

HERE'S ONE THEY TELL ON JIMMY CALLAHAN.

Here is one they are telling on Jimmy Callahan, the Chicago American's outfielder, whose comeback has been one of the wonders of the baseball world: James was running a semi-professional team in Chicago and controlled a collection of planks and sod called by courtesy a ball park. One dark night a company of park hunting friends who wanted to pull off a benefit game for a wooden legged woman or tin eared orphans, drove up to Jimmy's residence and one of them went up to the door and punched the bell.

It was 1 a. m., and the maid was taking no chances on that door—in Chicago—at that time of night. Sticking her head out of an upper hall window of the Callahan mansion, she saluted the street fleet in the low necked cab with "What's wanted?"

"Is this where Mr. Callahan lives?" called one of the visitors. "Sure it be," responded the maid. "Bring 'im in—'im comin' down t' unlock th' dure."

BOBBY KEEFE HAS NO EXCUSE

When the Cincinnati Pitcher is Not in Form He Admits It.

Pitcher Bobby Keefe of the Cincinnati Reds is a nonalibi hurrier. Bob never has any excuses to make. If he is hit hard he admits that the opposing batsmen had their eye on the ball, although he is wild he admits it and makes no excuses. In one inning of a game he pitched the other day Keefe gave three men bases on balls and hit one man. The Reds had a pretty good lead, and Griff decided to leave him in and make him fight it out. Bob settled down. After the game some one asked Keefe why he was so wild in that inning.

"You saw why I was wild, didn't you?" answered Bobby in his characteristic fashion. "I couldn't get the ball over." And that was the only alibi Bob had to offer.

RALPH ROSE TO COMPETE.

Great Shot Putter to Get in Shape For Next Olympic.

Desirous of making the next American Olympic team, Ralph Rose, the champion shot putter at the various weights, is coming out of his shell to prepare for the iron sphere event in the 1912 Swedish games. The native son's determination to fight for a place on the big team no doubt will send a thrill into the other shot putters when they learn of this.

Rose holds all kinds of records in the shot put. He established the world's record with a put of 51 feet in San Francisco back in 1909. He won his event in the London Olympic games without the least bit of trouble.

The San Franciscan is credited with 67 feet 7 inches for the eight pound, 57 feet 3 inches for the twelve, 51 feet 6 1/2 inches for the fourteen, 43 feet 9 1/2 inches for the eighteen, 40 feet 3 1/2 inches for the twenty-one and 38 feet 2 1/2 inches for the twenty-four, besides his world's record put with the sixteen pound.

Kelly Wants to Defend Title. James F. Kelly, the New York policeman, world's champion handball player, is out with a challenge to any one.

The Marksman's Eye. Blue eyes prevail among marksmen of renown. The blue is said to be the strongest eye and gray next.

Coddle the Cows. Cows are tenderly cared for in Holland. They are blanketed in damp or cold weather in the pastures.

Gilded Pills. The Koreans love medicine. The rich take pills of incredible size and richly gilded.
