

MORNING ENTERPRISE

WEEKLY ENTERPRISE ESTABLISHED 1866

VOL. 2—No. 32.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1911.

PER WEEK, 10 CENTS

"ROLL OF HONOR" CANDIDATES' GOAL

SPECIAL OFFER GIVES ALL CHANCE TO GO TO FRONT IN BIG CONTEST.

DIAMOND RINGS ARE ON DISPLAY

Contestants, Desiring to Hold Votes in Reserve, Should Turn In Subscriptions—Race Grows More Exciting.

The double vote offer that has been in effect for the past week, and additional special prizes that will be awarded to the two candidates who turn in the largest number of subscriptions between and including Thursday, August 4 and August 14, at 6 p. m., are causing no end of excitement among the candidates and their friends.

The diamond rings which are on exhibition at Burnmeister & Anderson's store are surely beauties. The candidates and friends of the candidates are requested to call and inspect these, and then decide if these prizes are worth an extra effort during the coming week. The candidates should not overlook the fact that they are entitled to double the number of votes that were given on subscriptions at the start of the contest.

This coming week should be the banner one of the contest; and candidates who do not take every advantage of this DOUBLE VOTE OFFER will have no one to blame but themselves.

While the special offer of two weeks ago was a good one this one is equally as good, taking into consideration the additional prizes.

Send in Subscriptions.

Almost daily a number of complaints are received at the Enterprise office from persons who subscribed, and as yet have not received the paper.

No doubt candidates are holding subscriptions which will be turned in later on. Contestants should turn them in as soon as possible and can retain the vote certificates if they desire to create a reserve force of votes that can be polled at any time before the close of the contest, but the subscription should be turned in at once.

The word of advice to the candidates now is, do not let up for a single moment until this special offer closes next Tuesday night, August 14, then you can take it easy the following week, but now is the time to create a reserve force of votes to hurl at your competitors on the last night of the contest, September 2, that will place your name at the top in your district and will win for you the grand upright Kimball Piano.

Chance For All.

Especially you who are at the bottom of the list; this is your opportunity. Laying aside the possibility of your overtaking the leader, your chances are as good if not better, to win one of the special prizes and at the same time acquire enough votes to place your name at the head of the list. Make a resolve right now to go after votes in earnest; your friends will help you if you show them you are going to make an effort. Now, while this special offer is in force, is your time to get busy. There is not a candidate in the contest but who could pile up enough votes between now and 6 p. m., August 14, to overtake the leader if she goes to work with a determination to win. See what you can do now while the double vote offer is in force, together with the special prizes (TWO GENTLE DIAMOND RINGS). Some contestants are going to be the victor; why not you?

The Contest Editor congratulates those who are in the lead, but at the same time warns you that others are in the race and on the closing night of the contest, September 2, unless you keep diligently after votes you will not occupy that position.

Get On "Roll of Honor."

We are going to publish the "Roll of Honor" after the extra special vote offer is abrogated. See that your name is included, by doing good work from now until 6 p. m., August 14. It will mean a whole lot to you, as your friends will know you are making an effort and consequently will rally to your support. "Unto him who hath shall be given." This holds good in a contest of this nature. If you demonstrate to your friends and acquaintances that you are in earnest and desire their assistance they will be only too glad to help you. But don't expect your friends to handle your campaign for you, they are busy no doubt; they will help by giving a subscription for the asking, which means VOTES FOR YOU and DOUBLE VOTES from now until 6 p. m., August 14.

SEE HERE

Seven acres, one-fourth mile from electric line, 4-room house, barn, chicken house, and yard, good well and fine spring, three and a half acres in garden, fruit and berries; good cow and chickens. ## THE OUTLET

PERPETRATED BY WALT McDUGALL

THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY.

Everybody has it easy except me! I'm the only one that has the rotten job in this bum dump, as far as I can see — The others get the corn, I get the cob!

Take it from me, I am the only one who hasn't time to even make a knock. I hustle till my work is really done while they sit round a-lookin' at the clock.

It gets my goat to see the easy snaps These simple boobies have somehow copped! I might have done as well perhaps — I believe, biggie, that clock has stopped!

I'm the only one that's workin', believe me! The only guy that HAS to grind all day; The others merely fuss from nine to three; Ain't one of them that really earns his pay!

It makes me so goldarnationed mad To see the way these other fellers shirk I'll have to quit and rest myself, biggie, Before I do another stroke o' work!

WIFE, SUING, SAYS HUSBAND STRUCK HER

Georgia H. Shepard has filed a suit for divorce against Fred D. Shepard to whom she was married in Portland on June 27, 1904. Mrs. Shepard alleges that her husband treated her cruelly. She says he is a man of violent and ungovernable temper, and is subject to sudden fits of rage upon the slightest provocation. He has cursed and abused her she says, and has called her vile names.

About August 15, 1910, she asserts, he attacked her with his fists, and at the same time swore at her and on July 1, 1911, while in the presence of others, he threatened to throw her into the road, which greatly embarrassed her.

Mrs. Shepard asks that she be allowed to resume her maiden name, Georgia H. Young. B. E. Leonard is representing her.

CATHOLIC KNIGHTS PICNIC.

Music and Addresses Features of Outing at Schnoor's Park.

The picnic given at Schnoor's Park at Willamette on Sunday by the Catholic Knights was a decided success. One of the features was the basket dinner. There were musical selections and addresses. The attendance was large and everyone had a good time.

COUNCIL TO OPEN BIDS FOR $21,000 BONDS

The City Council, at the meeting tomorrow night will open bids for $21,000 bonds for the improvement of streets. They will bear 6 per cent interest, payable semi-annually, and will be negotiable. The fact that they will have the city back of them makes the bonds a fine investment, and, it is believed, that the issue will be taken up by residents of the city. All bids received prior to 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will be considered. The denominations will be from $125 to $500, the majority of the latter sum.

Among the streets to be improved with the money obtained from the sale of the bonds are Twelfth, Center from Seventh to Ninth and Washington, from Second to Seventh. Bonds for the improvement of other streets will be issued in the near future. Heretofore Oregon City bonds have been in great demand, and many Eastern financial institutions have made bids for them. They are issued for ten years, but have been redeemed long before the time of expiration in the past. The excellent financial standing of the city has always caused an unusually big demand for the bonds, and it is thought that there will be the same demand for those for which bids will be opened tomorrow night. It is the desire to give Oregon City residents the preference in the disposal of the bonds.

LAFFERTY-APOLOGIZED AND BEGGED SILENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 7.—Copies of the letters written by Representative Lafferty, who formerly practiced before the Land office in Oregon City, to Miss Florence Kubel, and her father, S. J. Kubel and Kubel's letter to Lafferty were made public for the first time today.

The letter Lafferty wrote to the Washington schoolgirl three months ago reads as follows:

"House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.—Dear Miss Kubel: Your picture in the paper so impressed me, I hope I will get to meet you some time. Please overlook the unconventional nature of the request if you can. I enclose a card to the members family gallery, which I hope you will use if you ever have occasion to visit the House. I happen to be a bachelor without any family of my own. Very truly yours,

"A. W. LAFFERTY."

This letter is in Lafferty's own handwriting and he now admits its authorship. About a week after the letter was written, S. J. Kubel, father of the girl, called at Lafferty's office. In a statement today, Mr. Kubel said: "When I called at Lafferty's office and confronted him with his letter, he told me with much wringing of his hands and pleas for consideration that he did not write the letter, but that he knew it had been written by one of the young men in his office. He begged me to give the matter no publicity and told me what it would mean to his politically if the matter should be aired in the newspapers. He said he would write me a letter of apology, if I stayed in his office while he wrote."

In a letter to Lafferty Mr. Kubel said:

"There is just one point regarding which my mind is not entirely clear and that is just what satisfaction I will demand from you if the matter does become public property, but you can rest assured that if I deem further conference necessary, you need not call at either my house or my office. I will find you."

"In his letter of apology, which is contradicted by his former statement, Lafferty in part said:

"The letter which was sent from my office last Saturday to your daughter, Miss Florence Kubel, was not written with my knowledge or consent, but prepared by others in my office. When I learned that same had been sent, I regretted it very much, and would before this have taken steps to correct the matter if I could have thought of anything I could have done that would not have further embarrassed the young lady. It seems to me that I am the one that has gotten the worst of it by the letter having been sent. It casts reflection upon no one but myself. While I am the one that has suffered on account of it, I will gladly do all that I can to settle the matter, and if you will try to prevent any further publicity being given me in regards to it, you will do me a favor that will not be forgotten."

Judge Marries Couple.

Miss Ida Marion and W. M. Bishop, of Portland, were married by Judge J. U. Campbell Monday.

BIG ROAD MEETING TO BE HELD TODAY

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL WORK IN INTEREST OF CAPITAL HIGHWAY.

LARGE ATTENDANCE IS EXPECTED

Plan is To Have Two Thoroughfares Through Oregon City—Other Business Organizations Interested.

A big meeting will be held at the Commercial Club this afternoon in the interest of the proposed Capital Highway. The meeting will be called to order at 1:30 o'clock. Plans for the construction of the thoroughfare through this county will be discussed. The meeting was called originally to outline a campaign for having the boulevard on the East side of the Willamette River, but since the meeting at Salem, at which the Highway Commission proposed a loop system with roads on both sides of the river, all efforts will be directed toward having the work done as soon as possible. Plans also will be discussed for two routes—one on the hill and the other along Main street—in Oregon City. Secretary Latourette, of the Commercial Club, said last night that there would be a large attendance at the meeting today. Representatives from the following clubs are expected to attend.

Sellwood Board of Trade, Milwaukie Commercial Club, Oak Grove Commercial Club, Jennings Lodge Commercial Club, Gladstone Commercial Club, Commercial Club of Oregon City, New Era Community Club, Canby Commercial Club, Barlow Commercial Club, Aurora Commercial Club, Hubbard Commercial Club, Woodburn Commercial Club, Gervass Commercial Club, Brooks Commercial Club, Salem Commercial Club, Molalla Commercial Club, Oregon Good Roads Association, Portland Automobile Club.

COMPANY G IN CAMP.

Word was received late last night that Company G, O. N. G., had reached Columbia Beach where it will camp for two weeks. About fifty members of the company were able to go on the trip.

FALLS UNDER MOWER; STOCKING SAVES FOOT

D. M. Duvall, of Eldorado, was seriously injured at his home on Saturday while mowing hay. The horses driven by Mr. Duvall became frightened, and the reins caught in the harness. As Mr. Duvall tried to climb from the machine the horses started to run, and the blade came in contact with his foot. Had it not been for the heavy woolen stocking worn by him, which had become wrinkled, his foot would have been severed. A tendon was frightfully lacerated, and the foot was cut badly. The injured man called for help, and it was some time before the horses could be released from the harness and machinery. Mr. Duvall was thrown under the machine. He was brought to this city by Robert Schoenborn, and taken to the office of Drs. Carl and Meisner, where his injuries were attended to, and was later taken to the Wildwood Hospital.

Two Couples Granted Licenses.

The following were granted marriage licenses on Monday: Ida Marion and W. M. Bishop, of Portland; Maud Ryan and H. Saunders, of this city.

JOSEPH B. MURDOCK.

CHILD EIGHT YEARS OLD MAY BE TRUANT

County Superintendent of Schools Gary is in receipt of a copy of a letter from Attorney General Crawford to Superintendent of Public Instruction, Alderman, construing an important feature of the truancy law. Children from nine to fifteen years of age heretofore have been considered amenable to the law. The Attorney General, however, rules that the law applies to children who have passed their eighth birth anniversaries and that the "fifteenth year" is the year between the fourteenth and fifteenth anniversaries.

The letter follows: "Replying to yours of this date, requesting opinion of the expression 'between and including the ages of nine and fifteen years of age, as used in Section 1, Chapter 343, General Laws of 1911, I beg to say that said section reads down to and including the phrase quoted: 'Every parent, guardian, or other person, in the State of Oregon, having control or charge of any child or children between and including the ages of nine and fifteen years of age, shall be required to send such child or children to the public schools,' etc."

"This section is very poorly drawn, and the meaning is somewhat ambiguous, but the general rule of construction is that if the meaning can be deduced from the language of the act, it must be construed accordingly, and a child is nine years of age at the 'ninth anniversary of its birthday and is fifteen years of age at the fifteenth anniversary of its birthday. It must, also, be conceded that the ninth year is the year between the eighth and ninth anniversaries of the child's birth, and the fifteenth year is the year between the fourteenth and fifteenth anniversaries."

"Therefore, assuming that the words 'including the ages' is intended to include the ninth and fifteenth years (and the section must be so construed, else the use of those words would be surplusage), then the act would cover the time, from the eighth anniversary to the fifteenth anniversary of the child's birth, and such I am of the opinion is the proper construction of the act."

TOGO TOUCHED BY HEARTY WELCOME

HERO SAYS HONOR CONFERRED ON HIM INDICATES FEELING TOWARD JAPAN.

FIGHTER IS INTERESTED IN NAVY

Admiral Does Not Think Aeroplanes Will Be Effective in War—Banquets Do Not Interest Him.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—A brief speech, the first he has delivered in this country, was made by Admiral Count Togo before the National Press Club of Washington, tonight at the end of a strenuous day's program. Following his visit to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, the Japanese visitor was the guest of Senator Knox at a banquet at the Pan-American Union building. Later he attended a reception by the newspaper men.

The Admiral spoke in Japanese, his remarks being interpreted by Lieutenant-Commander Taniguchi, his naval aide. He said:

"Since my arrival in this country, the President of this great Republic has received me with the greatest honor and hospitality, your Government has extended to me innumerable courtesies, and your fellow citizens have given me the most hearty welcome."

"All these, I dare say, are more than I am entitled to, and I take them as meant toward my august sovereign and for his subjects. Nothing pleases me more than to take home the most happy remembrances of my visit to the United States."

"Gentlemen, may I ask to take this opportunity to convey to your countrymen, in behalf of myself, my feeling of profound gratitude and high appreciation of their hearty welcome?"

Receptions and banquets were not exactly inviting to the Japanese hero, who has passed most of his 67 years on the quarterdeck, and his visit to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis was much more to his liking.

The Admiral is to be shown everything possible connected with the Navy in his brief visit to this country, and most of tomorrow will be passed at the Washington Navy-yard. Through the Admiral does not believe aeroplanes will do much damage in war, nevertheless he is keenly interested in their development.

HILL MERCHANTS TO ASK FOR POLICEMAN

Announcement was made Monday that several business men of the hill section would attend the meeting of the City Council Wednesday night to ask that the appointment of a policeman for that part of the city be made permanent. One or two stores on the hill were robbed recently, and the demand for a policeman has become general. Several members of the council oppose the naming of a policeman on the ground that it would be an unnecessary expense. Mayor Brownell recently appointed Jack Frost to do duty in that section, subject to the action of the council. The matter was considered at the last meeting, but the vote was a tie. Messrs. Andresen and Holman were absent and Mr. Burke did not vote.

Maccabees Meet Tonight.
