Woman With a Revolver Proves Her Superiority to Men Rivals

Photos by American Press Association.

WOMAN has again proved her superiority to mere man and in a field that she seldom invades. She has shown a skill in shooting a revolver that trouseered marksmen could not equal. Mrs. Chapman, an English woman, recently took part in a revolver match in the county of Middlesex, England, and she won the medal offered by the National Revolver association. She was the only woman in the contest, and she had a score of masculine competitors. The picture shows her as she took aim at a target. The other picture is of W. O. Raven, the champion revolver shot of the world. He was not in the competition in which Mrs. Chapman won her laurels or the result might have been different.

THERE is a difference between fresh canned goods and old stock. Only the newest is the best—having that delicate natural flavor of the fruit or vegetables. Knowing this, we buy only from factories which can their goods immediately after they are picked or grown—factories which are known to work under conditions of perfect cleanliness.

You may rely absolutely on our goods. We keep a large variety rather than an extensive stock—constant renewal being our policy. Next time you use our canned goods note the fresh, natural taste—the character of them all.

Prices this week are reasonable—see the following:
