

Stories from Out of Town

EAGLE CREEK.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

STAFFORD.

Claus Peters got his thumb cut by the band cutter, while threshing. Ed. Sharp is suffering with a severe case of erysipelas on his head and face. Jim Turner, wife and little girls and the five months' old baby who only weighed two pounds at birth, have just come down from Turner, Wash., for a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives. The baby now weighs eleven pounds and is a bright, active little fellow, named for his grandpa, Tom Turner. The whole feminine population has been to see Mark's baby, a very pretty baby too. Mrs. Nemez was thrown from her buggy and her hip quite severely hurt when returning from a visit to Mr. Stangle's. Albert Turner had the misfortune to lose four stacks of grain which caught fire Thursday from the engine. He had already threshed 300 bushels at his barn and but just moved to the stacks. It is a great loss to a farmer, and all sympathize with him. Mrs. Prindle whose husband and herself took up a homestead and lived upon the place 17 years, which is now owned and occupied by Mr. Keller, has been visiting old friends and making new ones in the neighborhood the past week. Mrs. Olive Howton and children are spending the remaining days of vacation at Mr. Gage's. They are getting about over the mumps at Zack Elligsen's. The ladies gave Mrs. Nussbaum a birthday surprise party Thursday afternoon and had an enjoyable time. Men have hauled sand for the foundation of the new church. We are informed that school begins on the 18th of September. Mrs. Ruby Kollemeyer, nee Ruby Thompson, has a fine baby boy. There is sure going to be war in the Netherlands, as nearly all the new babies heard from are boys this year. Gus Gebhardt wife and son, Harry, are living in the small cottage recently acquired with the 20 acres of land purchased of Mr. Gage and has begun to dig a well. Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Ed. Sharp have the new carpets in use which the ladies, young and old, helped to make up by sewing carpet rags early in the summer. Hop pickers begin to journey by on their way to the hop fields. The fields about here will not be ready for perhaps a week yet and plenty of pickers. Arden Gage and his son, Will, made a trip from Sheridan to the old home on Sunday last returning at 5 P. M. in their Metz runabout.

COLTON.

Quite a number of people from here have left for the mountains to pick huckleberries and others are leaving for the hop yards. Mr. Carlson's daughter and little girl who have been out visiting her folks, returned to their home at Portland Friday. Mr. Montgomery is visiting his cousin, Walter Gerbert and family at Colton. Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. Lindstrom, a big girl Saturday. Dix & Freeman Threshing Company has started threshing. Mrs. E. Berglund and daughter, Ester, called on Mrs. A. Anderson last Sunday. W. E. Bonney and son, Archie, returned Saturday from Astoria, where they have been attending the fair. Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Dix, of Mulino, were visitors at the farmer's home at Colton Saturday and Sunday. Several big slashings have been burnt around here this week. Mat Kandle returned to Highland Monday from his ranch in the hills. Miss Hazel Freeman, of Elwood, left for Troutdale where she is attending a sister-in-law. Gus Gottburg, who was away with the threshing machine at Highland, was summoned home Tuesday on account of the death of his wife's mother, Mrs. Noyer, of Molalla. Charlie Swan is hauling shingles to the valley from W. E. Bonney's shingle mill. Birly Hall left for his home at Digk, Prairie last week. Willie Freeman, of Elwood, is staying with his grandpa, Mrs. Dix, while her son is away threshing. Ed. Hall made a business trip to Portland last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stromgreen were pleasantly surprised last week by a large number of their friends in honor of Mrs. Stromgreen's seventieth birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Stromgreen were some of the first settlers here and have seen hard and good times as a wilderness has grown into a somewhat big settlement. Mrs. Stromgreen has our best wishes for the future. May she have many more birthday anniversaries to celebrate. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in conversation, speaking by Rev. Reinhardt and singing. Delightful refreshments were served by the ladies and enjoyed by all. All report a delightful time. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. N. Hull, Rev. and Mrs. Reinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson, Mrs. A. Danielson, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. L. Elliott, Mrs. E. Berglund, Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. Jonas Peterson, Miss Fredenberg, Mrs. C. Stromgreen and daughters, and a number of others.

CHERRYVILLE.

Miss Lola Herald, who taught Cherryville school last year, will teach the coming season. It is expected that there will be about twice as many scholars, numbering thirty.

Mr. Frather has bought The Ware farm, so he will make his home here. We understand the consideration was $6,000. Professor Geo. Couper and Chas. Harris are helping Dr. Botkins build a new barn. Allen B. Brooks took a trip to Oregon City last week. Leo McCabe has accepted the position of sawyer with Firwood Lumber Company. Wm. Stone took a trip to Portland a few days ago and hauled out some pipe. He is going to pipe water from his spring to his house. Mrs. Clark Corey took a trip to Portland last week. L. F. Fride more spent a few days in Bull Run last week with his mother and Mrs. L. F. Fride more, her aunt and cousin took a trip to Astoria. Mr. Stevens, a druggist from Portland, and wife spent several days at Hotel Cherryville last week. Clair Corey has left for a trip to Portland and other points and expects to be gone about a week. Ray Murray and Wm. Allen were in Cherryville last week. Mrs. Wm. O. Rugh and family visited Mrs. Revenue of Sandy Sunday. Jerry Friel left for McIntyre's last week. Wm. O. Rugh and Earl Baker were cutting hay for Prof. Couper last week. Mrs. Shanks and her son were in Cherryville recently looking after their ranch. August Bodensteln and Mr. Shanks who have been working for Dave Douglas on Mt. Hood Road, spent a few days in Cherryville. The M. E. quarterly conference will meet at Cherryville M. E. church Sunday, Sept. 3rd, and a successor to Rev. Dr. Runyan, and District Supt. Moore will preside. Mr. Johnson, who drives the stage, has recently moved his family into the parsonage and left for Missouri last week to help settle up his father's estate and bring his mother to Cherryville. Fire Warden Ben Beach left for Firwood to fight fire which is burning in railroad timber and threatens Firwood lumber mill. They have telephoned to Portland for more men to come out and help fight fire. A party of twenty people, young and old, gathered at the home of Professor Geo. Couper last Saturday and a very enjoyable time was had. A bonfire was built, games were played, singing and refreshments served. Herbert Husock, of Portland, visited at the home of Mrs. J. T. Friel, Jr., last Sunday. Mrs. Whitmore, formerly Miss Florence Bickering, Cherryville school teacher, visited at the home of Mrs. Wm. O. Rugh a few days ago. Mrs. Childs has returned from a trip to Portland. Miss Constance Ewing, of Portland, a former Cherryville school teacher, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is rapidly recovering and was visiting Mrs. Wm. Rugh last week.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

Mr. Clark is out with his hay baler, baling straw for the farmers. Mrs. Lydia Woodie returned from Troutdale last Wednesday, and spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howlett, returning to her home in Estacada on Monday with Mr. Woodie. Dave Hoffmeister is working for H. S. Gibson. Myrtle Woodie came Monday evening to keep house a few days for her grandmother, Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and sons, Theodore and Chester, and Mrs. Henry Odell and children, Herbert and Alice, spent Sunday with James Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas went to the mountains Wednesday after huckleberries. R. B. Gibson sold a cow the other day.

L. Adams OREGON CITY'S Big Department Store THE NEW CROSETT SHOE FOR MEN, THE SHOE THAT MAKES LIFE'S WALK EASY, ALSO THE ABBOTT & SELZ.

The New Palmer Garment ..for Ladies.. Suits and coats now shown in our suit room for early Fall wear. Come in and see the new styles. New Creations in Mannish ..Suitsings.. Now shown in our dress goods department and Windows for Ladies Fall and Winter wear.

Men's, Young Men's and Boy's Clothing for Fall and winter now open for your inspection as to Styles, Quality, and price. We show a handsome line of School Suits for boys at very moderate prices. Our Fall Stock of Ladies and Men's high class dress shoes is far superior to any we have ever shown heretofore. We specialize in fine shoes.

Special Clearance Sale Shoes

In sorted stock of Ladies', Men's and Children's Shoes now on our tables. Remarkably low prices. Allow yourself the benefit of our low price Shoe Sale.

Corner Main and Seventh Streets, Oregon City, Oregon

If you have a natural foot, put it in a "Natural Shape" shoe. There's a Florsheim in our stock that will fit you fine—Step in and try it on any time. The sooner the better. The Apex Button A complete showing at $5. Some few styles $6. The Florsheim SHOE J. LEVITT Suspenson Bridge Cor. Oregon City

$10 REWARD For the arrest and conviction of any person or persons, who unlawfully remove copies of The Morning Enterprise from the premises of subscribers after paper has been placed there by carrier.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Ed Longe of Mulino, was in this city Friday. Fred Kamerath, of Shubel, was in this city Friday. Mrs. Jennie Hly, of Carus, was in this city Saturday. Mrs. J. P. Shaw, of Milwaukie, was in this city Saturday. John Mulvey, of Union Hall, was in this city Friday. Mrs. Kirtzberg, of Beaver Creek, was visiting in Oregon City Saturday. J. Herman, of Beaver Creek, transacted business in Oregon City Friday. Fred Steiner, of Beaver Creek, transacted business in this city Saturday. Mr. Fisher, one of the farmers living at Beaver Creek, was in this city Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Morey, of Molalla, were among the Oregon City visitors Saturday. Mr. Hughes, one of the old residents of Beaver Creek, was in this city Saturday. Mrs. Monroe Irish, of Union Hall, was transacting business in Oregon City Friday. Lee Jones and wife, of Carus, were among the Oregon City business visitors Saturday. Jack Irish, one of the prominent farmers of Carus, was in this city on business Saturday. Philip Lindan, one of the well-known farmers of Clarkes, was in this city on business Saturday. W. Miller, of Carus, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Weismandel, were in this city Saturday. W. Miller, of Carus, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Weismandel, were in this city Saturday. B. Noyer, of Meadowbrook, and daughter, Mrs. Frank Sesar, of Portland, were in this city Saturday. Threshing is almost finished on the West Side, and everyone is happy that the grain has turned out so well. Miss Vera Phillips, of Portland, is in this city visiting Mrs. Lowell Blanchard and other friends. Mrs. Clarence Farr and children, who have been rusticating at Seaside, returned Friday evening. Mrs. G. B. Dimick and Miss Jennie Schatz left Saturday morning for Newport, where they will remain for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, who have been visiting at Newport, where they spent two weeks, have returned to their home. Mrs. Hall, of the Cascade, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Robinson, has returned to her home after a most enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. J. Vatcher of this city, went to Vancouver, Wash., Friday, where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vatcher. Mrs. M. T. Mack and Mrs. J. J. Schmidt, of Canby, were in this city Saturday afternoon, returning to their homes on the evening train. Born, September 1, at Canby, to the wife of Clarence Fallows, an eight-pound son. Mrs. Fallows was formerly Miss Orsula Zec. Miss Jennie Paddock and Miss Nan Cochran will leave on the steamer Rose City on Tuesday morning for a trip to California, where they will spend several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Osborn and Mr. and Mrs. George Osborn, who have been enjoying camp life for the past month at Cannon Beach, have returned home. Dr. L. A. Morris, dentist, has returned from his vacation. Miss Susie Riker, who has been a guest of Rev. and Mrs. Clark, left on Friday evening for California, where she will visit before returning to her home in Michigan. Miss Mary A. Scott left Friday evening for Trout Lake, Wash., where she will commence her duties Monday morning as teacher of the primary grade of the Public school. Miss Laura Slinger, of Portland, is in this city visiting at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Clark, of this city. Mrs. J. P. Keating and two children, of Portland, are in this city visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davenport and two children returned from Seaside Friday evening. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Montour and William Cummings, who have been their guests for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Plimpton, Mrs. Uhlman and two children, Helen and Floyd, of Portland, passed through Oregon City Saturday on their way to Willhoit, where they will enjoy the mountain air for a week.

Mrs. Sarah Mellinger, of Morning Sun, Iowa, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Nora Carrico, went to Towney Saturday to visit the former's nephew, Frank Dellzell. Mrs. Mellinger is a sister of the late P. D. Curran. Miss Gertrude Fairclough and niece, Ellen Grace, after spending the past seven weeks with the former's brothers at Ogilvie Mountain, Minn., returned to Oregon City Friday morning, having a most delightful time. Many fish were caught while on this trip by the young ladies. Mrs. J. H. Walker and family, after spending the past three weeks at Cannon Beach, Or., returned to their home in this city last week. Mr. Walker spent two weeks with his family while they were camped at that resort, and returned last week. Miss Lena Chamberlain, who recently returned from Cannon Beach, where she has been spending a month with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Chamberlain, will leave next Sunday for her home in this city. She expects to remain for three months for the benefit of her health. Mrs. George Hall, of the West Side, gave a luncheon on Thursday to a few of her friends. It was a most enjoyable affair. Delicious peach ice cream was served, and the house was prettily decorated for this occasion. Those present were Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mrs. William Robinson, Mrs. Hall, of the Cascade. Judge Thomas F. Ryan, formerly of this city, but now of Salem, where he is chief clerk of the State Treasurer, will leave Sunday evening for Indianapolis, Ind., where he will attend the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F., he being the Grand Master. Before returning to Oregon Mr. Ryan will visit his father at Lowell, Mass. Mrs. J. W. Norris is recovering rapidly from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, and was able to enjoy a ride Saturday. The first place visited by Mrs. Norris since her return from the hospital, was the McLoughlin Park, in which she has taken such an active interest. The park is very attractive now with its different colored flowers, and Mrs. Norris is pleased with the manner in which the grounds and flowers have been cared for since her illness by Joseph Alldredge. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caulfield and family, who spent the past three weeks at Government Camp, near Mount Hood, have returned to Oregon City. Raymond and Wallace Caulfield ascended Mount Hood, as is their custom each year, the former making the ascent twice this year. Mr. Caulfield owns one acre at Government Camp. It is one of the most slightly locations in that section, commanding an excellent view of the mountain. A cottage was built on this place this summer by Elijah Coleman, contractor, and it is the intention of the Caulfield family to spend their summer vacations at that place hereafter. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Noble and two children will leave this evening for Melrose, Cal., where they have been called by the serious illness of the former's father, John W. Noble, who has been ill for the past six weeks with stomach trouble. Mr. Noble is well known in this city, having lived here for many years before going to California. He was one of the prominent educators of the county. Before returning to Oregon City, Mr. Noble and his family will visit his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Noble, at Riverside, Cal., who is a reporter on one of the leading dailies of that city. Fred Baker and Thomas Hanneberry, who have been at Table Rock for the past two weeks, returned home on Friday evening. Friends of the young men were greatly surprised when they returned with heavy growth of beards, and it was some time before the parents of the latter recognized their own sons. The boys report plenty of fish and game. One report and one skunk were among the game killed. The party reports having caught 1,500 fish but they had none on their return and no doubt they must have had immense appetites to "get away" with the deer and trout. Mrs. C. C. Myers and daughters, Misses Mable, Annie and Wilma, who have been spending the past month at Twin Falls, Idaho, guests of the former's son, Maurice Burdette and family, returned to Oregon City on Friday evening. They had a most enjoyable time while visiting in Idaho, but say there is no place like Oregon. Mrs. Myers is a native of this state, and her mother was one of the early Oregon pioneers, who came across the plains in 1852. While in Idaho she visited the monument that marks the old Oregon trail that her mother followed in the early days. Mrs. Myers and family also visited the Shoshone falls.

Remembrance. "Griggin is an old friend of yours, isn't he?" "Yes, I think so much of Griggin that I have his framed autograph hanging on the wall of my room. It's at the bottom of a promissory note for $40.80, still unpaid."—Chicago Tribune

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caulfield and family, who spent the past three weeks at Government Camp, near Mount Hood, have returned to Oregon City. Raymond and Wallace Caulfield ascended Mount Hood, as is their custom each year, the former making the ascent twice this year. Mr. Caulfield owns one acre at Government Camp. It is one of the most slightly locations in that section, commanding an excellent view of the mountain. A cottage was built on this place this summer by Elijah Coleman, contractor, and it is the intention of the Caulfield family to spend their summer vacations at that place hereafter. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Noble and two children will leave this evening for Melrose, Cal., where they have been called by the serious illness of the former's father, John W. Noble, who has been ill for the past six weeks with stomach trouble. Mr. Noble is well known in this city, having lived here for many years before going to California. He was one of the prominent educators of the county. Before returning to Oregon City, Mr. Noble and his family will visit his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Noble, at Riverside, Cal., who is a reporter on one of the leading dailies of that city. Fred Baker and Thomas Hanneberry