STAFFORD.

The Methodist church bell rings out loud and clear, and can be heard for miles around. Evergreen blackberries, of which there are no many near our village, are selling for 2 1/2 cents a pound at the canneries. The Mothers' Club of Corral Creek school, held a social at the home of Mrs. Wood, the teacher of the school on Friday afternoon, and spent a very enjoyable time. A dainty luncheon was served during the afternoon in the beautiful woods near the home. Music was rendered by several of the members and Mrs. Wood was made the recipient of a handkerchief souvenir. Those present upon this occasion were Mrs. Allison Baker, Mrs. Wilhelm, Miss Wilhelm, Mrs. Hayman, Mrs. Halley, Mrs. Chas. Egler, Mrs. Harry Say, Mrs. Wood, Margaret MacFeters, Mrs. Norman Say, Misses Clara Egler, Annie Egler, Baby Baker, Edna Baker, Esther Needles, Mrs. Malcolm Say and Dorothy Say. It rained gently a few little sprinkles here Saturday. Sunday a little more and Monday it got down to real rain and by Tuesday night nearly six inches had fallen, refreshing the thirsty earth, starting tall grass, but causing hop men to scan the heavens anxiously for signs of a permanent let-up. Farmers can plow early this fall, therefore we see again the truth of the old saying that "One man's loss is often another's gain." Mr. Aerial, who went to the old home at the foot of Mt. Adams for a two weeks' vacation, returned quite refreshed. Mrs. Nina Gage, who has been visiting relatives for the past month, came

FIRWOOD.

Considerable anxiety was expressed by the friends of Mrs. A. Malar last week when she was taken ill and Dr. Cooper, of Sandy, pronounced the case appendicitis and advised an operation taken at Portland in an auto and their old family physician consulted. He informed them there were no symptoms of the claim and advised a few days rest and quiet. The trouble was caused by remaining in the pond too long while bathing. Mrs. Malar returned home Saturday. Work on the government trail has been stopped and Ray Howe is again at home. Mrs. G. M. Howe has gone to St. Johns to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hyatt. Miss Alice Cooper visited Mrs. E. D. Hart several days last week. A new set of library books are expected soon. Mrs. A. Malar has charge of the library which is kept in the Firwood hall. Harvey Reddus and brother and Firwood passed through the mountains for a hunting trip. The fine rain this week has stopped the forest fires and laid the dust and refreshed things in general. E. D. Hart and L. Pridemore made a trip over the mountains to the falls of Salmon river last week, about ten miles above Weleches. They report the scenery in those parts as fine as rugged and many places almost impassable, having to climb in places with next to nothing to hold to they seem anxious to make another trip. They photographed eight falls and saw others they were unable to get. CLARKES. Grandma Bottemiller, left on Sunday for Oregon City to spend a few

MARQUAM.

Rain commenced falling here Sunday evening. About three-fourths of the threatened is finished in these parts. Hop picking has commenced in a few yards. Picking will generally commence about Sept. 10th or 11th if the weather permits. The rain will help out the late potatoes. Mrs. Tessa McPherson left last week for Condon, Gilliam County. to Mr. Cope's Thursday, intending to take the children home, but because weathered and had to stay for the clouds to roll by. There was a reunion at Ed. Shary's last Sunday of the Priester family to welcome Jim Turner and family. Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Shary were Misses and Emma Priester before marriage. A few ladies met in the grove during their work and lunch and talked over the organizing of a ladies society and were invited to meet at Mrs. Cope's house on the third Thursday of September to perfect the organization, decide upon a name, etc. All ladies, who wish, are invited to meet with us for mutual improvement, to promote a neighborly good feeling, sociability, etc. Remember, on the 12th of September. Not have been around looking for cows to buy. Mr. and Mrs. Huber went home on Sunday just in time to escape the rain. Campers are waiting to pick hops at many of the fields. Mr. Keller decided to remove the material from the land donated by Mrs. Brink for a church to another location beyond the school house, which action does not seem to meet with approval from a majority of those who had subscribed money and work towards the building of the edifice. Luckily Mrs. Brink had the seed drawn up as the land must revert to her. Some farmers always have a cow plant about the weather. A number of them in this vicinity say the present rain will spoil all the small potatoes. Mr. Woodruff, of King's Valley, is a Mullin visitor this week. Mr. Jones was having hay for Mr. Wallace and Mr. Smith last week. Everyone in and around Mullin is busy chopping before the rain and therefore are ready for it. Mr. and Mrs. Edith Howard are the happy parents of a baby boy, born September 1. Mr. Christensen and Mr. Asby harvested their crop of peaches last week. The crop was very light, but the peaches were fine. Charlie Nick Darnall has moved from his residence in Mullin and is preparing to build a new home on his property there. The rain has stopped work on the railroad but it will be resumed as soon as the weather will permit.

MULLINO. We are having some rain in this part of the country and those who have grain still in the stack are feeling a little blue over the situation. Henry Selmer has been quite sick but is reported some better at the present time. Mrs. Warner left for Eastern Oregon Tuesday. Her friends wish her a pleasant journey.
