ERIN GIVES KING HEARTY WELCOME

POLICE AND CROWDS HAVE ENCOUNTERS AND SOLDIERS ARE JEERED.

BLIN'S MAYOR REMAINS AT HOME

Attention is Taken to Avoid Possible Conflict—Crowds Demand Home Rule—George is Pleased With Ovation.

DUBLIN, July 8.—King George received a loyal welcome to Dublin today. The King accompanied by the Prince of Wales and the Princess Mary, arrived at Kingston Harbor on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert.

The King flying up to his reputation, wants to see all parts of the empire and every phase of life in it and spent one of the busiest days of his life looking over Dublin. After attending several functions this afternoon, he drove to Phoenix Park to see the races for the King's cup. He arrived just in time to see Richard Croker's Penant win the fourth race.

Attacks Police.

Among other affairs which the King attended was the opening of a play in the poorest and roughest district in Dublin. It was a time of the greatest anxiety for the police. Before the King's arrival, the police and crowds had several encounters, in one of which a sergeant's arm was broken. Troops were brought up but were not required.

Men and women who had been jeering the police and soldiers broke into hearty cheers, which continued throughout the district. The King and Queen, although tired, showed their great pleasure at this ovation, which was entirely unexpected in that quarter.

"Welcome. We want home rule," was the inscription on a banner stretched outside the Town Hall at Pembroke, a suburb of Dublin, which refused to present an address to the King.

Nationalists are Passive.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin, whose threat that he would present an address to His Majesty, despite the contrary decision of the corporation, it was feared would lead to trouble, remained at home.

The Nationalists adopted a passive and friendly attitude. They did not participate in the official reception, but did not interfere with it. They decorated their premises, always, however, with the Irish flag. If more than one flag was shown, the second was the American emblem, so there was liberal display of the Stars and Stripes. In the general decoration there was a discreet intermingling of orange and green.

CANBY ODD FELLOWS INSTALL OFFICERS

Canby Lodge, No. 156, I. O. O. F., has installed the following officers: D. R. Mack, D. G. M., acting as installing officer; J. Ray Vinyard, N. G.; Calvin O. Koehler, V. G.; Howard H. Eccles, secretary; W. H. Bair, treasurer; Ivan Dimick, warden; J. E. Sutherland, R. S. V. G.; George Malus, R. S. V. G.; C. L. Bates, R. S. N. G.; L. Lee Eckerson, L. S. N. G.; Edward Shull, R. S.; W. E. Miller, L. S. S.; G. Wilson, conductor; A. H. Knight, G. Arthur Wink, O. G.

The installation ceremonies were followed by a banquet and smoker, participated in by the members of the lodge and visiting brethren. Canby Lodge, No. 156, is one of the strongest lodges of the order. It is now planning for the erection of a large concrete building upon valuable property it owns in this city, the new building to consist of storerooms on the ground floor and a fine lodge hall, with banquet rooms and all the usual preparation rooms, etc., found in a modern up-to-date lodge building.

THE BIG NOISE

Blown to Atoms! Prices!

The big noise in town is our semi-annual clearance sale after the Fourth. Sacrificing good clothing for good money—we need room for our Fall and Winter stock and we must count our regular low prices, too.

Our regular low prices, too, reduced 25 per cent.

Don't fail to take advantage. Don't wait.

C. B. BUCKLES DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

MOTHER, WHO HASTENED TO BEDSIDE AT PHOENIX, WILL BRING BODY HERE.

C. B. Buckles, son of Mrs. Ellen Buckles, of this city, and of the late William Buckles, died at Phoenix, Arizona, on Friday, July 7, after an illness of several months of catarrh of the stomach. Mr. Buckles, who left here about two months ago, went to Kansas, thinking the change would be of benefit to his health, and from there to Colorado. He remained in that state for several weeks, and decided to go to Phoenix, where his health gradually failed until his death. His mother hastened to his bedside, but did not arrive until Friday evening after his death. Mrs. Buckles will bring his body to this city, where the interment will take place in the family plot in Mountain View cemetery. The body will be laid beside that of his father, who died at Willamette about two years ago.

Mr. Buckles was a young man of promise, and had many friends in this city, who were shocked to hear of his death. He had for the past year made his home in this city with his sister, Mrs. George Griffith, of 106 Thirteenth street. He was born at Mulzan, Kan., on January 29, 1884, and was twenty-seven years of age. He came to Oregon with his parents about seven years ago, settling at Willamette, where he remained until he came to this city. He was a member of a Multnomah Lodge No. 1, A. F. A. M., and it is probable that this lodge will have charge of the funeral services, which have not been arranged by the family.

The deceased is survived by his mother, two sisters, Mrs. George Griffith, of Oregon City; Miss Jessie Buckles, of Spokane, Wash.; and two brothers, A. F. Buckles, of Dryersburg, Tenn., and A. B. Buckles, of Oregon City.

O. A. C. ASSOCIATION TO ELECT OFFICERS

NEW MEMBERS ALSO WILL BE ENROLLED AT MEETING TOMORROW.

All residents of Clackamas county who are graduates or have attended the Oregon Agricultural College are requested to meet at the home of J. H. Mattley, Seventh and Monroe streets, this city, tomorrow night at 7 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to accept new members to the Oregon Agricultural College Association and elect officers for the ensuing year.

Plans will be discussed for several picnics and parties during the summer and the members look forward with pleasure to the Oregon Agriculture College functions. The present officers are M. J. Lazelle, president; Miss Maud Mattley, vice-president; Mrs. L. E. Jones, secretary, and Charles Parker, treasurer.

FAIR GROUNDS TO HAVE HARD SURFACE PAVEMENT.

SALEM, Or., July 8.—Decision has been reached by the State Board of Agriculture to place hard-surface pavement at the State Fair grounds from the depot to the main entrance. The Board will also tear down one of the old race barns and construct a new one, as well as to repair the administration building. The Board will also proceed soon to dig new wells and relay and enlarge the present pipe system.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Oregon City—Fair and warm; or. northwesterly winds. Oregon—Fair and warmer; or. northwesterly winds.

SEISHIN HIRAYAMA.

President of the Japanese Exposition to Be Held in 1917.

BAUM HAS JINX ON BEAVER CHAMPIONS

SENATORS WIN EXCITING GAME, 2 TO 0—ROADSTERS ALSO VICTORS.

PORTLAND, Or., July 8.—(Special.)—Sacramento in another pitcher's battle today got the better end of the argument with Portland. There weren't but two scores made and the Senators' Lorimered both of them, winning by pilfering sacks, good team work, etc.

Things never did look good for Portland. Baum had everything and McCredie's champions couldn't connect with the horsehide, which seemed to dwindle in size with each recurring inning. He didn't allow but three hits. Steen, that hero of many a hard-fought battle, only allowed five hits.

The results Saturday followed: Pacific Coast League—Sacramento 2, Portland 0; Vernon 5, San Francisco 4; Oakland 4, Los Angeles 3. Northwestern League—Portland 1, Seattle 0; Spokane 4, Victoria 0; Vancouver 4, Tacoma 0. American League—Philadelphia 9, Cleveland 1; Detroit 7, Washington 5; Chicago 5, New York 2 2/3; St. Louis 7, Boston 5.

National League—New York 5, Chicago 2; Pittsburg 3, Brooklyn 1; St. Louis 6, Philadelphia 2; Cincinnati 11, Boston 7.

MISS AMANDA CLEAR STRICKEN.

Young Woman Well Known in This City is Paralyzed.

Miss Amanda Clear, well known in this city, and sister of Mrs. John Carother and Mrs. Sarah Dickerson, of Canemah, who underwent a surgical operation at the Good Samaritan hospital on June 20, and who was improving rapidly, expecting to be removed to her home this week, was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday, and her condition is critical. Her entire right side is affected. Miss Clear's sisters of this city, and Mrs. Susan Winters, another sister, of Newberg, were notified immediately and went to Miss Clear's bedside.

HARRY JONES GETS BIG SEWER CONTRACT

NEW DRAIN FOR SOUTHERN PART OF CITY TO COST $7,200.00.

The City Council at a special meeting Saturday afternoon awarded the contract for building the big southern sewer to Harry Jones. The cost will be $7,200. There were seven bidders, the bids ranging from $7,200 to almost $12,000. The sewer, which will be more than a mile in length, will drain the extreme southern end of the city. It will extend down Center and Third streets to South End road and empty into the river at Fourth street.

Consideration also was given to the proposed widening of Washington street, but no definite action was taken. The proposition is to have a width of forty feet. The plans for the roadbed call for a width of thirty feet. The signatures of property-owners to the plans for the proposed improvement will be obtained before final action is taken.

J. E. HEDGES BRINGS PROSPECTIVE BUYER

LAWYER VISITED BY MEN HE MET ON TRAIN ON RECENT EASTERN TRIP.

J. E. Hedges, lawyer, school director, and all-round useful citizen, assumed another role Saturday. He was the host of the Rev. Allen and Thomas Williams, of Muncie, Ind., who came out from Portland to see the sights of Clackamas county. Mr. Hedges took them around in an automobile, and so delighted were they that Mr. Williams said upon his departure, he was thinking seriously of buying a place here. The visitors are attending the convention of the Christian Church in Portland. Mr. Hedges met them on the train upon his return from the East, where he went to attend the reunion of his class at Yale University, and invited them to make him a visit while they were in Portland. Mr. Williams is a wealthy man, and if he decides to invest in this county he probably will buy a large tract.

Superintendent Tooze Returns.

Superintendent of City Schools Tooze has returned from Corvallis where he delivered four lectures on "School Administration" before the summer school for superintendents and teachers at Oregon Agricultural College.

DECISION DELAYED IN DYNAMITE CASE

LAWYERS FOR McNAMARA ASK THAT INDICTMENTS BE QUASHED.

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—Judge Boydwell today adjourned court until Monday morning without having taken any action on the motion of the defense to quash the indictments against the McNamara brothers because of alleged bias on the part of the grand jury.

When court reopened in the McNamara case the defense filed a motion to quash the indictment against John J. McNamara in the Llewellyn Iron works case. Sharp criticism of the methods of the grand jury characterized this motion.

The document also scores the grand jury for the manner in which Mrs. McNamara was treated, saying that "it was done with the full knowledge and connivance of the grand jury."

YOUNG FOLK SCORE AT CHAUTAUQUA

BOYS' BRIGADE INTERESTS WITH DRILL AND FIRST AID PRACTICE.

PORTLAND RUNNER LEADS MARATHON

Ex-Governor Hanley, of Indiana, Delivers Forceful Lecture on "The Patriotism of Peace."

(By Staff Correspondent.)

CHAUTAUQUA GROUNDS, GLADSTONE, Or., July 8.—Thousands of boys and girls made merry on this "Boys' Day," at the Willamette Chautauqua. From early in the morning until late at night the youngsters frolicked and scampered about the beautiful grounds, overlooking nothing worth seeing, and enjoying themselves to their hearts content. There have been "Boys' Days" and chautauquas before, but there never was such an attendance of young folk at the Willamette Valley assembly as today, and the merry-makers never had more real fun.

But the day was not entirely given up to the young, for there was much to interest everybody. Ex-Governor Hanley, of Indiana, made an impressive address upon "The Patriotism of Peace"; Miss Beatrice Honey delighted with a reading "The Abandoned Elopement"; there was an interesting baseball game, an exciting marathon race, music by the Naval Reserve Band, and many other pleasing events. The Apollo Concert Company, of Chicago, also gave another concert, and several prominent speakers made addresses.

Boys' Program Starts.

The program for "Boys' Day" began at 11 o'clock in the auditorium the platform being crowded with boys. The center section was held by the boys of the Boys' Brigade, who were present to take part in the competitive drill in the evening. Great interest was shown in the "Boys' Day" addresses by men of experience in organized lines of effort for boys.

The Rev. Hayworth, of Oregon City, acted as chairman of the Forum. The first address was by the Rev. W. A. Proctor, of Pacific University, who spoke on the "Boy Scouts." Mr. Proctor said in part: "The Boy Scouts is one of the youngest and one of the largest of the various boy movements. In England the enrollment is 350,000 and in the United States about 200,000. The methods of the Scout movement are adaptable to all forms of boy organizations. The work of the scout tends to develop self-dependence and reliability. The hope of the nation is in her men of character. The scout movement trains boys and builds character."

Boys Have Various Stages. The second speaker was H. W. Stone, of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association, who spoke on "Work for Boys." Mr. Stone spoke of the specialists who are working for the boys as "Boysologists." In part Mr. Stone said:

"There are several stages of development in boy life recognized by the 'Boysologist.' The boy from six to nine is essentially a young savage leading an individualistic existence. He must be 'it' to play ball or any other game in a team. This period is elastic and may be longer or shorter in different cases. From 12 to 15 the boy develops the gang spirit and will undergo any hardship for the gang. Boy life in the city today is very different from what it used to be. For home chores we are substituting idleness with the result that the boy is disinclined. The playground is giving way to the street; result, petty crime. Neighborhood games are displaced by professional athletics; result, a spirit of 'anything to win.' Home life gives way to the hot-house life of the club and theatre inducing nervousness. The good literature that used to be in the home is given up, causing low ideals to be developed in the boy, and the family altar is replaced with the newspaper."

Chivalry is Inherent. The Rev. J. F. Landsborough related the history and of the aims of the Knight's of King Arthur. This organization was originated at Riverside, R. I., about twenty years ago, by a Congressional minister.

"The spirit of chivalry," said the speaker, "inherent in the boy, is developed by the study of the literature of the famous Arthur and his round-table and Bible study. This organization meets the needs of boys from 12 to 18. The ritual is impressive and inspirational."

St. Martin's School for Boys, of Philadelphia, where boys who will not be taken in by other schools, are cared for, was described most interestingly by the Rev. C. W. Robinson, the founder. In this school boys are put on honor not to run away and this offense is punished by not permitting the boy to return. Only one boy has run away.

The work of the Boys' Brigade was told by Hugh Krumm, and the Rev. Snyder of the Piedmont Presbyterian Church, Portland, related his experience in working with boys. He said to the parents and others, "If you want to be young again get in with the boys." Some of his boys sang "The King's Business," which was an appropriate number, as they are called the "Knights of the King."

Hanley Talks of Peace. Miss Frank Towale, of Portland, read several selections with fine effect at the afternoon session. She was succeeded by ex-Governor Hanley, who made an eloquent address. He declared that more patriotism had often been shown in times of peace than in war. Referring to the case of Senator Lorimer, the speaker said that the United States Senate

MAYOR PUTS AN END TO PROPOSED BOUTS

EXECUTIVE FEARS THAT BOXERS MIGHT FORGET THEMSELVES AND GO TOO FAR.

Mayor Brownell on Saturday put a quietus to the proposed plan to have boxing contests in the city. While there was no intention by the promoter James Quinn, who has a class in physical culture here, to violate the law, or give anything resembling a brutal exhibition, the Mayor decided that it would be best not to allow exhibitions at which admissions would be charged. He said he was perfectly willing that boys have bouts with large gloves in play, but he would not sanction anything that went further than that and might set a bad example to the youth of the city. It was the intention of Mr. Quinn to bring several well known boxers to the city and give short exhibitions with large gloves, but the Mayor fears that some of the men might forget themselves and go a little too far.

RICH MAN MAY START BIG CONDENSERY HERE

CALIFORNIA WRITES TO COMMERCIAL CLUB ABOUT PROPOSITION.

C. D. Van Dersey, of Loleta, Cal., has about decided to start a big milk condensery in Oregon City. He has been in communication with Secretary Lazelle, of the Commercial Club, for sometime, and looks with favor upon the proposition. Mr. Lazelle wrote that there were only about 800 cows in and near Oregon City, but that there was a great deal of land suitable for dairy purposes.

The building of the condensery, it is believed, would give the dairy business a big impetus, which is needed in this part of Clackamas county. Mr. Van Dersey is a wealthy man, and is an expert in all matters relating to cows and dairies.

WINE MAN FINED, FOR NOT HAVING LICENSE

FRANK SAJOVICH HAS TO PAY $50 FOR SELLING HIS GOODS.

Frank Sajovich, who lives on Eighteenth street in Greenpoint, found out Saturday that there is much truth in the old business axiom, "it costs money to make money." Sajovich is a dealer in choice wines, and his business is said to be a paying one. However, he is today minus a little of his profit for the eagle-eyed sleuths of Oregon City found out that he was selling his vinous goods without the consent of the law. So in the parlance of the streets, the wine merchant was "pinched." The case against him was strong and Recorder Stipp fined Sajovich $50, which he paid. He was warned never to sell wine in this city again unless he obtained a license, and the City Council having established a precedent not to grant licenses for selling liquor in wholesale lots, it can be safely asserted that Sajovich will not sell any more wine here for sometime.

CUT WITH CUP IN FIGHT, HE NEARLY DIES

PETER THEOPANOUS SWEARS OUT COMPLAINT AGAINST GUST KARRAS.

The swearing out of a complaint Saturday in Justice of the Peace Samson's Court revealed a near murder on July 4, at River Mills, which is near Estacada. The complaint was sworn out by Peter Theopanos, who charges Gust Karras with assault and battery. The men quarreled over a child, and the complainant alleges he was struck in the face by a tencup thrown by Karras. The cup broke and cut a large vein in Theopanos' neck, and he almost bled to death before the arrival of a physician. The wounded man was in bed two days and not until Saturday was he able to come to the city and make the complaint. Theopanos has been arrested, rested.

R. H. Rosborough, a coal merchant of Portland, was in the city on business Saturday.
