TO ORGANIZE BAND

The musicians of the city, who have been members of bands, are urged to meet with a committee of the Com-and at the last meeting L. E. Jones and M. D. Latourette were appointed a committee to look into the feasibility of the plan. There are at least thirty men in the city available for membership, and it is believed that in a short time after the organization the city would have one of the best bands in the state.

Reginald C. Vanderbilt Delights In Exhibiting at Horse Shows

EGINALD C. VANDERBILT, know to his friends as "Reggie," takes great delight in the fashionable horse shows held in and around New York, and he is often seen handling his own entries. He is a skilled horseman and has won numerous red and blue ribbons. The picture above was made at a borse show at Plainfield, N. J., and it shows the young millionaire in a characteristic attitude while holding the ribbons. Reginald Vanderbilt is the third son of Cornelius Vanderbilt, who was the eldest child of William H. Vanderbilt. Reginald was born in 1880 and was married to Miss Cathleen G. Neilson in 1903.
