CITY OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER.

ROTTEN SERVICE

Under the above heading the Portland Labor Press takes a fling at the Southern Pacific, indicating that the editor has had occasion to make frequent trips in the territory to which he no "kindly" refers. Twenty steam trains a day on the Newberg line would be some service. We are waiting patiently to hear what the Newberg Graphic has to offer concerning the strictures of the Portland paper, which follows:

Talk about "rotten service" in the city. The service given on the west side of the Willamette Valley by the S. P. is the rottenest ever. The Newberg line is the limit, until you get on the Yamhill bend. Two trains a day each way, where there should be ten. Trains an hour late on a local line less than 100 miles long because it is a milk, freight, express, fruit and passenger train. Cars crowded, fares high, time tables a mockery.

With ten trains a day the congestion of the city would be relieved. And twenty trains a day would be some too many between Portland and Newberg if the fares were reduced to a cent a mile, or less. The distance is 26 miles. A ten-cent fare would pay big dividends. Until we have public ownership and operation we will never have such a thing, however.

Oregon banks are not purchasing bonds in such quantities as in last year.

Is Corporal Punishment Good For Children?

By JAMES E. SULLIVAN, Authority on Athletics

AS the world has advanced in other directions, so has the method of controlling children changed very decidedly. In the present day the necessity for bringing up of children man or woman in charge permit himself or herself through passion to a point to adopt BRUTAL methods in child to present day conditions that it plainly shows absolute WEAKNESS.

You may make a COWARD out of a boy by using the rod, but not a man. The boy who is frequently BEATEN by his elders will NEVER forget it. He usually turns out to be a coward when he grows up and is RESENTFUL because until the day of his death he carries with him the recollection of the beatings he received when a child.

DEPEND UPON IT, KINDNESS WILL ACCOMPLISH MORE WITH CHILDREN THAN ANYTHING ELSE.

By Mrs. DONALD M'LEAN, Ex-President of the Daughters of the American Revolution

IN dealing with the correction and accepted as a sole end in the child. On no other ment TOLERABLE. always been recognized, even NOW. While it Biblical proposition, the child," has become no more can crude upon growing body and mind by brutalized elders in these our days.

Granting this, to thinking parents many problems in the proper method of training children so that they may develop as men and women the best that is in them remain UNSOLVED.

To one child the caress and word of admonition seem to SUFFICE, while to another will naught do but the apparent tyranny of PHYSICAL HURT.

AND IN THE LATTER CASE THE BOY WHO HAS BEEN SUBJECTED RIGIDLY TO THE OLD FASHIONED RULE OF THE ROD MAY—FREQUENTLY DOES—GROW UP THE COURAGEOUS, UP-NIGHT, UNHARDENED MAN.

year. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, the decrease in the amount of bonds held by the 243 banks in this state was $234,656. The total amount held being $22,392,081. The aggregate assets totaled $142,000,575, surplus and profits $8,004,015 and individual deposits $100,672,923.

STOPPING CUSTOMS LEAK.

For many years, according to the customs officials, the government has been losing large sums of money annually because the importers of Sicilian lemons did not pay duty on all the sound fruit they imported. When Collector Loeb discovered this leak the authorities set about the making of regulations which would stop the leak. They finally decided to base the amount of rotten fruit, on which customs duties are remitted, on the samples shown by the importers to the trade. The Secretary of the Treasury approved this plan, but the importers protested that it was not fair. "Why not?" asked Secretary McVeah. The importers could make no satisfactory reply, so the order stands, and the government will save much money.

GIRLS GOING ON AUTO TRIP.

Oregon City Party to Spend Day at Government Camp. A party composed of Miss Mollie Mitchell, Miss Edith Jackson, Miss Clara Mitchell, Miss Nora Criswell, Miss Myrtle Cross, Miss Stella Criswell, will leave by automobile this morning for Government Camp, where they will spend the day. They will partake a breakfast at Rhododendron Tavern and dinner at Government Camp, and supper at Welsh's. Before returning to this city the young women will enjoy bathing at the mineral springs at the Summit. A Bath house has been erected at that place. It is probable that Aschoff's summer resort will also be visited.

GERMANS HAVE PICNIC TODAY.

Oregon City Society Will Join Portland Verein in Outing. The German Verein Society of Portland will hold a basket picnic at August Schmor's park at Willamette today. The picnicers will come to this city by special boat. The Oregon City society has been extended an invitation to attend, and there will be a large delegation present from the local order. The day will be spent in music, both vocal and instrumental, dancing, games, etc. Mr. Schmor has installed many amusements in his beautiful park, which will be among the drawing cards.

Philadelphia Children Attend Outdoor School on House Roof

Photos by American Press Association.

FEW children like to go to school, and many of them are glad of an excuse to skip their lessons even if the excuse takes the form of a slight illness. But if they had such a school as has been started in Philadelphia it is likely that the books would be more attractive. This particular school is located on the roof of a house, and the children are practically out of doors while learning and reciting their lessons. There is a roof over the "schoolroom" to serve as a protection from the sun as well as from possible rain, but the children are as nearly outdoors as the weather will permit. Miss Grace Phelps, the teacher, takes a personal interest in each of her young charges. They are not only taught the learning that is in books, but they acquire much practical information as well. They are given lessons in gymnastics, as the picture shows, and are taught habits of personal cleanliness that are conducive to health. Each of the pupils gets a toothbrush and a box of tooth powder, and the schooling includes daily drill in the use of those articles.

CORRESPONDENCE

OAK GROVE. Mrs. Feilbig entertained the ladies of the Presbyterian church of Portland, Friday, at her beautiful home on the river. A picnic dinner was served on the lawn under the large trees. J. H. Graham returned home Friday evening from Lyle, Wash., where he spent several days with relatives. Mrs. L. A. McDonald and son, Claud, of Portland, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Warren. Refreshments were served. Cure for "The Blues." While most people, at one time or another, experience what is known as "the blues," few realize that this dependent condition is occasioned by the poisoning of the system through the inability of an inactive liver to properly separate and throw off body poisons. That the public might have a reliable remedy to assist in overcoming such a condition, Rexall Liver Salts have been put upon the market, and we unhesitatingly recommend them to you. We will refund any money spent for Rexall Liver Salts if they fail to provide a beneficial treatment. In two sizes, 25c and 50c. Huntley Bros. Co.'s Pharmacy, The Rexall Drug Store.

Commercial Club Chat

F. E. Mueller, of Mulino, who called at the Promotion Office on Saturday to place on exhibition some of his strawberries, said that he had sold the last of his potatoes for $2.32 1/2 a sack, the highest price he ever received. "I can make money on potatoes at $1.90 a sack, and Clackamas county is the place to grow them," said Mr. Mueller. Mrs. Ida C. Bonner, of Oregon City, says she will exhibit in the various departments at the Clackamas County Fair. Where she lived in the East, she exhibited canned fruit and vegetables and will have some of the fine products at Canby, as well as entries in the Ladies' Textile and Poultry departments. George A. Brown, of Maple Lane, has a field of Black Beauty oats that will yield 80 bushels an acre. He has a sample of the grain at the Promotion Office. This is a new oat in this county but it promises to be a great success here. Fred J. Meindl, formerly an attorney in this city, but now allied with George Mosier, in Portland, was in the city Saturday. While here he called at the Promotion Office and was pleased with the progressiveness of the Oregon City business men. William Gilbert, of Portland, was in this city Saturday, looking for a location for a bakery. William A. Yeomans came to Oregon City last December and bought a farm near Willamette. He says he likes this country fine and the crops on his place look exceedingly well. "I like the climate in Clackamas county," said Mr. Yeomans, "and will advise my friends in South Dakota, to move to this section of Oregon."

WHY LOBERT DID NOT MAKE GOOD AS SCOUT.

Hans Lobert, the clever third baseman of the Phillies, tells a good story at the expense of Clark Griffith, manager of the Cincinnati Reds. Last season Hans met with an accident and was unable to play. Griffith then decided to use him as a scout and told Hans to go through the Virginia league and see if he could pick up any good youngster. "I looked over everything in the league," said Hans, "and the only player that looked good to me was a third baseman. At that time I was the third baseman for the Cincinnati team. Wouldn't I have been a bone-head if I went to Griffith and told him that the only player of promise I could find was a youngster for my job?"

COBB HARD TO PLEASE, SAYS "SILK" O'LOUGHLIN

Silk O'Loughlin, the American league umpire, says Ty Cobb is the hardest man in the league for an umpire to please. Cobb, Silk says, gets into more close plays than any other player. He takes big chances, generally has to be tagged and gives the basemen only a foot to touch him. "They say Cobb spikes more players than any one else," said Silk. "If that is true it's because he has more chances to spike basemen. He has ten chances to spike basemen where most players have one. "I have been on top of many plays in which Cobb was the runner, and I never saw him spike anybody intentionally. Ty is always going away from the basemen. If the man with the ball is in front of the base Ty goes behind it, and if the basemen is behind the base Ty goes in front."

ABLES GOING GREAT GUNS.

Youngster Who Was Sent Back to Minors Now Wander on Coast. Great is Harry "Big Mitt" Ables—in the minor leagues. Since he joined the Oakland team the huge left hander, who still belongs to the New York Americans, has been mowing down the heavy sluggers in great shape. Oakland fans say he can have the city. He had a mortgage on the place to start with after pitching a few four and five hit games for shutout scores. But when he put over a 100 hit game a short time ago he was able to fore-close. He is the big star of the west coast in the baseball world right now and is regarded as unbeatable. Ables is one of those minor league "beats" and is possessed of so much ability that it is hard to understand why he has so far fallen just a bit short of the majors. Chase is confident that he will some day be a great pitcher. Ables has the largest hands of any baseball player. He can almost cover the entire horsehide with his big left hand. Fortune Spent For Ball Players. Nearly $200,000 was spent last fall and up to the present time in material to build up the sixteen teams of the big leagues. For this entire sum it is doubtful if a team of seven regulars, three catchers and four pitchers—the makings of a big league club—could be picked from the men it bought, such as could make a first division nine in either league. Tigers Use Few Pitchers. Detroit changes pitchers fewer times than any major league club, yet the Tigers are putting up a great fight.
