PRICE BROS. WIN; GAME PROTESTED

Introduced by O. D. Eby, devoted most of his address to the penitentiary. He declared that the administration needed the backing of the people in the efforts to reform the institution, and explained the workings of the old and new systems in handling the prisoners.

Chaplain Explains System.

Rev. Philip Bauer, chaplain of the penitentiary, gave an interesting description of the daily routine of the prisoners. He told how the religious workers reached the prisoners and described the work of the Prisoners' Aid Society.

The Young Men's Christian Association entertained a large crowd at night with the following program:
Dancing, girls of Chautauqua class; solo, Lloyd Stiles; fencing, Takahatake and partner; club swinging, Clarence Sprague; solo, Mrs. Elsie B. Blische; parallel bars, Y. M. C. A. seniors; solo, Dr. McMichael; Roman rings, W. Daley; posing, W. Penson; advanced gymnastics, Penson and Hale; and pyramids, Y. M. C. A. team.

Another feature of the evening program was the fireworks on the athletic field.

Mrs. Fox Has Large Class.

Mrs. Emma A. Fox, of Detroit, Mich., has been on the chautauqua grounds during the entire meeting conducting most successfully a large class in parliamentary work. She is well known among club women, having served four years as recording secretary of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and later as second vice-president of the same organization.

As a member of the Detroit Board of Education, the president of a club of 300 members in her home city and the president of the Michigan State Federation, she has had ample opportunity to become proficient in the subject in which she is a recognized authority.

Mrs. Gillespie Has Big Class.
The class in Expression at chautauqua which is conducted by Mrs. Emma Gillespie, of Portland, has increased daily in attendance until it has become the largest of the morning classes on the grounds. Interest in the work is marked.

Mrs. Gillespie's method of teaching consists of no set system, but her endeavor is to bring out individuality in her pupils. She discourages both copying and "cramping."
The program for tomorrow is as follows:
MORNING.
10:00—Sunday School.
11:00—Address, Selected, Mrs. Edith Smith Davis, Milwaukee, Wis.

AFTERNOON.
1:15—Band Concert, Naval Reserve Band.

Carpet Mills.
The first carpet mill in America was not established until after the close of the Revolution. It was in 1791, at Philadelphia, that carpet making as an industry was born in the United States.

OREGON POTATOES COMING IN FREELY

Oregon potatoes are coming more freely now but quotations on shipping stock remain firm. The reported breaks in the markets in California have left no effect here and dealers are inclined to believe that early potatoes will continue to bring good prices.

In fruits generally there was a strong and active interest all week, and this bids fair to continue through the hot season. The peach supply, Oregon and California, was the best for the season to date, though only the early sorts have as yet appeared, and dealers report a very satisfactory business at an extreme range of 75 cents to $1.25 a box, according to quality.
