STORM KILLS 2; MANY ARE INJURED

CYCLONE SWEEPS THROUGH TOWN IN CALIFORNIA DEMOLISHING BUILDINGS.

BUSINESS SECTION SUFFERS MOST

Big Cotton Warehouse Collapses Burying in Ruins Three Men—Property Loss is $30,000.

EL CENTRO, Cal., July 15.—A storm of cyclone violence, in which two lives were lost, several persons injured and buildings throughout the business district badly damaged, struck this section today. While it lasted only a few minutes, it damaged property to the extent of at least $30,000.

The two whose deaths were caused by the storm were Leslie Novak, who died in St. Thomas' hospital, two hours after being injured in a falling building, and Sirch Sunda, a Hindu, who lost his life in the same way. The injured were W. H. Hamilton, of the Hamilton Supply Company, whose leg was broken; Isaac Lowthian, a carpenter, cut about the head and face; three Hindus, who were caught beneath the alien warehouse of the California Cotton Company; Leslie Novak, Jr., 11 years old, whose leg was broken by the collapse of the walls of Dick's restaurant, and L. P. Novak, who suffered internal injuries.

The property damaged included the First Presbyterian church, which was demolished; the warehouse of the California Cotton Company, which collapsed, burying beneath its heavy timbers three Hindus, who had sought shelter from rain under its roof; J. B. Whitaker's feed and fuel shed collapsed; the storage and drying sheds of the Valley Lumber Company, which were completely wrecked. Other houses damaged were the wholesale house of the Hamilton Supply Company, one of the largest buildings in El Centro; the Marble Livery Stable and residence, the roofs of which were blown off; the Abbott cement sheds, destroyed; the cantaloupe sheds of the Crutchfield & Woolfolk Company; the establishment of the Valley Laundry Company, the engine room of which was wrecked, the iron roofing crashing through the laundry; the Valley Planing mill, collapsed; the Blackington building, roof and plate front destroyed, and Dick's restaurant and lodging-house, 100 feet front, collapsed.

MILLIONAIRE MINER SCORED BY EX-WIFE

MRS. MINNIE TAYLOR SAYS HUSBAND DESERTED HER FOR AFFINITY.

PORTLAND, Or., July 15.—(Special.)—In an interview today Mrs. Minnie Taylor, whose husband, Charles Taylor, the millionaire gold mine prospector, obtained in Oregon City last September an annulment of their marriage scored her former husband. She is seeking a reopening of the case and asks $2,500 a month alimony. Mrs. Taylor alleges that Mr. Taylor deserted her for another woman and declares that he cruelly mistreated her. She denies his charges of immorality on her part and says she is not intemperate. Mrs. Taylor asserts that her husband often acted as if he were mentally deranged. She emphatically denies that she was served with summons to appear before the annulment was granted. She says she will fight him to the bitter end.

A PROGRESSIVE SENATE—BUT DOES IT PROGRESS?

22 ENTERED IN BIG PRIZE VOTING RACE

MANY MORE EXPECTED TO BE IN CONTEST FOR VALUABLE PRIZES.

MERCHANTS INTERESTED IN VENTURE

Candidates' Names Will be Published Next Tuesday When the Contest Will Become Exciting—Get in Race Now.

The Enterprise $1,200 prize voting contest was announced last Tuesday and since that time twenty-two candidates have been nominated, ten of whom live in Oregon City, and the others in various parts of the county. When the names are announced next Tuesday there will be many in excess of this number. This proves beyond a reasonable doubt that this contest will be the all-absorbing topic throughout the county for the next few weeks.

The merchants and business men of Oregon City have already shown a disposition to lend their support to the venture launched by The Enterprise in such a manner as to prove that the effort to give Oregon City the representation it deserves among the well-advertised communities is being appreciated, and no doubt nearly every resident in the county will be approached for a subscription to The Enterprise, and will gladly subscribe if asked to do so. A good newspaper is the most valuable asset in any community and is certainly worthy of the support of those to whom its columns are always open for the discussion of questions of importance regarding public improvements, schools, etc. Therefore, it is believed that every home in Oregon City and the adjacent country will soon be on the subscription list of The Enterprise. The candidates in The Enterprise contest should not only receive the moral, but the material support in the district in which the various names are entered from. It is just a plain case of boosting your most useful, valuable and most necessary enterprise.

Subscribers Get Full Value.

Candidates when entering a contest of this kind should look at it from a business standpoint realizing that when a subscriber favors you with a subscription he is getting value received for every cent invested. If persons you approach for a subscription are already subscribers have them renew, or prevail on them to send it to an Eastern friend which will prove a valuable medium to advertise Oregon City and the adjoining community wherever it is sent. If candidates and their friends will adopt this plan of vote getting it will not only prove a pleasant pastime, but will place their names so far ahead on the list of candidates as to reduce the chances of losing to a minimum.

If the name of your favorite does not appear when the first list is published, enter it at once, then vote for her early and often and get your friends to do likewise. Encourage your candidate by letting her know that you are lending your support and before many days you will be surprised at the number of votes that will be credited to her total. It is a mistaken idea for contestants to expect to win if they depend on the efforts of their friends entirely. Show an inclination to help yourself for others will be ready to assist you when you let them know that you are in the race to "do or die." This is the spirit to show in affairs of this kind, and those who do show this determination are the ones that are usually announced with the winners when the prizes are being awarded. Notification Next Tuesday.

Every candidate who has been nominated.

CHAUTAQUA FIRE STAMPEDES CROWD

BLAZE STARTED IN BRUSH PILE BY UNIDENTIFIED PERSON CAUSES EXCITEMENT.

ATHLETE CONTINUES EXHIBITION

Audience, Reassured by Head of Young Men's Christian Association Classes Returns to Auditorium.

(By Staff Correspondent.)

CHAUTAQUA GROUNDS, GLADSTONE PARK, Or., July 15.—Fire in a pile of brush near the big auditorium on the Chautauqua grounds caused much excitement here tonight. The blaze, which was started by an unidentified person, illustrated the grounds, and a panic started among the thousands gathered in the auditorium. But for the presence of mind of the manager of the Young Men's Christian Association classes, there might have been serious results. Horses near the fire stampeded, and someone in the auditorium called for men to help extinguish the fire. Immediately there was the greatest commotion in the auditorium, and at least half the crowd, estimated at 3,500, rushed pell-mell from the building.

W. Daley, of the Young Men's Christian Association, who was performing on the rings, realized that there was no danger and continued with his exhibition. The crowd, however, continued to rush from the building. The manager of the classes went upon the stage and assured the crowd that there was no danger. This had a reassuring effect, and in a few minutes the audience returned to the auditorium and witnessed the remainder of the exhibition. One man was slightly burned in extinguishing the fire. The police in charge of Marshal Frost tried to find the man who set fire to the pile of brush but their efforts were unavailing.

MOUNT PLEASANT TO HAVE THREE TEACHERS

ANOTHER ROOM WILL BE ADDED TO THE BUILDING THIS SUMMER.

The special meeting of the school board and taxpayers of Mount Pleasant held at the Mount Pleasant school house on Thursday evening was largely attended. The matter of enlarging the school building and adding another room was contested by some of the residents of that place, but was finally adopted. As there are more than 115 pupils attending the school and the pupils are crowded into two rooms it was thought advisable to add the extra room. The two teachers heretofore have had too much work. The school board, with the aid of prominent taxpayers of the district, got permission to build the addition. During the past year many persons have moved into the school district.

An eight mill tax levy was also passed, five for maintenance, and three for improvements. T. J. Gary, county school superintendent, was present and addressed the assembly, being in favor of this tax and of adding another room. Another teacher will be elected by the school board in a few days. Two have been chosen. Mrs. Genevieve Niles, of Walla Walla, Wash., who recently arrived in this city to spend the summer at Locust Farm, the guest of Mrs. Eliza, Beth Warner, and who has been spending a few days at Salem, has returned to this city.

PRICE BROS. WIN; GAME PROTESTED

BERGER, PROFESSIONAL TWIRLER, USED IN LAST CONTEST OF SERIES.

7 DAY MARATHON GOES TO AMBURN

Governor West Asks Co-operation of People in Work of Improving State Institutions—Y. M. C. A. Work Pleases.

(By Staff Correspondent.)

CHAUTAQUA GROUNDS, GLADSTONE PARK, Or., July 15.—The Price Bros. baseball team, by obtaining the services of a professional pitcher in the closing and deciding game of the chautauqua series, was criticized after winning from the Dilworth Derbies this afternoon, and the losers have protested the game. Umpire Irwin announced that all bets were off. Several persons, who have taken a deep interest in the series, joined with the Portland team in protesting against the big purse going to Price Bros. The pitcher objected to is Berger, who was with San Francisco last season and played with Portland of the Northwestern League the first part of this season. The Derbies protested before the game started, but the Athletic Committee finally agreed to let Berger do the twirling, and make a decision after the game. The purse, however, has been held up until the committee can meet again and consider the rules. It is contended by the Oregon City men that other teams which have taken part in the series have used "ringers," and that nothing was said about excluding professionals before the series started.

Score is 19 to 7.

Price Bros. made 19 runs and the Derbies 7. The score by innings follows: Price Bros. 1 4 2 0 0 5 2 5 0—19 Dilworth Derbies 0 0 0 1 2 1 2 0 7 Moreland and Houck pitched for the Derbies and McKinley caught. Heitsman caught for Price Bros.

Amburn, in a remarkable sprint at the finish won the seven-day marathon, having made 58 and a little more than a half laps. Shaver made 58 1-2 laps; Hudson made 56; Goetz, 55 and Hutchinson 53. The boys ran fifteen minutes daily, and the winner, and ones who ran second and third were given handsome prizes. Next to the exciting baseball game the marathon race attracted the most interest of the athletic events.

There was another large crowd present on the next to the last day of the chautauqua meet. The feature of the morning program was the address of Governor West on "State Institutions." The governor, who was

MRS. NORRIS EASY AFTER OPERATION

PROMINENT OREGON CITY WOMAN GOES UNDER KNIFE FOR APPENDICITIS.

DR. ERNST A. SOMMER IS SURGEON

Patient Rallies Remarkably Well and Physicians Pronounce Her Out of Danger—Suffers Three Attacks.

Mrs. J. W. Norris, former President of the Woman's Club, leader in the movement to beautify McLaughlin Park and erect a fountain to the memory of the founder of Oregon City, and one of the best known women in Clackamas county, was operated upon for appendicitis at St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland Saturday afternoon by Dr. Ernst A. Sommer. Mrs. Norris rallied from the effects of the operation remarkably well, and there is every reason to believe that her recovery will be rapid.

Mrs. Norris had been ill for some time, and Saturday morning her condition became so serious that it was decided to operate upon her at once. She was taken to Portland on the 10:30 o'clock train and Dr. Sommer was summoned immediately. He advised an operation, and Mrs. Norris offered no objection to it. Her husband, Dr. Norris, Mrs. C. D. Latourrette and Mrs. Edward Shaw went to Portland with her and were present during the operation.

Mrs. Shaw, upon her return to Oregon City last night, said that the operation had been unusually successful and that there was not the slightest fear for Mrs. Norris. It will be some time, however, before she will be able to return to her home. Mrs. Norris had two attacks several weeks ago, but it was thought best to postpone an operation until it was seen that treatment would not effect a cure. The attacks, however, were acute and after each one the patient was considerably weaker.

MOTHER OF BOY HERO DIES IN PORTLAND

KENNETH MORRISON, 12 YEARS OLD, HAS SECOND BEREAVEMENT IN WEEK.

Mrs. S. T. Morrison, mother of Kenneth Morrison, the 12-year-old boy who nearly lost his life trying to save his church, Ralph Burd, who was drowned in the river Wednesday morning, died Saturday morning at a hospital in Portland, causing the second bereavement in a week to her young son. Mrs. Morrison had been ill for some time, and several days ago it was decided to take her to the Portland Hospital for treatment. Her condition continued to grow worse and Friday evening it was seen that she could not recover. The body was brought to the Holman undertaking establishment in this city and the funeral will be held at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

DROWNS AS HE URGES FRIENDS TO FOLLOW

JACOB JACKSON, HOMESTEAD OWNER, THOUGHT TO BE CRAMP VICTIM.

Jacob Jacobson, 30 years old, was drowned Saturday afternoon at Oswego while swimming with five companions. The man, who was a good swimmer, evidently was a victim of cramp. He had swum to the middle of the stream and was calling to his companions to follow him when he disappeared. His companions dived for the body, but when they recovered it life was extinct. Jacobson has no relatives in this city, and today two of the men who went swimming with him will go to Portland and try to find relatives or friends. The man had a homestead near Dallas, John Thummen is living on the place. Jacobson got his mail at a saloon in Portland, conducted by John Rothstrom. Coroner Wilson viewed the body and decided that death was accidental.

MASS WILL TRY TO CONNECT CRIMES

SHERIFF GOES TO OLYMPIA TO SEE AUTHORITIES ABOUT SUSPECT.

PROBER SURE HE HAS RIGHT CLUE

Finger Prints and Other Features of Coble Tragedy Are Identical With Those in the Hill Killing.

Sheriff Mass went to Portland late last night, and will leave at 7:30 o'clock this morning for Olympia, Wash., to confer with the authorities there regarding Swan Peterson, the suspect under arrest in connection with the killing of Archie Cobler and wife, at Rainier, Wash. This couple were slain in identically the same manner as the Hill family at Ardenwald Station, and the authorities are virtually agreed that both crimes were committed by the same person, Dr. George A. Cathey and his brother, of Portland, have compared photographs of finger prints found in the Hill home and in a room of a hotel at Rainier and are convinced they were made by the same person. There is also other strong evidence that both families were killed by the same fiend. Peterson is being detained at Tacoma.

With a scientific preparation, used in an atomizer, the Cathey brothers traced invisible bloodstains through the hotel at Rainier to the room which had been occupied by Swan Peterson the night of the Coble tragedy. Every object touched by Peterson showed the tell-tale bloodstains under the chemical formula applied by the Portland investigators.

When the Coble crime was first reported, Sheriffs Mass and Stevens telephoned to Rainier to have a careful examination of the bodies made. They had been mutilated in the same manner as the bodies of the members of the Hill family. Apparently, the crimes are as alike as two peas, the terrible details corresponding exactly to the letter. It is the motive and peculiar form of crime exhibited in the Hill and Coble cases that forms the closest link between them. While it is possible the Coble murder may have been the result of suggestion in the Hill case, the smaller and more vital details are such that the suggestive impulse could not have brought about their duplication in such an unusual degree.

MRS. M. A. BULLOCK BURIED.

Services Conducted by Rev. Zimmerman at Oswego.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. M. A. Bullock, who died at her home at Oswego on Friday afternoon, were held on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Methodist church at Oswego, the Rev. E. F. Zimmerman, of this city, officiating. The services were largely attended by many of the friends of the deceased and her family. The interment was in the Oswego cemetery. Mrs. Bullock was a member of the local order of Degrees of Honor, and members of that organization attended.
