinestone bandeaux have ostrich plumes, often uncurled, standing up at one side. Now and then they are curled backward.

This child's dress is made with peasant sleeves and a smart paneled effect that may be carried out in embroidery or in some contrasting material. The skirt and body are in one, the fullness at the waist being held in by a belt. Scalloped edges are in vogue, and the frock might be made of plain material with the yoke and panel of fancy stuff, the plain material being scalloped at the edges.

JUDIC COLLET.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes for a child of four, six or eight years of age. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 3974, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two-cent stamp for letter postage, which insures more prompt delivery.

even were. Ned—Does your wife mean everything she says? Ted—Yes, and lots of things she doesn't say.—Life.

Corrected.

Sharp—I owe everything to my wife. Friend—Your memory is faulty. You owe a "Dover" to me.

To Make the Shoes Waterproof. Warm the soles of new shoes. While they are warm paint them with copal varnish. When it dries paint them again. Three such coats will not only make the soles waterproof, but will make them last twice as long.—National Magazine.

A Cinch. "Harold never has told me what he paid for the engagement ring."

"Well?"

"I'd like to know."

"What do you want to bother him for? It's a cinch he paid all he had."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Dynamite.

The latent power of dynamite is terrific, but its direction is simply a question of ordinary intelligence. As a matter of fact, dynamite is safer to handle and use than ordinary gunpowder, with which all are familiar. No general rule can be laid down for the use of dynamite, as there are many kinds and each kind made for a particular purpose. However, an enormous amount of data has been compiled, and specific directions for the use of each grade of the explosive are furnished by dynamite makers and dealers.—National Magazine.

The Sea Wolf.

Among the most destructive inhabitants of the ocean is the sea wolf—a kind of dolphin, which attains when full grown a length of fourteen feet. When a mother walrus sees a sea wolf she endeavors to throw her cub on an iceberg, if one is near. Failing this, she gets it on to her head and swims with it above water. But often this does not save it. Diving far below, the fish or prey comes up with tremendous force, striking the mother and jolting the cub off her head into the water.

When a cake of soap is worn nearly thin enough to break stick it to the new cake by putting both in quite warm water, then press firmly together. When cold it will be one solid cake. This does away with small pieces of soap and there is no waste.

Derivation of Gibraltar.

In 711 A. D. the Arabs crossed the narrow strait of Gibraltar and established themselves around the famous rock whose name is derived from their leader. Field Marshal Tarik was one of the leaders of the Arab invasion of Spain. Gebel is an Arabic word meaning mountain. The great rock, which is by far the most conspicuous object along the shores of the strait, was accordingly named after Tarik. Gebel el Tarik, or the mountain of Tarik. It is easy to see how this name became changed into its present form, Gibraltar.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

"JUST JIMMIE'S WIFE."

An artist's sketch shows two children, a boy and a girl. They are being interviewed by a woman. This is part of the conversation:

"And, Maud, when you grow up what do you expect to be?"

Maud—Just Jimmie's wife, ma'am.

"Which was a cute rejoinder—and more."

To be sure, Maud when grown may change her mind. Certainly when she is older she will be less frank to say she is going to be Jimmie's wife, however she may feel about it. But—

Wise in childish wisdom, Maud has chosen the better part.

Because—

If Jimmie proves the right sort and if he is to do his best he must have a good wife. His best will depend largely upon the best that is in his wife. He will need a good Maud to make a man of him.

And in making a man of Jimmie Maud will have her hands—and heart—quite full.

Mighty important—"Just Jimmie's wife."

Now, it may be Maud has a talent for something else, or Jimmie may not suit her or she him. Each will know when the time comes.

Certainly, if both are agreed, when the time comes Maud can aspire to no higher place than that of "Just Jimmie's wife."

If she holds to her girlish choice and she and Jimmie choose each other no greater crown of happiness can come to her. Made for wifehood and motherhood, she will find her highest satisfaction in the fulfillment of her manifest destiny.

The abundance of Maud's being as a woman will demand husband and children upon whom she may lavish the riches of her devotion.

She who misses this misses the abundant life.

And if Maud marries Jimmie, besides filling the measure of her own normal desires, she will, as I have said, give Jimmie his chance in life.

The subtle but strong influence of a woman working by and through the man she loves is the dynamic that moves the world. More than that, it is the power that saves the world.

Wherever you find a man worth while always and everywhere you will find a good woman behind that man.

Therefore—
Blessings on the Mauds who find content and greatest joy in being "Just Jimmie's wife."

Moving Pictures.

Some years ago the moving picture companies confined themselves making reproductions of short stories, the longest requiring one reel, about 1,000 feet of film to complete it. In the last year or two they have been producing many which require three and as many as five reels. "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," one of America's best temperance dramas requiring 2,000 feet of film. The suit attained in this picture is very good. It is worth your while to see this silent drama even if you have seen it played before on the stage.

CLARA KOERNER IS MARRIED.

Young Woman Well Known Here Comes Bride of Myron Meyers.

The marriage of Miss Clara Koerner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Koerner, formerly of this city, by now of St. Johns, and Myron Meyers of this city, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Koerner on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the Rev. Benjamin Young officiating. The wedding was quiet, only relatives of the contracting parties attending. After the ceremony the young couple left for British Columbia, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride is well known in this city where she lived for some time, and the bridegroom is a prominent young business man of Portland.
