

Society Brand Clothes For Young Men and Men who stay Young

Alfred Decker & Cohn, of Chicago, makers of the famous SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES, were the originators of young men's clothes in Oregon. We were the first to introduce young men's clothes in Oregon City. Therefore, we had our choice of all young men's clothing houses. After careful consideration, we selected "SOCIETY BRAND" clothes, strictly on its merits, as the make-up and finish of "SOCIETY BRAND" clothes is far ahead of any other line.

We invite you to come in and inspect these beautiful suits, and you will agree with us, why you should wear clothes that are different from what you have been wearing.

CONTEST BALL TO BE BIG SOCIAL EVENT

The "Candidates' Ball" to be given in honor of the contestants in the Enterprise Grand Voting Contest, next Wednesday evening at Busch's Hall, will be the social function of the season.

The candidates have already issued more than 500 invitations and their friends are asking that invitations be issued to others who wish to attend. Farris' orchestra has been engaged for the evening and will furnish music for the congenial throng that will gather to do honor to the candidates in the greatest, and most successful voting contest ever conducted in Clackamas county.

No trouble or expense is being spared by the contest managers in planning for this, the greatest affair ever witnessed in the way of a ball in Oregon City. The hall will be elaborately decorated and it goes without saying that those who attend will enjoy themselves to the utmost. A banquet will be tendered the candidates at "The Falls" after the dance. Milton Price will be floor manager and a corps of assistants will be on hand to see that "the stranger within our gates" receives a welcome. Every one present will be a friend of a candidate and those who were fortunate enough to receive an invitation should not fail to be on hand as the contest management is going to do its utmost to further the enjoyment of candidates and their friends.

CLARENCE SIMMONS BUILDING FINE HOME

Clarence Simmons is erecting a beautiful home for himself and family at Gladstone. It will be completed about October 1. Mr. Simmons recently sold the house he is at present occupying. The house under construction will contain six rooms on the first floor, and a sleeping porch, and one bedroom on the second floor. The large fireplace in the living room will be one of the great comforts of this ideal residence. The living room, dining room and kitchen, the latter of which will have enclosed cabinets, are to be large. The living room will have enclosed bookcases, and the dining room a built-in buffet. The front porch will be a feature.

A. A. Blanchard has the contract for building a residence for J. C. Jubb, who recently arrived here from the East and purchased ten acres of the Ladd Tract at Mount Pleasant. This home, which has just been started, will be one of the most attractive in Mount Pleasant. The house will have seven rooms and all modern improvements.

GOVERNMENT SEEKS MEN STENOGRAPHERS

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that it has been unable to supply the demand for male stenographers and typewriters in the service of the government of the United States. Young men who are willing to accept an entrance salary of $180 to $200 a year have excellent opportunity for appointment and advancement. The government service offers a desirable field to bright and ambitious young men. Appointments in the field service are frequently made at $1,000 and $1,200 a year. Examinations will be held in September and October, 1911, and all qualified persons, male and female, are urged to apply for and enter the coming examinations. For application blank and full information address Herbert F. Ward, secretary, Eleventh Civil Service District, room 224, postoffice building, Seattle, Wash.

Beautiful Queen of Spain and Her Three Handsome Children

QUEEN VICTORIA of Spain, one of the handsomest of the royal women of Europe, and her three handsome children are shown above. Her eldest son, the Prince of Asturias and heir to the throne, is a fine, sturdy chap, but the second son, Prince Jaime, who is on her right, is not so fortunate. He was born July 22, 1908, and should have begun talking some time ago, but he has failed to develop speech, and now the doctors say that he is deaf. He is under the care of several experts, and the hope is held out that an operation will relieve him and cure his ailment. Princess Beatrice is a year and a day younger than Prince Jaime. Queen Victoria is a daughter of the youngest daughter of Queen Victoria of England.

RAMUSSEN TOYS WITH ROADSTERS

VANCOUVER, Aug. 19.—(Special).—Vancouver won a close game from the Roadsters today. The score was 3 to 2. Portland tied the score in the fourth and the "Nicks" had a chance, but it went glimmering in the sixth when the Vancouver boys took the lead. Ten hits were made off Bloomfield's delivery. Ramussen allowed only four safeties. Vancouver contributed an error.

The results Saturday follow: Pacific Coast—Portland 0, Los Angeles 6, game called account of rain; Oakland 8, Vernon 6; Sacramento 4, San Francisco 2. Northwestern League—Vancouver 3, Portland 2; Seattle 6, Victoria 2; Tacoma-Spokane game postponed on account of rain. EAGLES GATHER AT BAY CITY FOR AERIE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—(Special).—Golden Gate Aerio No. 61, of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at a routing meeting, the first held in the new Eagle Temple, Golden Gate avenue and Hyde street, unanimously endorsed the candidacy of J. J. Cusack, past president of the Aerio, for Grand Worthy President of the order. Many visiting delegates having votes to cast at the sessions of the Grand Aerio this week were present and spoke supporting Cusack, and fifty past presidents from various parts of the country expressed themselves as strongly favorable to placing the Grand Presidency of the order in San Francisco.

The vanguard of the army of Eagles that will be in the city from tomorrow to Sunday for the grand Aerio session of the order is already on the ground in the persons of Frank E. Hering, chairman of the Board of Grand Trustees and other grand officers including A. B. Duncan, grand chaplain, of St. Joseph, Miss.; Findlay McRae, grand treasurer of Helena, Mont.; E. D. Sanders, of Spokane, Wash.; Frank LeRoy, of Victoria, B. C.; and Leo Meyer, of Guthrie, Okla., grand trustees; Lincoln Davis, of Seattle, of the Judiciary Committee, chairman of the Committee on Grievance and Appeal, and E. Hirsch, of the press committee of the Grand Aerio.

The contest for the grand presidency of the order which will take place during the forthcoming sessions of the Grand Aerio in Eagles Hall is to be a lively one, as both candidates are capable men and have a large following. Frank E. Hering, who desires the office for the second time, is from South Bend, Ind., while Mr. Cusack is a native of San Francisco and holds a responsible position as assistant to the city treasurer.

"CY" YOUNG GOES WITH BOSTON TEAM

BOSTON, Aug. 19.—(Special).—That Cy Young, the veteran pitcher who was released by the Cleveland Americans a few days ago, will not retire from big league baseball yet was indicated today when it was announced that he would report to the Boston Nationals next Sunday. Young has been practicing daily and is in fine condition. He says he is still able to pitch big league ball.

At the Portland Theaters LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

Denton Vane with Max Figman at Heilig Theatre

Clever actor who is playing with the favorite comedian Max Figman at the Heilig Theatre, Portland. Mr. Figman will be seen in the comedy-drama, "Mary Jane's Pa" for 7 nights, beginning Sunday August 20. Matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

"MARY JANE'S PA." Third Week's Appearance at the Heilig Theatre. Max Figman's third week at the Heilig theatre will open tonight with "Mary Jane's Pa," which is perhaps the most pleasant character role. The bits of whimsical character seem to go well with the Figman temperament and perhaps the actor is right when he says his audience like him best "with a family." For three seasons Mr. Figman presented "Mary Jane's Pa," at high prices to crowded houses each time, and his presentation of it here in popular prices is an event not soon to be forgotten. The play is a great comedy, but not a farce. Hiram Perkins, leaves his wife and two children to make their own way in the world. His wife Portia, in sore straits, moves to Gossport and opens a printing office. She makes a good living for herself and "chicks," and has succeeded in making herself a powerful person among the village inhabitants. Rome Preston, Democratic nominee falls in love with her, and she champions his cause through her paper, and finally on the eye of her victory over her little world she is confronted by the return of her no-longer-needed husband, after an absence of eleven years. Miss Lollita Robertson as Portia Perkins, gives to the play a picture of dignified and ennobled womanhood. Miss Von Weltoff who plays Mary Jane is sweet and winsome, and lacks all the pertness and affectation that is so common among stage children. Mr. Figman succeeds in making the vagabond worthless bedraggled tramp husband a really lovable character, and still it rather hurts to concede that he is lovable. The press scene in the second act, which has become almost famous for its realism, and the ending scene of the last act, test the ability of both Mr. Figman and Miss Robertson to the utmost, but neither of them is found wanting. "Mary Jane's Pa" will continue for one entire week, with the Wednesday bargain matinee, and popular Saturday matinee.
