WEEKLY ENTERPRISE ESTABLISHED 1866

VOL. 2—No. 17.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1911.

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

30,000 VOTES ARE POLLED IN CONTEST

RECORD-BREAKING START MADE IN REMARKABLE RACE FOR PRIZES.

CANDIDATES AND FRIENDS ACTIVE

Candidates Not So Far Ahead That Others May Not Enter And Go To Front With Little Diligent Effort.

The number of votes—139,000—polled at the start of the Enterprise Grand Voting Contest, July 11, is indeed a record breaker in the history of Voting Contests in Oregon. As a rule, affairs of this nature are slow to get started, but not so in this case, where prizes to be given away are so valuable and the arrangement of distribution of the awards are equally varied.

The Candidates in various sections of the county realize this, judging from the number of subscriptions received at the Enterprise Office during the past twenty-four hours, and it is a safe prediction that the results obtained in this Contest will surpass the highest expectations of every Candidate in the race.

Already a number of Candidates are actively engaged securing subscriptions, as the vote totals show, and because many days have elapsed there will be many who have not made up their minds to compete, who will be in the race to win. But long delays are dangerous, as others may at the present moment be calling on friends of theirs that you figure would assist you. Start today—this moment—to communicate with your friends and relatives, and give them to understand you have decided to take the matter up, and that you want them to help you, and then go after the votes and subscriptions and get enough to win the first prize to be awarded to your rival.

Prizes Worth The Effort.

Each and every one of the prizes is worth a good hard try, and you will take a lot of pleasure calling on friends and becoming acquainted with persons who will be glad to be given an opportunity to show their friendship and encourage you in your ambition. The coming week will no doubt be an exciting one to the race as the candidates who figure on winning one of the valuable prizes will start to work with energy. There will be no end of suspense and anxiety among the candidates to know just how they stand and what their chances are compared with that of the leaders at the time. There will be a lively skirmish for votes and just how long the lead of today will hold that position will be hard to say. That is up to her competitors.

Candidates have been cautioned to start and again that an early start is the best in voting contests and if you do not take advantage of it you will have no one to blame but yourself. Start today and keep persistently at it until the last day of the contest. There is plenty of time to enter your name and secure enough votes to win the first prize to be awarded to your rival.

Voting Becomes Brisk.
Candidates who are in the race will receive every help from the contest management to map out a plan for a successful campaign and will carry out every promise made. The winners will win on a fair basis, and the prizes will be distributed in accordance with the rules so that every body will be given an opportunity to see that the contest is honest. These are the facts that have brought such a response from nearly every section of Clackamas County and the people know that the integrity of an Enterprise contest has never been questioned.

The voting is becoming brisk and there are going to be some hard fought battles before the closing night of the contest. So far the totals are pretty evenly divided in each of the districts.

INDIAN SQUATTER FOR 35 YEARS HAS TO MOVE

Joe Andrews, better known as "Indian Joe," who has lived in a hut at First and Washington streets for more than 35 years was ordered to move Thursday by Chief of Police Shaw. Alonzo Baker, who recently built a home near the old Indian's hut complained to the City Council, and the chief was instructed to tell Andrews to find a home elsewhere. Although "Indian Joe" lived in the hut alone, he was often visited by members of his race from other parts of the state, and at times 10 or 12 slept in the little ramshackle building. Many complaints have been made by neighbors of the chief, who is called as "Indian Joe" was a squatter he had no recourse but to get out. He, however, objected strenuously at first to going, but gave in when the chief obtained a room for him on Fifth street near the river.

McCREIDIE TO DECIDE BASEBALL PROTEST

The Athletic Committee of the Willamette Chautauqua Assembly will not make a decision in the protest of the Dilworth, Derbies to the Price Bros' team being awarded the baseball championship, until a letter is received from Manager McCredie, of the Portland baseball team, telling whether Berger, who pitched for Price Bros., is a member of a team in the Northwestern League. Harry White, manager of Price Bros., has written to Manager McCredie for the information, and expects a letter today from him. White declares that Berger is not a member of the big league, and consequently was eligible to pitch in the last game, which was won by Price Bros. and gave them the championship. C. Schuebel, a member of the committee has left for California on an automobile trip.

WIFE WARNED WHO NEARLY DROWNS

Mrs. S. A. Dunkus, of Portland, who narrowly escaped being drowned in the Clackamas River at Gladstone Wednesday, and was rescued just in the nick of time by Richard Freytag, had intended going to the Grocers' picnic at Bonneville on that day, but at her husband's request changed her plans. He told her if she went to the picnic, and joined friends in bathing, he was afraid something would happen to her. So she decided to take her children and have an outing on the Clackamas at Gladstone, and strange as it is, she had the same experience there. She had feared that she would befall her if she went to the Grocers' picnic.

WIFE ACCUSED OF DESERTION

M. M. Jamesson has filed a suit for divorce against Ella Jamesson. They were married at River Falls, Wis., July 2, 1905. Jamesson alleges that his wife deserted him on July 5, 1905. George C. Brownell represents Jamesson.

$20,000 WARRANTS PAID BY TREASURER

An experience of Thursday convinced County Treasurer Tufts that there is a great deal in newspaper publicity. As the result of an article in the Enterprise he paid out a cool $20,000 in a few hours and expects to pay out about $15,000 today. The article gave the information that the County Treasurer had $35,000 with which to liquidate all road warrants issued and indorsed prior to December 14, 1910, and that the money would be paid today. Mr. Tufts had hardly opened his office before he was besieged by a crowd of warrant holders, and, although he had not intended to take up the warrants Thursday, he decided to do so.

OPERA CHAIRS BOUGHT FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL

The City School Directors, at a meeting Thursday afternoon, purchased 250 folding chairs for the auditorium and gymnasium of the new High School. The chairs are of the latest model, and are handsome and strong. More chairs and desks will be purchased later by the board. It is the intention to have the equipment of the building as up-to-date and convenient as possible. It is probable that an electric bell clock system will be installed in the school. The system is the same as is used in the schools in the large cities of the East, and is highly recommended by teachers who have had experience with it.

NEWLY ELECTED TEACHER QUILTS

Miss Pearl Steyers, who was recently elected teacher of the third and fourth grades, Gladstone, has resigned because of ill health. She will spend several months in Eastern Oregon. The school directors Thursday announced that applications would be received for the position.

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION WANTS TO CLEAN UP BIG SUM IN LUMP.

LONDON, July 20.—That Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion of the world, is planning to "lay down" in his coming match in England with Bomadier Wells, and permit the Englishman to win the heavyweight title is openly charged here today in sporting circles. It is openly declared that the preliminary negotiations for the match are suspicious and that Johnson, sore on American sports and realizing that he is getting older, wants to clean up big money in one lump and is willing to drop the title to "get the dough."
