The attempts to "get" Dr. Wiley have been numerous, but thus far they have all been unsuccessful. Dr. Wiley has the friendly regard of practically all the housewives in the country

This does not exhaust the chances for Ohio to cut a figure in the Presiden tial game, but with two Republican and one Democratic candidate for the Presidency one would think any state would be satisfied.

Chicken thieves have not only m their appearance at Mount Pleasant, but also have visited the home of Roberta M. Schuebel, who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel, are Mrs. Bonner near Kansas City Add thef before the day The twenty-two eggs were taken from the nests by Mrs. Bonner, and upon her return to her home the folthey lowing day she went to the hen house to gather the cugs, and to her as tonishment found that some one had Fol had taken all the eggs. Not only did they take the eggs, but three of her prize chickens, one of them being old "Rosk," a family pet. "Rosy" was black and large, and her winning ways and appearance no doubt attracted the attention of the intruder But she is now a thing of the past, probably having been feasted on by the thieves. The hen had unusual intelligence for a fowl, and whenever the family went away for the day, "Rosy," a family pet. "Rosy" was adieu and greeted them with a "cluck," "cluck," when they returned. She was the pride of the poultry yard. A close watch is being made by several of the poultry raisers of Kansas City and vicinity, and if the thief is caught, he will get more than

Butter Prices Take Upward Turn I Portland Market-Dry Weather

Curtails Pasturage and Reduces Supply.

Whole corn advanced this week in Dregon City from $31 to $39 and racked corn from $32 to $40. Thi is one of the largest advances for ong time and the indications are that rices will be higher. The supply is being rapidly absorbed, and there be no reduction until the new crop is ready for the market. Trade in the entire grain market is limited here. With the uncertainty regarding the harvest abroad and the ent passage of the Canadian recip rocity bill, buyers are not eager to take hold There has been a further improve ment in the foreign price and this may force buying locally after a while. At a meeting of the Portland bu ter board it was decided by creamery men to advance the price of the creamery product to 29 1-2 cents for prints, or two cents a pound above previous quotations. Whether prices in this county will be affected is question

The advance in butter is due to the shortened supply now coming forward. The dry weather has curtailed the pasture to a considerable extent, and no increase in the make may be ex-pected until after the fall rains set in. This year's demand for butter from Alaska is much less than normal, and for that reason prices have not shown the quick response to the shortened supply that they usually do. Prices at Senttle are slightly lower than in Portland, indicating that the Portland trade is making an effort to force the northern market to a high-er point. The advance was forced by makers, who likewise have connec tions in the north

Red Bluff, Cal. Thursday, July 20, 1911 .- We left Roseburg at 9:40 a. m. It was quite cool and the roads were very good. The road wound along by a stream for a short distance and the trees were beautiful. The mountains were about us and soon we reached all them.

We crossed two or three mountains but had no trouble whatever. Just after we passed through Canyonville we came to a succession of hills eight miles long.

Just before we reached Cow Creek a large, heavy machine with four young men in it passed us, but when we reached the creek where we had to cross a dry river bed they stuck in the sand and mud and had to get out and push while we pulled right through and up a very steep hill where we soon left them far behind. We crossed the rest of the mountains but they were all quite small, so we reached Grant's Pass at 7:15 p. m. We remained there for three-quarters of an hour when we left for Gold hill, which we reached about 10 p. m where we remained for the night. r Gold Friday, July 21, 1911.

We left Goldhill at 6 a. m. and had preakfast at Medford where we re until about 10 a.m.

eached Ashland at 10:55, where we spent three-quarters of an hour ad niring and taking snap shots of their At about 1 o'clock we stopped for by a little stream where we unch remained until 3:30 p. m.

On our way to Coles we met an other Ford oar crossing the moun-tains. We reached Coles at about 4 D. m.

After we passed through Coles and into the state of California we had a ittle trouble about the roads, as we had been unable to secure a ro book for the northern part of the state. We passed through a number of

By President WILLIAM H. TAFT

HE MOST SACRED FUNCTION THAT & PRESIDENT HAS TO PERFORM IS THE APPOINTMENT OF MEN TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES. IT IS THE BULWARK OF OUR LIBERTIES.

In its work of construction it recognizes the wonderfully comprehensive character of our constitution in meeting the needs of SANE progress. It stands between us and extreme and unwise radicalism. It stands for the institutions that served our fathers and will continue to serve us if the country IS TO LIVE.

It has fallen to my lot to have five members of that court bear my commission, a lot, I think, that has fallen to but few presidents, and there is no duty that I have discharged that has given me more HEARTFELT CONCERN, that has worn more upon my conscience, than the selection of the men pure and upright of character, able and learned in the law, jurists and statesmen, with courage to decide and assert the right.

Whether that duty has been well performed or not the COUN-TRY must decide, but I am willing to stand upon the record of the court as now made; short as it is, since the five were appointed.

The country has hung upon the decisions of that court in respect of a statute the construction of which has given GREAT concern to the business and other communities of this country. I believe these have done and will continue to do great good to all the busibid down a line of distinction which
