DOUBLE VOTES TO REMAIN IN EFFECT UNTIL AUGUST 24, AT 6 P. M.

Rivalry is growing keener every moment in the Enterprise grand voting contest. Late entrants are forging to the front and it will require the best efforts of those who are now in the lead to retain that position.

The Contest Editor predicts many changes in the "Standing of Candidates" at the close of the extended "double vote" offer August 24. The leaders at the present likely as not will change places with those who, at this time, are not considered, by some, to be in the race.

Remember Aesop's fable of the Tortoise and the Hare. We all know that the hare could have won the race easily had not over confidence deprived him of his judgment.

Only two weeks remain in the close of the contest. The showing you make from now till the close of the extended "double vote" offer will go a long way to determine your chances to be the victor and every moment means opportunity neglected.

EQUINE FASHION NOTES. The Mid-Summer summer styles for classy horse circles are show in these plates. The dinky little lid with the ears protruding conspicuously has been superseded by these modern designs more in keeping with torrid weather. Certain effects have been adapted from the lines of human millinery which have been found to be more becoming to horses than to the women.
