

MORNING ENTERPRISE

WEEKLY ENTERPRISE ESTABLISHED 1866

VOL. 2—No. 24.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, SATURDAY, JULY 29, 1911.

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

VOTING HEAVY AS OFFER NEARS END

MISS CROSS TAKES LEAD IN CITY AND ALL CANDIDATES ARE WORKING HARD.

BALLOTS IN RESERVE TO TELL STORY

Contestants in District No. 2 Are Untiring in Their Efforts to Win Prizes Offered by The Enterprise.

Only two days of the special vote are left and who is going to lead when the votes are counted after all returns are in can't even be conjectured. Wednesday morning's Daily Enterprise will tell the tale, and surprises for all are expected, as most of the candidates are working so hard this week the contest manager hasn't had a chance to talk to them. From District No. 2 come reports that all the contestants are putting in a strenuous week and from the way things are going in District No. 1 it is evident that all the candidates are making every minute count. Just glance over the list. There are but slight differences between any of them. Miss Myrtle Cross takes the lead, but how long she will remain in that position is hard to say. Our wishes go with you Miss Cross, but be warned, others are working to win and you will find yourself kept busy staying at the head of the list. Miss Eva Kent takes second place today, but likewise we would not hazard a guess as to what position she will occupy on the list when the special vote is altogethered.

Miss Lona Story is third just at this moment, but we would not be surprised to see her name first on the list when all returns are in from the special vote offer.

Miss Allie Ware comes next with total vote 9,740, but we understand she is making the best of the special vote offer and don't place any bet on her chances today.

The totals of other candidates in District No. 1 are increasing in proportion. From District No. 2 we get word that all the girls are putting in a strenuous week and from the way things are going in the surrounding country we know that all the contestants are making every minute count. It is surely a worth while—a 10,000 dollar—and to the girl who gets a job of five.

Prizes Are In Store. And by the way there isn't much time left until the contest closes. All you girls who are leading are being to very much surprised at the number of votes that will be brought in at the last minute by girls, whom you think didn't have a chance. Ladies, we warn you now, that you've got to get going hard and keep going you want to win.—You can't let up a minute during the remainder of the contest, because those behind you will walk on your heels if you do. A number of girls in each district have been voting just enough ballots to keep within striking distance of the same time they have been riding up a great big reserve—these are the girls who are going to upset calculations, as they still keep working quietly but effectively—they're getting subscriptions continually and work will win.

Now, contestants, as the contest grows serious, many of you girls who have stayed near the top since the beginning and building up a fair reserve are going to be disappointed if you don't win one of the prizes and tell you now that there is only one way to win and that is to work for the next two days. The girl who goes to let up and thinks her reserve will win for her is going to be badly disappointed young woman. The wise ones in this contest are putting in longer hours and trying harder for subscriptions than ever before and they are the girls who will win.

Make Extra Effort Now. If The Morning Enterprise prizes are worth working hard for during a period of almost eight weeks, they're surely worth a special effort during the remaining few days and it is hard work that will win.

You can't work hard trying for subscriptions without getting them—because we have solicited subscriptions ourselves and we have had half the perseverance that you girls have.

Now start in this morning and take up your mind to get at least several new yearly subscriptions every day during the remaining days of this contest. Work like this will win and the girls who do this we predict will be among the prize winners.

MISS AMANDA CLEAR DIES OF PARALYSIS

TUALATIN WOMAN IS STRICKEN AFTER UNDERGOING OPERATION.

Miss Amanda Clear died Thursday night at her home at Tualatin, after an illness of five weeks. She was stricken with paralysis three weeks ago and did not speak afterward. Miss Clear was the daughter of John Clear and was thirty-eight years of age on February 2 last. About five weeks ago she was operated upon in a Portland hospital for tumor and it was believed the operation was entirely successful, but a stroke of paralysis followed three weeks later. Miss Clear lost her mother a year ago. She is survived by her father, a twin brother, Andrew Clear, of Tualatin, and three sisters, Mrs. John Carothers and Mrs. Sarah Dickerson, of Canemah and Mrs. John Winters, of Rex, Or. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning from the family residence at Tualatin and the interment will be in Wyona cemetery.

W. S. U'REN SPEAKS IN SEATTLE TONIGHT

W. S. U'ren leaves this morning for Seattle where he will speak tonight at the referendum dinner in honor of Sidney and Beatrice Webb, of London, the celebrated writers and lecturers. Mr. and Mrs. Webb and C. E. S. Wood, of Portland, also will speak. Mr. Webb is an associate of William Morris and Bernard Shaw in the Fabian Society, and is an influential member of London's Central Body Council. He and his wife are leading authorities on Socialism, co-operation, municipal government and trades unionism in Great Britain. Mr. U'ren will speak on the initiative and referendum, and what they have accomplished in Oregon.

To Close at 6:10 o'clock. Beginning Monday the general delivery window of the postoffice will close at 6:10 o'clock in the evening.

DEAD EELS ARE USED AS FOOD FOR SALMON

OBJECTIONABLE BODIES REMOVED FROM RIVER BY FISH WARDENS.

Residents along the Willamette River from Oregon City to Sellwood no longer are bothered by the thousands of eels that are collected in that part of the stream following every freshet, polluting the atmosphere with the stench of decay. The State Department of Fisheries has hit on a plan to rid the river of the dead eels and at the same time turn them to use as food for young salmon at the hatcheries.

Deputy Fish Warden Rathburn said that about seven tons of dead eels had been gathered recently and barged to Goble, where they are placed in cold storage until spring, when they will be distributed among different hatcheries and ground into food for young salmon. The same procedure will be followed in the vicinity of The Dalles, where dead eels are numerous each year.

It was not until recently that experiments were made at the Bonneville hatchery with eels as food. They proved such a success that the expense of gathering them on barges and holding them in cold storage was deemed warranted. Eels, like salmon and other fish, come inside seeking spawning grounds. Thousands die from water and are caught in holes and along the bank when the river recedes. No useful purpose was found for eels in the past, but henceforth the Department of Fisheries will have an annual harvest.

FORESTER SHOULD BE INFORMED OF FIRES

OFFICIAL WILL AID IN FIGHTING FLAMES THAT APPEAR DANGEROUS.

F. A. Elliott, State Forester, in a letter to The Morning Enterprise urges that his office be notified immediately of all forest fires. The letter is as follows: "The State Forester is constantly getting notice through the daily press and from residents of the state of fires having got beyond control after several days' fighting, that have not been reported to his office until after becoming a menace to the neighborhood. He wishes to urge upon all state fire wardens the necessity of reporting to him all fires as soon as after being discovered as possible, instead of waiting until they become dangerous to life and property. One such fire has just been brought to his notice after having burned three weeks, that might have been controlled and probably entirely extinguished if reported earlier so that proper assistance could have been given.

"Every state fire warden, or other persons, in case they are unable to get in touch with a state warden, should telephone or telegraph (collect), F. A. Elliott, State Forester, Salem, Oregon, informing him of forest fires before they get beyond control."

PARIS, July 28.—The capital suffered today from a renewal of the heat wave. A maximum temperature of 95 degrees was recorded.

Flight Date Fixed. MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 28.—September 15 has been fixed as the date for the Wolgast-McFarland match scheduled to be held in Milwaukee.

TAIL-ENDERS LOSE AGAIN TO BEAVERS

STEEN PITCHES GOOD GAME AND PORTLAND HITS BALL HARD.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 28.—(Special).—Again the stalwart Beavers, who are going some, faced the humble Angels and put them on the bum. Steen was on the firing line and Buddy's stick was working, and not a member of the nine could be accused of shirking. As Criger tossed them over there were some awful whacks, and 13 bingles were banged out by Portland's baseball cracks. The score was 10 to 3, which isn't such a much, but 10 to 3 is victory, and puts the A's in Dutch.

The results Friday were as follows: Pacific Coast League—Portland 10, Los Angeles 3; San Francisco 6, Oakland 3; Vernon 5, Sacramento 2. Northwestern League—Portland 8, Vancouver 7; Tacoma 6, Spokane 5; Victoria 8, Seattle 4. American League—Philadelphia 1-6, Detroit 0-5; Washington 6, Cleveland 2; Chicago 7, New York 5; Boston-St. Louis game postponed, rain. National League—Pittsburg 9, Boston 4; Cincinnati 8, Brooklyn 6; St. Louis 5, New York 2; Chicago 6, Philadelphia 3.

BLACKSMITH SAVES HOUSE THAT'S AFIRE

W. R. MONEY QUITS REALTY BUSINESS

The home of Bert Goodpasture, at the corner of Fifth and Water streets, was menaced by fire early Friday morning, and but for the prompt work of a man employed in the blacksmith shop across the street, the building probably would have been destroyed. The smith saw the fire burning briskly in the roof and licking the eaves of the Goodpasture home. He seized a ladder and hurried to the building. With the aid of several men he brought him water the man soon extinguished the blaze. The roof was dry and the shingles were burning like tinder, when the self-appointed fireman began dousing it with water.

W. R. Money has severed his connection with the real estate firm of Freytag & Money, and G. W. H. Miller, for the past seven and one-half years manager of the Wells Fargo Company of this city, will succeed him. Mr. Miller will still be connected with the Express Company as heretofore. He is well known in this city, as well as in the county. Mr. Money has, through his connection with the real estate office induced many persons to come to this county to live. Owing to other business matters, which will necessitate his being away from the city, Mr. Money was obliged to give up the real estate business.

WEATHER INDICATIONS. Oregon City—Fair Saturday; northwesterly winds. Portland—Fair Saturday; northwesterly winds.

CAPITAL ROAD TO BE DECIDED TODAY

HIGHWAY COMMISSION TO EXAMINE ROUTES ON BOTH SIDES OF RIVER.

COUNTIES MUST DEFRAY EXPENSES

Construction Work to be Started Early in August—Route Through Oregon City Probably Will be Chosen.

Members of the State Highway Commission will leave Salem today on a tour of both sides of the Willamette River. The object of the trip will be to determine the route of the Capital Highway. It was believed last night that a route through Oregon City would be decided upon.

The roads will be inspected and towns and districts will be visited in the counties lying west of the river first. It is the intention of the commission to make a complete study of the situation that selection of the most practical routes may be made. Dimick Can't Go. Those who will make the tour are George F. Rogers, of Salem; C. T. Prall, of Portland, and Frank C. Riggs, Mr. Riggs will donate the use of his automobile to the commission in conducting its preliminary work. Grant B. Dimick, the third member of the commission, will be unable to join the party.

It is understood by the commission that the project is not to be a state aid undertaking. Governor West has promised to put to work from 150 to 180 convicts on the road but the state is not to bear any direct expense incidental to the enterprise. Each county through which the highway will pass is expected to furnish supplies, material, teams and funds. This aid can be given by the County Courts as well as private individuals. Decision Expected Today. "We expect to make a tour of the country between Portland and Salem and decide on the route at once," said C. T. Prall, a member of the commission, who is also president of the Oregon Association for Highway Improvement. "By selecting the route at once we will be able to go ahead with our plans in a few days. It is desired to begin actual construction early next month.

"Every effort will be made to complete as much of the road this year as possible. The citizens of the counties through which the road will pass must give the project assistance if they want a modern highway to be built between the capital and Portland."

WING HURT AS WAGON UPSETS IN RUNAWAY

Wing, proprietor of the China Garden in the outskirts of Oregon City, had a narrow escape from serious injury when his horse ran away Thursday morning near Oswego and threw him from the wagon. The frenzied steed ran for more than three miles with Wing holding tightly to the reins and doing his utmost to stop the animal. The runaway horse came to an abrupt stop when the wagon struck an obstruction and turned over, throwing the driver out and injuring his knee. The horse freed itself from the wreckage and continued its mad course until it reached its stable. James Kilroy, who was passing, went to Wing's assistance, and helped him to his feet. The horse was frightened by a trolley car.

MRS. SIMMS OBSERVES BIRTH ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. John Simms entertained a few of her friends and relatives at her home on Seventh and Center streets Thursday afternoon in a most delightful manner, the occasion being the celebration of her fifty-seventh anniversary. The rooms of the home were prettily decorated with flowers, and one of the features of the afternoon was the presentation of a handsome set of silver knives and forks from the guests. A luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jake Willis, who recently came from Wabeno, Wis., Leslie and Norma Willis, Mrs. Ornstun, Mrs. J. W. Davenport and two children, Lyle and Helen, Mrs. H. M. Montour, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Theresa Becker, of Muskegon, Mich.

Judge Campbell Puts Out Fire That Menaces Block

J. U. CAMPBELL.

Judge J. U. Campbell, on Thursday evening, with several buckets of water extinguished a fire which had gained considerable headway on the rear stairway of the big frame building at Ninth and Main streets, the lower floor of which was recently vacated by J. E. Seeley, the grocer. Judge Campbell was sitting on the veranda at home at Ninth and Water streets, when he noticed the blaze. He hurried to the stairway and soon extinguished the fire. The building is an old one, and if the fire had got beyond control it would have been difficult to have kept it from being communicated to adjoining buildings, and the entire block would have been menaced. Judge Campbell thinks the fire started from a lighted cigar or cigarette, which some one threw on the stairway.

CARELESS SPRINKLING IS INJURING STREET

CHIEF OF POLICE INSTRUCTS MEN HOW TO LAY DUST.

Sprinkle, sprinkle, little man, Sprinkle, sprinkle, all you can in the broad and dusty street, Driving off the burning heat. But be careful little man, As you sprinkle all you can, Not to wash away the street—Leave it there for weary feet.

Councilman Burke called Chief of Police Shaw's attention Friday to the careless sprinkling that is being done on Main street. Many of the persons who are dousing the street with water in order to get surcease from the heat, are washing away the sand binder, and as a result, the bricks are chipped easily. The chief immediately cautioned the sprinklers to hold the nozzles of the hose at an angle of forty-five degrees so that the water would drop gently on the pavement. So if you happen to get a good ducky today you may be consoled by the knowledge that the street is being saved and the taxpayers' money as well.

PLEA SAVES TREE AS STREET IS IMPROVED

This improvement of Center street from Eleventh north has been resumed, and the work will be pushed to completion. Contractors Moffatt & Parker are now busy with the steam roller and laying crushed rock. This block will be one of the most attractive in the residential district. The historic elms planted by the late Dr. Atkinson in Oregon City's earliest days will not be razed, and, through Dr. Lee's intercession, the large elm at the corner of his property was not destroyed, as was at first contemplated. At a special meeting, it was decided to build the curb to the tree. Such shade trees as these are what help to make a city beautiful, and should be protected.

FRANCE CONTINUES WAR PREPARATION

ARMY IS BEING REORGANIZED AND SUPPLIES ARE SENT TO FRONTIER FORTS.

SPECIAL TRAINS CARRY PROVISIONS

Statesmen sanguine That Peaceful Solution Will Be Reached—Congo Partition Is Demanded.

PARIS, July 28.—France, though outwardly more placid than yesterday is omitting no precautions. The army is being reorganized and assembled, while statesmen profess themselves as sanguine of a peaceful solution. War preparations today included orders to the cavalry to be ready for the field at the first signal, the heavy provisioning of the forts on the eastern frontier by special trains run out of Paris at night, and the mustering of all regiments to their full quota. Army To Be Reorganized. The Cabinet met at Rambouillet today and at the conclusion of its meeting announced the decision to reorganize the army, accompanying the announcement with the careful explanation that this action was occasioned by the resignation of General V. Michel as Commander-in-Chief because of differences with his colleagues over the program of national defenses. The Superior Council of War, composed of generals of the army, continues, but the vice-presidency, which was held by Michel, will be abolished. A chief of the general staff, carrying practically the supreme command in time of war is created instead, and General J. C. Joffre will be appointed to the latter post.

The Superior Council of National Defense, which is presided over by the Premier and composed of most of the ministers, remains, with the addition of a permanent bureau of study, composed of three officers, one each from the departments of war, marine and colonies. Other Changes Are Made. Many other changes have been decided upon, all designed to make sure a systematic machine, capable of instant and effective action in time of war.

It is understood Baron von Kiderlin-Waechter, the German Foreign Secretary, who is conducting the negotiations with Jules Cambon, the French Ambassador at Berlin, has modified his original program and is now asking for a partition of the whole coast of French Congo, but at the same time naming other conditions which France would find difficult, if not impossible, to accept.

RICH MAN IS CRAZED BY STATEMENT NO. 1

SALEM, Or., July 28.—Statement No. 1 dementia proved to be the undoing of Henry J. Miller, of Aurora, one of the wealthiest business of the Willamette Valley, who was committed to the state asylum for the insane today. This is the first instance that this species of insanity has developed, but, according to his friends who have known him for years, alienists should brand his insanity with no other name.

During the first campaign, when Statement No. 1 was originally heard of, Miller was a candidate for a seat in the House of Representatives in the Legislature. His whole activities were in the Statement No. 1 direction.

SOUVENIRS TAKEN TO COURT AS EVIDENCE

Justice of the Peace Samson has advised a suit of Block & Block, of Cincinnati, against R. G. Marchbank, of Estacada. Mr. Samson also has in his possession a large box of chinaware, which was the cause of the suit. The Estacada firm alleges that it had a verbal agreement with the Cincinnati concern to furnish it chinaware upon which was to be pictures of various buildings in Estacada. It is charged that the goods delivered did not contain the pictures. The firm desired the chinaware to sell as souvenirs, and alleges that without the pictures it is worthless for that purpose. Justice of the Peace Samson ordered his attorneys to submit briefs.
