MANY BIG LEAGUE MANAGERS TO GO

AX To Fall on No Fewer Than Seven This Season

CLARK GRIFFITH IS IN BAD.

Manager of Cincinnati Has the Material, but Could Not Make Team Pennant Contender—McAleer to Re-sign—Tenney to Get the Gate.

The remarkable shifting of managers in the major leagues two and three years ago is likely to be outdone at the end of the present season...

This is Jim McAleer's last season as a major league manager. Although he is drawing a princely salary in Washington and his contract does not expire until after the season of 1912, McAleer is disgusted over affairs in Washington and will get out.

Clark Griffith hasn't a chance to stick in Cincinnati the way things are going there. Griff registered a failure with the Reds, although he commands a team of individual stars...

Other managers who may be asked to move are Patsy Donovan of the Boston Americans, Bob Wallace of the St. Louis Browns, George Stovall of Cleveland, Fred Tenney, Boston Nationals, and possibly Bill Dahlen of Brooklyn.

As long as John I. Taylor owns the Red Sox John I. Taylor will be their manager. He may not hold the official title, but he is the boss.

Victor Wickland and brother are cutting grain for their neighbors. Mr. Shearer has begun cucumber picking. He is the only man near here who grows them for a Portland cannery.

Frank Haberlach has purchased a gasoline engine. He will irrigate his celery plants with water drawn up from the Clackamas river.

Anton Heinrich has bought an automobile. Mrs. G. Haberlach and her two daughters and grandchild spent a pleasant Sunday at Gladstone with Mrs. C. Parrish.

Mr. Daywat is building a barn. Fred Tenney's office in Boston are numbered. It is officially denied, but nevertheless it is a certainty that Johnny Kling has been promised the management of the Rustlers.

Harry Davis has been offered the management of the Cleveland team and probably will accept next winter. George Stovall, the present leader of the Naps, is willing to become a private again. Stovall's appointment to succeed McGuire has never been considered as anything but a temporary arrangement.

Bill Dahlen has had some hard luck in Brooklyn. This is his second year, and if the Dodgers fail to finish higher than seventh Dahlen may be asked to quit.

Cincinnati fans would like to see John Gangel back there, because they believe that John never was given a show in the year that he worried along with the Reds. Gangel has won two pennants at Rochester and has an excellent chance to capture a third.

Concerning Frank Chance, Hugh Jennings, John McGraw and Connie Mack, we venture the opinion that they will be found doing business at the same old stands in 1912, no matter who wins the world's championship next fall.

TOM SOPWITH, the young English aviator who recently came to America, has been doing some remarkable feats in his aeroplane. His reputation was made in England when he won a prize of $10,000 by making the longest flight from English soil across the channel to the continent.

He landed in Belgium, making his flight only two days before the date set for the closing of the competition. He afterward flew in his aeroplane to Windsor castle, where he was received by King George. He and his sister took luncheon with the English ruler and his family.

Sopwith has recently been flying around New York and has carried several passengers, notably Timothy L. Woodruff, former lieutenant governor of New York, and Mrs. Woodruff. He made several flights with Mrs. Woodruff, taking her long distances and to a considerable height.

CORRESPONDENCE REDLAND.

The binders can be heard every where and everybody is working early and late. Mr. Hingner is building a large barn. George Kernes is the carpenter.

N. S. Oldhauss is setting timbers for a barn on the D. H. Mosier place. Miss Margaret Bates has been hired to teach an eight months' term at school No. 10.

A. M. Kerchem is at home and is much improved in health. A large crowd attended the Sunday school picnic at Little Clear Creek.

The stork made a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Hinkles, July 29. The Redland brass band entertained a large crowd on Mr. and Mrs. Hollingworth's lawn Saturday night.

Rev. Smith, an evangelist, preached at the Methodist church Sunday and will preach again on the 13th and every two weeks until conference. Mr. Smith is a good talker. All are invited to hear him.

It is reported that George Kernes and family are going to Cook county this week. It is reported that the Edward Morgan place has been sold.

INJURY BY FIRE TO TIMBER IS SLIGHT

HOT WEATHER BRINGS HAZARDOUS CONDITIONS—PATROL IS ORGANIZED.

PORTLAND, July 28.—(Special).—Six arrests and convictions in Washington, several more in the other Northwestern states, and such decisive organized work on all fires by the several public and private agencies that little loss has been sustained, mark the opening of the 1911 forest fire season.

Reversing last year's experience, fires ferocious enough to be alarming began first in Oregon, where in Linn and Clackamas counties about $70,000 worth of logging equipment and the property of several settlers have been destroyed by slashing fires which were, however, soon brought under control by a large force employed by the Forest Service and by private companies.

Summarized, the reports show that the recent hot weather has brought hazardous conditions more suddenly than is generally realized and that from now on no fire is too insignificant to be dangerous.

A Warning Heeded. "I once heard your wife recite 'Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight,'" said the reminiscence friend.

"Yes," responded Mr. Meekton, with a smile of confident approval. "And I take notice that the curfew has gone out of business."—Washington Star.

SWIMMING BECOMES POPULAR PASTIME

Swimming and bathing have become a popular sport in Oregon City, and many of the young women have already learned the art of swimming.

There is no doubt that before the close of the season there will be many fancy swimmers and divers. Near the rapids on the West Side and opposite the mouth of the Clackamas river large crowds of men, women, girls and boys gather every evening for the "dip" in the Willamette river.

There are many good swimmers among the men, who look out after those who cannot swim. Life preservers are used by some of the young women, while water wings are used by others. On Sunday afternoon and evening one of the largest crowds of the season was at that point, and there also were many at Canemah enjoying bathing. At the latter place some of the girls have obtained a house, which is used for a dressing room, and on the opposite side of the river a dressing room has been constructed for the women.
