CORRESPONDENCE

STONE.

Your scribble has been provoked considerably at the automobiles here, as they speed past our sanctum raising the dust "to beat the wind."

The Clear Creek Park is doing a lively business from Sunday morning until Sunday evening.

Judge Hayes, of Oregon City, in company with Oregon City friends, came out on Sunday by automobile, and enjoyed a rest in the beautiful grove.

While Oregon City is so near, and Portland much farther, the people of the latter place come out here in larger numbers than from Oregon City. Everyone coming to the park enjoy themselves. A platform has been built and many enjoy the dancing in the evening. Recently a party of young people went to the park, taking with them their supper.

There is considerable noise at the park on Sunday, and it is hoped by the people residing in that vicinity that this will decrease.

Potato digging on a small scale has started here. My better half wanted potatoes for dinner and the scribble set to work to gather some. One hill was dug, and 23 potatoes large enough to eat, and 18 smaller ones was the product of this hill. Now what do you think of that for old Clackamas County?

The editor is invited to the home of the correspondent to eat roasting ears, and see what Clackamas county can produce in the line of corn. It might be that the editor of the paper does not know what roasting ears are? We can soon show him if he comes this way.

The oil company has not struck oil yet, but everyone is interested in the "well" and asking "how about the oil well?" The answer is that the drillers are doing the best they can to strike oil, and it is hoped that it will be a gusher.

Services will be held on Sunday at the church at 11 o'clock and Bible study will be held at 10 o'clock. The services will be conducted by D. W. Summers and J. L. Mumpower. All are invited to attend.

CANBY.

Mrs. R. G. Wigle and baby, Dale, visited the former's parents in Portland the latter part of the week, returning home on Sunday.

Carried Bullet In Leg 35 Years. Now It Serves as a Watch Charm

D. R. JAMES ROBIE WOOD, who is still practicing medicine on Staten Island, one of the boroughs of New York city, is hale and hearty at the age of seventy-four, though he carries six scars received at the battle of Gettysburg. Dr. Wood was not in the ranks, but his work as surgeon took him into the thick of the fray, and he never considered danger when attending the wounded. One of his wounds Dr. Wood received at Gettysburg was made by an iron ball of the caliber type. It entered his knee and remained there for a third of a century. About fifteen years ago it began to pain him, and a surgeon removed it. Dr. Wood had it mounted, and he now uses it as a watch charm. It is clearly shown in the above picture. The bullet is about three-fourths of an inch in diameter. Dr. Wood is a native of Georgia, and his war experience was in the Confederate army as a member of a Georgia regiment at Gettysburg he was in A. P. Hill's corps.

Dover people are busy harvesting fall grain. Russel Frost returned to Portland Saturday.

JENNINGS LODGE.

The camp meeting now in session is being quite largely attended. About fifty tents are on the grounds besides the three cottages which are occupied by Rev. Myers and family, of Salem; Rev. Gueffroy and family are at Hazelwood Inn and Mr. and Mrs. Lucas are pleasantly located in their recently built rustic cottage. Rev. Culver has charge of the dining hall and is prepared to feed five hundred on the Sabbath day. The usual sun rise prayer meeting is held at 6:30 a. m. Friday evening Clarence True Wilson, of Portland, spoke on "World Wide Vision of the Temperance Cause."

Rev. Wilson spoke with great eloquence and power and we learned that the foreign countries have done more for prohibition than we have in America. Iceland taking the lead by having 87,000 population, has no saloons, and only one inmate in its jails during the past year; also has one of the best public school systems of the world. This is what prohibition has done for Iceland. On Sunday morning the presiding elder, of Portland District, Rev. H. E. Hornschub, spoke from Jer. 6:16. The tabernacle was very comfortably filled and many enjoyed the able discourse. In the afternoon at 2 p. m. Rev. Noah Shupp, of Tacoma, has returned to his home after a call on Lodge friends and also attended services at the camp meeting.

Mrs. Ricketts and family, of Portland, were over night visitors with her sister, Mrs. Grant Lewis.

Mrs. Anna Kruse, of Oregon City, was on Monday and was accompanied home by Miss Culver, daughter of Rev. F. W. Culver, of Portland.

Mrs. Ed. Roethe, who has been in California for some time, is much improved but expects to remain a few weeks longer since the climate seems so beneficial to her.

The Boy Scouts of the Congregational church, of Oregon City, who have been enjoying an outing near Oswego Lake, broke camp Tuesday. Master Shelby Shaver and Wendell Smith, of this place, report a delightful time. Among the Lodge folks who were their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Jacobs and little Dorothy, Mrs. Shaver, Mrs. Howard Smith, Misses Anna and Alice Hester and Beatrice Palmer, and Mr. Harold Smith.

Mrs. Geo. A. Shaver has returned from a fortnight's stay at Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Redmond and a party of friends will enjoy their vacation at Newport, going the latter part of the week.

Geo. Williams, recently from Missouri, purchased five acres at Covell and has just completed a five room cottage with all modern conveniences. The little child, Mr. Garle, two years of age, near Meldrum, was taken suddenly ill Wednesday evening. A physician was hastily summoned and at this writing is some improved.

Weather hot but good for haying and ripening of grain. Hay crop was very good.

A GRANDMOTHER may not be as spry as she used to be, but she is in close touch with her world for all that.

The telephone enables her to make as many calls as she pleases, and in all sorts of weather. Formal gatherings have their place, but it is the many little intimate visits over the telephone that keep people young and interested. Grandmother's telephone visits do not stop with her own town. The Long Distance Service of the Bell Telephone takes her to other towns, and allows relatives and friends to chat with her although hundreds of miles away.

Wild blackberries are ripe and large crowds are flocking to the burnt section looking for these delicious berries, which are quite plentiful this season.

Cherries are plentiful and the many housewives are very busy canning the royal cherry and other delicious fruits that grow so plentiful in this section.

L. Lemor, an extensive fruit grower of Hood River, was investigating the fruit section of the Sandy River Valley and expressed himself very much pleased with the future fruit growing prospects of Sandy and will buy a tract of land and establish a commercial orchard.

Howard Bros, who lately purchased through the Sandy Land Co., a fine farm, are planning a commercial orchard, one of the finest in the county. These men lately came from Michigan.

Charles Swartz has just completed a fine residence on a four-acre tract on Sandy bluff.

Mr. Wendland and Gus Ludwickson have each purchased four-acre tracts on Sandy bluff. Each will build a new home.

Charles Wilson, a Portland real estate man, will build a handsome summer home on his 10-acre tract. A. C. Sawmills is hauling lumber and doing the building.

P. R. Meinig will at once move the old hall and store building into town near his new store, now almost complete. The new building will be used as a modern department store while the old building will be used as a hall and warehouse.

Zeek Beer's bungalow, a fine residence, is complete and located on Center street.

T. D. Phelps is busy building an addition to his residence.

Gus Dahrens is building his residence and making many other improvements on his place.

Mr. Smith, who purchased two lots in Meinig's addition, is putting up a handsome residence.

Martin Mickelson's cottage is complete and painted—a splendid little home.

German Society's hall is complete and was dedicated Saturday evening, July 25. The affair was attended by a large crowd of German people.

Howard Bros, owners of Hood View orchards, are building a large barn and also remodeling their home.

Jarl & Co. are busy with a large crew building an up-to-date sawmill on their extensive timber holdings west of town. They will as soon as possible saw lumber.

A Meinig has his big new mill complete and ready to saw lumber.

Several saw mills have temporarily shut down but will resume business very soon.

Work on the Mt. Hood power house is going on day and night. The building is immense, built of concrete and steel; even all doors and window sashes and frames are steel. The two tunnels to receive the two big steel pipes, nine feet in diameter, are being put in place. These monster pipes will be run by electricity as soon as the power plant is done. Work is progressing rapidly on the tunnel through Backbone hill. This tunnel is 12x12 feet and 4200 feet long, through which the water of the Big Sandy will take through to the flume, thence to the big reservoir.

A new sawmill has been put in near Bull Run—25,000 feet capacity—by Mt. Hood Ry. Co.

The big excursion on the Mt. Hood line brought out over 2,000 people Monday and the woods for miles around Sandy were full of people.

Travel to the mountains is greater than ever before. Last Sunday over 100 autos passed through Sandy up to the numerous mountain resorts, among which were two large auto trucks especially fitted up for excursions, one carrying 45 passengers and their picnic outfits.

Sandy was considerably stirred by a robbery, when some thieves entered the saloon of Peter Dolzer and $35 was stolen. Several young men were arrested for the crime and trial set, but when time for trial the prosecutor failed to appear and the prisoners discharged, no one appealing against them.

Sandy had two weddings the past week. The contracting parties were Miss Emma Miller and Fred Holtz, and J. E. Pomeroy and a young lady from the East. Mrs. Pomeroy was given a grand tin can concert.
