Mrs. Clara H. Waldo, regent of Oregon Agricultural College, delivered a lecture on "Life at Home and Abroad," in the morning. She gave a detailed description of agricultural conditions in Europe as compared with those in America. The address was followed by a musical number by Miss Zeta Hollister, soprano, of Portland. Miss Hollister is the musical favorite of the chautauqua.

Harmony Quartet Pleases.

The Harmony Quartet, of Portland, composed of Mrs. Lula Dahl Miller, contralto; J. Ross Fargo, tenor; John Clair Month, baritone; and Mrs. May Dearborn Schwab, soprano, rendered with delightful effect the "Sextette" from "Lucia" and the "Rosary." It is the best quartet that has appeared at the chautauqua this season.

Arrangements were made today for Rev. S. M. Martin, an evangelist, of Seattle, to substitute for Dr. R. P. Shephard next Sunday.

It is probable that the art class which is under the direction of Mrs. Weister will build a "Greek Temple" before the next meeting of the assembly. Other buildings planned are one for the Domestic Science Department and a Bible pavilion.

HENKLE WINS SECOND GAME; SCORE 4 TO 2 HUSBAND THREATENED HER LIFE, SAYS WIFE

VERNON MAKES GOOD START, BUT PORTLAND BOYS SOON TAKE LEAD AWAY.

PORTLAND, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—Henkle, who pitched a no-hit game last week didn't do so well today, but the Beavers won just the same by a score of 4 to 2. Each pitcher allowed 7 safeties, but Gipe could not keep those made off him as well scattered as the Portland "Find." Neither side made an error. Vernon got his two runs in the first. Then Henkle settled down and there was nothing for the visitors, but goose eggs thereafter. Portland scored once in the second and third each and twice in the sixth.

The results Thursday were as follows: Pacific Coast League—Portland 4, Vernon 2; Oakland 4, San Francisco 3; Sacramento 5, Los Angeles 4. Northwestern League—Portland 10, Spokane 2; Tacoma 6, Vancouver 3; Seattle 7, Victoria 5. American League—Detroit 3, Philadelphia 7; Cleveland 7, Washington 5; St. Louis 6, New York 1; Boston 2, Chicago 1. National League—New York 9, Pittsburg 4; Brooklyn 6, Chicago 5; St. Louis 8, Boston 6; Philadelphia 1, Cincinnati 0.

Bowers, of Canemah, took place in Portland on July 3. The wedding was a very quiet affair, and only relatives of the contracting parties attended. The young couple, immediately after the ceremony, left for their future home, Hillsboro, where Mr. May is employed.

12 IN RACE FOR VALUABLE PRIZES

you can judge for yourself if they are worth an effort on your part during the next seven weeks.

Should Start at Once.

The time between now and the close of the contest will slip by rapidly, so you should become active at once by communicating with your friends and relatives to obtain their assistance, before they promise their support to others. The schedule of votes allowed on subscriptions is most liberal and it will only take a few subscriptions with the nomination blank to place your name over the 10,000 mark. While this amount of votes may seem insignificant it cuts a figure with the people who do not happen to have any particular favorite in the race, for when paying a subscription they generally pool the votes for the candidate on top of the list, feeling that they are giving their support to a winner.

Following is the schedule of votes that will be allowed on paid-in-advance subscriptions: Six months' subscription to The Daily Enterprise (by carrier) $2.00, (by mail) $1.50, 400 votes. One year's subscription, $1 (by carrier), $3 (by mail), 1,000 votes. Two years' subscription $1 (by carrier), $3 (by mail), $2.50 votes. Three years' subscription, (by carrier) $12, (by mail) $9, 5,000 votes. Five years' subscription (by carrier) $20, (by mail) $9, 5,000 votes. Five years' subscription Weekly Enterprise, $1.50, 500 votes. Money must accompany all subscriptions before votes will be issued. Published on another page of this issue is a description of the prizes and how the awards will be made. Look them over carefully and determine which one you want, then clip the nomination blank, fill in your name, and bring or mail it to the contest department of The Enterprise and start out to WIN.

I wish to Nominate Miss _____ Address _____ Nominated by _____ Address _____ This nomination blank, when properly filled in and brought or mailed to Contest Department of The Enterprise will count for 2,500 votes. Only one of these blanks will be credited to each candidate.

HUSBAND THREATENED HER LIFE, SAYS WIFE

ROSA LUTES SAYS J. H. LUTES ANNOYED HER FOR FUN OF IT.

Rosa Lutes has filed a suit for divorce against J. H. Lutes, to whom she was married at Vancouver, Wash., August 3, 1904. Several years ago, Mrs. Lutes says, her husband treated her cruelly and seemed to enjoy annoying and harassing her. In the spring of 1910, she asserts, he attacked her with a revolver and threatened to shoot himself and on many occasions threatened to shoot her.

The wife further charges that in June, 1911, her husband threw her down and threatened to cut her throat and then took a revolver and said he would shoot himself. In June 7, 1911, she says, he again struck her, choked her and threatened her with bodily harm. Mrs. Lutes says that she has always conducted herself as a dutiful wife should, but her husband has not appreciated her, Earl C. Bronaugh, of Portland, represents Mrs. Lutes.

COURT HOUSE FRONT WILL NOT BE CHANGED

PROTESTS RESULT IN DECISION TO BUILD EXTENSION IN REAR.

The County Court has received so many complaints against the proposed remodeling and enlarging of the building by moving the front twenty feet nearer the street that Judge Beattie said on Thursday the plan probably would be abandoned. "While it was the intention of keeping the front of the historic building just as it is," said Judge Beattie, "the plan has met with so much opposition that the court feels the extension should be made in the rear. Much of the lawn in front naturally would be covered by the extension, and it has been pointed out that the ground in the rear could be used for no other purpose except for an extension. Our architect will submit new plans."

VETCH SAMPLE IS EIGHT FEET.

Chris Naegli to Plant Fruit Trees This Fall. Chris Naegli, who left some vegetables raised on his farm at the Freytag & Money real estate office, a few days ago, brought to this city Thursday a fine sample of vetch, which has been placed in the care of Mr. Freytag, who will take it to the State Fair at Salem, as well as the county fair. The height of the grass is eight feet, and is the finest that has been brought to this city this season.

WOOD PULP CAUSES COMPLAINT.

Deputy Fish Warden E. L. Rathbun on Thursday swore out a complaint against the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company on a charge of emptying wood pulp into the river. The company will plead next Thursday.

GOOD ACTIONS.

Every good act is charity. Giving water to the thirsty is charity. Removing stones and thorns from the road is charity. Exhorting your fellow men to virtuous deeds is charity. Smiling in your brother's face is charity. Putting a wanderer in the right path is charity. A man's true wealth is the good he does in this world. When he dies mortals will ask what property he left behind him, but angels will inquire, "What good deeds hast thou sent before thee?"—Mohammed.

Commercial Club Chat

A. F. Johnson, of Houston, Texas, arrived in Oregon City and will make this his home. He had corresponded with Secretary Laselle, of the Commercial Club, for some time. Mr. Johnson will try to induce other Texans to come here.

Among the many persons in the East who have corresponded with the Publicity Department of the Oregon City Commercial Club and as a result have come to Oregon City, is S. E. Duff. He made application for the position of assistant principal of the Oregon City High School which he obtained.

Edward Gross, of Raymond, Wash., was a caller upon Secretary Laselle, of the Commercial Club, Thursday. He is looking for land and will locate in Clackamas county.

C. E. Williamson, of Raymond, Wash., called to see the exhibits in the Promotion Office. He probably will buy a small farm near Oregon City. He was very much pleased with the county and the fruits, etc., that grow here.

C. C. Cockran, traveling freight agent of the Canadian Pacific railway, called at the Promotion Office on Thursday. He came to Clackamas county to arrange for shipping fruit, hops and potatoes over the Canadian Pacific.

David E. Lotgren, an attorney of Portland, called at the Promotion Office on Thursday. He says he has sold 2,000 acres of land in Clackamas county this summer. He is interested in the Colton Swedish Colonization Company.

George A. Brown, of Maple Lane, has a new kind of oats called the "Blue Hearty" that promises to do well in Clackamas county. He will exhibit a sample at the Promotion Office. Mr. Brown says that the potato crop in his section is extra good this year.

A. J. Lewis, of Maple Lane, has made a demonstration of what will grow simultaneously in Clackamas county by placing on exhibition in the Promotion Office of strawberries, red raspberries, blackcaps, gooseberries, loganberries, blackberries, cranberries and cherries. These samples represent the regular load of products that Mr. Lewis delivers to Oregon City each day.

This is a great county to grow small fruits and it needs but care and attention to have success.

Henry A. Baker, of Stafford, has on exhibition the longest wheat that has so far been received at the Promotion Office. It is 6 feet, 5 1/2 inches high and the whole field will average 6 feet in height. It is of the White Winter variety and a very fine sample.
