MAINE LONG 'DRY' STATE VOTES 'WET'

RESULT CLOSE, BUT RETURNS INDICATE THAT PROHIBITION HAS LOST BY 1,400.

INTEREST KEEN THROUGHOUT STATE

Prayer Meetings Held In Many Churches And Both Sides Are Active In Getting Out Votes.

PORTLAND Me. Sept. 11.—Unofficial returns late tonight indicate that prohibition was voted out of the constitution of Maine today by a majority of about 1,400.

The returns in the special election on the question of repealing constitutional prohibition, from 697 out of 628 election districts in the state give: For repeal, 60,878; against, 59,563.

With the vote running this close, the result will not be known until every ballot is counted. Both the "wets," who have a lead in the late returns, and "drys" are sanguine tonight, one side predicting that prohibition will be repealed, the other declaring the law will remain. Interest over the result of the election is very keen.

Bath, the first place to count the vote in today's special election, favored repeal of the prohibitory law, 1128 to 463. In 1884 Bath voted for prohibition, 920 to 414.

Weather throughout the state was clear—ideal for an election. The morning vote in the cities was even larger than was anticipated and in many places fully one-third of the entire vote was cast by noon. In the manufacturing centers the heaviest vote was deposited during the noon hour.

Both sides worked hard to get out the early vote and automobiles and carriages of every description, were pressed into services to carry invalids and indifferent voters to the polls.

Prayer meetings were held throughout the day in many churches.

If the license advocates are successful three is said to be every possibility that Governor Plaisted may be prevailed to call a special session of the Legislature to take action on the repeal of the statute law, which is in effect the same as the constitutional amendment and the enactment of another law for the regulation of the liquor business.

A local option law such as prevails in Massachusetts is what the license advocates seek. In the regular course of events the matter would not come up before the Legislature until January, 1915, when the completion of the state government might be much different from that of the present day.

ROADSTERS HOLD SEATTLE SCORELESS

SEATTLE, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Garrett was in fine form today, allowing the local team only two hits. Portland won 7 to 0. Zacher also pitched well, but his teammates accorded him poor support. Six hits were made off his delivery. Portland scored 1 in the fourth, 2 in the sixth, 1 in the seventh and three in the ninth. The Roadsters made 3 errors and Seattle 2, but the poor playing in the field of the home team is not fully reflected in the error column.

The results Monday follow: Pacific Coast League. No games scheduled.

Northwestern League. Portland 7, Seattle 0. Vancouver 8, Tacoma 5. Victoria-Spokane game postponed, latter having failed to arrive.

American League. Philadelphia 12, New York 5. Chicago 7, St. Louis 6. Washington 7, Boston 1. Cleveland and Detroit, not scheduled.

National League. Chicago 2, Cincinnati 0. Philadelphia 3, Brooklyn 1. New York-Boston game postponed, rain.

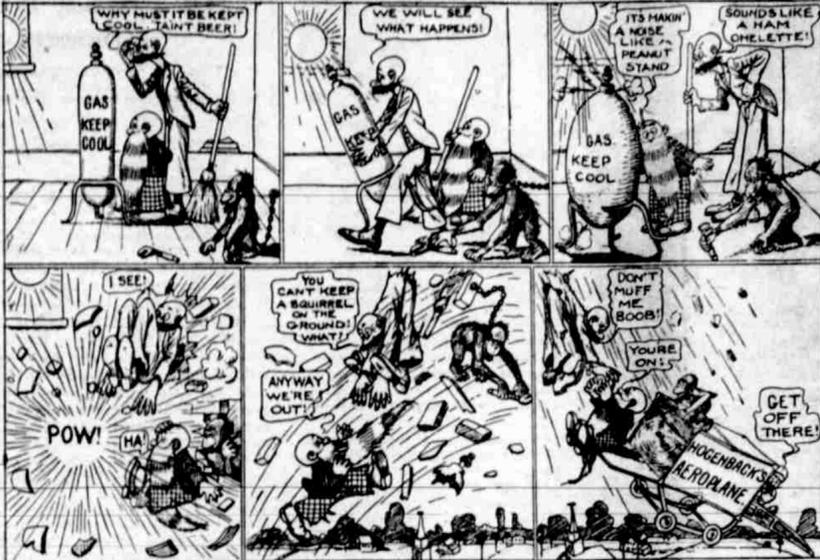

Pittsburg and St. Louis not scheduled.

THE OUTLET

PERPETRATED BY WALT McDUGALL

GINK AND BOOB THEY'RE OUT AGAIN! WHEE! A SUMMER SUIT.

Benny Bleat had but one suit When he went to the shore But that one surely was a beauty; No man could wish for more. He worked that suit to beat the band, In fact, it got no rest - And meanwhile, you may understand, Another suit he pressed. For Benny Bleat had always heard That summer girls were fickle And that their solemn plighted word Was scarcely worth a nickel.

So Benny got right on the job In sunshine and in moonlight dim And he made love to every squab - For all looked pretty good to him. He courted every girl he met Upon the warm, wet strand, Declared she was his one best bet And asked her for her hand. Thus for two weeks he played the game The gay, unfeeling brute! To find, when cool September came, Hed got another suit!

IT WAS A BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT!

BOND ISSUE TO EQUIP RAILROAD

CLACKAMAS SOUTHERN STOCK-HOLDERS WILL HOLD BIG MEETING TODAY.

$350,000 TO BE RAISED AT ONCE

More Than Five Miles Grading Has Been Completed And Work On Trestles Will Be Started Next Week.

The stockholders of the Clackamas Southern Railroad will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Commercial Club to authorize a bond issue for buying rails and equipment for the road. The issue is not to exceed $10,000 a mile or $350,000. The Merchants' Saving & Trust Company, of Portland, has been appointed trustee, and will have charge of the issuance of the bonds.

More than five miles of the grading on the road has been completed and the building of the trestles at Fifteenth and Washington streets, this city, and at Newell Creek will be begun within a week. These will be the only trestles on the road. At all other places where there were depressions fills were made. The length of the road is thirty-five miles and it is thought, that the track will be laid to Beaver Creek by Christ-

Announcement has been made that the price of the stock will be raised to par, $100 a share, next Friday. It has been selling for $50, and persons who are desirous of becoming stockholders, should subscribe at once. A sufficient amount of money is in the treasury to complete the grading and build the bridges to Molalla. Twenty carloads of ties have been purchased and will be shipped from Barlow in a few days. It is estimated that these ties will be ample for five miles of the road.

GRANDMOTHER OF TWINS AT 29 YEARS

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—A grandmother of two children at the age of twenty-nine and of three at thirty years, is the record of Mrs. E. W. Bender, of this city. It is claimed Mrs. Bender is the youngest grandmother on record. Mrs. Bender, who is 31 years old, was married to E. W. Moore, at Columbia, S. C., in 1892. She was only thirteen years and three months old when her first child was born. In 1909, to Edward Sinclair, and in January, 1910, gave birth to twins, the mother being barely sixteen, and the grandmother not yet thirty. In January of this year, Mrs. Bender's daughter gave birth to another child. Mr. Moore died when Mrs. Sinclair was an infant. Later his widow married E. W. Bender.

MAN, GIRL ACCUSES, HAS HEARING TODAY

A. A. Armstrong, a mill worker, arrested at Ellwood by Constable Brown, on a charge preferred by the mother of an eleven-year-old girl, will be given a hearing in Justice of the Peace Samson's Court at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Armstrong is held in $1,500 bail. The complaining witness is Mrs. Cook, who lives near Carus.

BOYS CHARGED WITH THEFT OF FISH POLE

Collis Lunagren and Frank McKinnis, both about thirteen years of age, were arrested Monday evening by Constable Brown on a charge of stealing a fishing pole and reel from A. Bell. The boys will be given a hearing by County Judge Beatle this morning. Bell says the pole was taken from the Seventh street dock where he was fishing. He was told that Lunagren and McKinnis had taken it, and he reported the matter to Mr. Brown, who found the boys at their homes. They were told to report to Judge Beatle this morning.

SAYS SMALL BONNETS MAKE GIRLS SUCCEED

BOSTON, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Fashion's tendency during the last few years toward smaller hats for women has resulted in a distinct improvement in the condition of the sex, according to Dr. George W. Galvin, head of the emergency hospital here. "Many women wonder how it is they find themselves able to do work which a few years ago they wouldn't have dreamed of attempting," says Dr. Galvin. "Should they desire to know the reason they need but think of the decrease in the size and weight of their hats, and they have the answer to their question. Wellesley and Radcliffe girls are every year gaining in their classroom averages and are gradually surpassing young men in their studies. It is a significant fact that most college girls wear no hats at all."

Convicts Allowed to Gamble.

CARSON CITY, Nev., Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Warden Baker of the State Penitentiary has turned the prison into a small gambling establishment. "To divert their minds, and end their worries," is the warden's explanation. Faro and roulette are the favorite games, but chuck-a-luck, Klondyke poker, fan-tan and bridge, have their devotees. Every game is on the level; no credit is extended; pickpockets and robbers are barred from exercising their calling.

THEATRE BLAMED BY WIFE, SUING

MRS. ANNA WHITTIER SAYS HUSBAND SPENT TIME AT VAUDEVILLE HOUSES.

SWIMMING ONE OF HIS PLEASURES

Plaintiff Declares That She And Children Were Compelled to Eat Dry Bread Intended For Chickens.

Alleging that her husband allowed her and her children "to live without the necessary comforts of life, and upon several occasions neighbors of plaintiff and defendant gave this plaintiff dry bread, presumably for plaintiff's chickens, and that she was compelled to pick out the best of said bread for herself and children," Mrs. Anna B. Whittier Monday, through Attorneys Dimick and Dimick, filed suit for divorce from Fred V. Whittier, a well-known resident of Oswego. She further charges that her husband has treated her cruelly in other ways, has regarded her as a servant, and from February to June, 1909, refused to speak to her except in a harsh manner and by cursing and swearing at her.

SAYS SMALL BONNETS MAKE GIRLS SUCCEED

The plaintiff avers that her husband is indolent, has refused to work, although it was offered him, and has spent much of his time in a swimming hole in the river at Oswego, and in attending vaudeville shows. She declares she was compelled to go to work in a shirt factory in Portland and do washing and ironing to support herself and children.

4 ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Constable Brown, Monday, arrested Herman Henry and Charles Pipke and Frank Clark on a complaint charging them with attempting to kill Charles Hainz, of Mount Pleasant. The alleged attack is said to have occurred August 30, when the men charged with the attack worked for Hainz. They will be given a hearing in Justice of the Peace Samson's court at 10 o'clock this morning.

CHRIST CAME TO HELP AND SAVE

REV. E. F. ZIMMERMAN GIVES FINE ANALYSIS OF WORK OF JESUS.

WEALTH OFTEN RETARDS SALVATION

Minister Draws Beautiful Lesson From Some of The "Comes" of Saviour, and What He Accomplished.

The Rev. E. F. Zimmerman, pastor of the Methodist church, preached an interesting sermon Sunday morning on "Some Great 'Comes' of Christ." He said in part:

When our Saviour left his home in Nazareth of Galilee to enter upon His public ministry, He no doubt saw much in the world and the lives of men, which grieved and shocked Him, and which deserved condemnation, but very early in that ministry he taught us that His mission on the earth at that time was not one of judgment and condemnation, but of invitation and salvation. To Nicodemus the Pharisee He said: "God sent not His son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world, through Him, might be saved."

We are taught that after His ministry of intercession He will come to the world on a mission of judgment and His word to some at that time will be "Depart ye cursed," but as He went forward in His public ministry from His baptism in the Jordan, His attitude toward man was that of invitation and not of repulsion. The word "Come," often fell from his lips, and that is the word He puts into the mouth of His ambassador today. The presence of Jesus has been transferred from earth to Heaven, but He is still an interceding Saviour. It is written in the Epistle to the Hebrews that He ever lives to make intercession for us.

I wish to remind you at this time of just a few of the "Comes" with which Christ called to men. The first we will call the "Resurrection Come"—the "Come" that He spoke before the tomb of Lazarus—the "Come" that a man who traveled for four days in the land of death heard and came back to earth again. Lazarus was a man whom Christ loved. When Lazarus fell ill his friends sent for Christ immediately, but Christ was a long way off. He did not reach the home of Lazarus until four days after death had prevailed over the body of the sick man. When Christ knew the grief of the family, He wept with them. Then He asked them to lead Him to the tomb, and when the stone obstruction had been removed from the door, He cried with a loud voice, saying, "Lazarus, come forth," and he who was dead heard and came forth. This resurrection "Come" is one of the biggest and strongest words in the New Testament.

Another "Come" to which I would have you listen this time is the one found in John 7:37. On the last, and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me and drink." This "Come" is a come of refreshment.

In several places in the Bible water is held up as a symbol or emblem of salvation and the blessing of salvation. We are told that when the heirs of salvation shall gather upon the planes of light to possess the inheritance prepared from the foundation of the world, that the lamb that is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them and lead them unto living fountains of water, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. And from beneath the throne of God we are told that there flows a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal. This river is symbolical of the Holy Spirit and the work He accomplishes among men. The life of the believer is the channel through which this river flows for the refreshment of the world.

Another "Come" of great interest is a "come" with a "go" in front of it, found in Matt. 19:21. A young Jew rich and influential and living a soft luxurious life, came to Christ to inquire the way to Eternal Life. Christ told him to "go" and dispose of his wealth for the benefit of humanity, and then come and follow him and he would find what he was looking for. But the young fellow thought more of his gold than he did of his soul. He came and went sorrowfully away. The world, with its wealth and its pleasures, often comes between men and God. Men must go and get right with their neighbor before they can possess the blessings of God.

Another come of great comfort is found in Matt. 1:28, where Christ says, "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." This is a call which appeals to all men because all men are weary at time and need rest, and men find rest in Christ by taking his yoke upon them and learning of Him.

JOHNSON HAS TROUBLE TAKING OFF FLESH

PARIS, Sept. 11.—Jack Johnson is having hard work to conceal from the public the fact that he is having difficulty in getting into condition for his battle with Bombardier Wells in London, October 2. Fond of being photographed at any and all times, Johnson absolutely refuses to have his pictures taken in fighting kit. He is hog fat, especially about the stomach, but files into a rage if the fact is mentioned.

MOHAMMED ALI MIRZA.

Deposed Shah of Persia, Who Seeks to Regain His Throne.

CLACKAMAS EXHIBIT STATE FAIR FEATURE

SALEM, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—The Clackamas County exhibit is one of the features of the State Fair, which opened today. It is freely predicted that the exhibit will win first prize in the competition of counties. Today was "Pioneer Day." People from the country, who know what it should be, said they were "terribly pleased." Hundreds of old pioneers who have attended the annual state fair, for years, say the exhibition is larger and better than ever before.

There were men on the Fair Grounds today who resided in Oregon long before the State Fair was thought of. They have seen the annual exhibition grow from year to year, from what was at first a display of a few pumpkins, range steers and trotting "hosses" hitched to buckboards, to the present-day exhibition with its pure blood stock, farm produce of unsurpassed quality and 100 head of the finest race horses ever shown on the Pacific Coast. Aged men and women for whom this day was set aside by the State Board of Agriculture take pride in recognizing this honor and pioneers from 300 miles away are in attendance today.

HUSBAND, FINED, WILL LEAVE STATE

George Cline, who lives near New Era, was fined $20 by Justice of the Peace Samson Monday on complaints charging assault, sworn out by his wife, and her sister, Mrs. C. A. Chatfield, of Spokane. Mrs. Chatfield went to her sister's home last week for a visit of several days. It was alleged that the trouble started over Cline spanking her baby after it had fallen in the mud. The defendant denied that he had struck the women. After the imposition of the fine, Cline declared, although he had come here to live, he would leave the state at once. Mrs. Cline said she would take action to prevent her husband selling their farm until she was assured she would get the part allowed her by law.

EDITH FREESE HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. F. C. Freese entertained ten young friends in honor of her daughter Edith's tenth birthday Saturday. Games were played and the first prize, a book, was won by Vera Howell, while the consolation prize went to Edith Freese. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room which was decorated in pastels and asters. Those present were, Vera Howell, Gladys January, Hilda Myers, Elma Lisberg, May Lowe, Helen Soreghan, Edith D. Freese, Clarice Simmons, Catherine Freese and Billy Simmons.

FIELDER JONES PICKED AS LEADER OF LEAGUE

SEATTLE, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—There is a possibility that Fielder Jones, the old leader of the Chicago White Sox, will head the Northwestern league next year. Jones has already signified his willingness to accept, and it is virtually certain that Judge Lindsey will not be re-elected for the coming season.

FOR SALE—Helder Patent, three-horse wagon evened; new; whole-sale price $4.75. Will sell for $3.50. It is a rare bargain. Oregon Commission Company.

EAST SIDE PICKED FOR BIG HIGHWAY

BOARD DECIDES ROUTE OFFERS MORE ADVANTAGES THAN OTHER ONE CONSIDERED.

ASSOCIATION TO MEET TOMORROW

Plan of Raising Money For Building Boulevard and Other Preliminary Arrangements Will Be Given Attention.

The East Side Capital Highway Association will meet at the Commercial Club tomorrow evening to make arrangements for raising the money to build the Capital Highway through Clackamas county. Other preliminary matters also will be given attention.

Because of the many advantages offered the Capital Highway Commission, appointed by Governor West, has definitely decided upon the East Side route for the highway. This route is five miles shorter than the one on the West Side, and much more money has been promised by the residents for the work.

The commission has announced that materials will be assembled during the winter, so that work on the road will be prosecuted vigorously in the spring.

In a general way, the road will go through Oregon City, Canby, New Era and Barlow county, and through Aurora, Brooks, Gervais and Woodburn, to Salem. The road will follow the old stage route.

This announcement comes following a long, but hotly-waged, campaign through the various cities and road district which are interested. The commission will also make recommendation to the governor that he be used on the work on the Rex-Tigardville section of road which is being constructed on the West Side. The appropriation by the Marion County Court of half the cost of a bridge across the Willamette at Newberg is another impetus toward road-building between Portland and Salem.

"Every road district affected by the proposed road has given a promise to make a tax levy for the construction work, and with these promises besides the offer of voluntary subscriptions, the road will surely go through next summer," said Chairman Rodgers.

M'LOUGHLIN SCHOOL HAS BIG ATTENDANCE

The fall term of the McLaughlin Institute was opened Monday with the of the largest attendances in the history of the school. About 100 children were enrolled, and it is expected that this number will be largely augmented in two or three weeks. Many of those who will attend are hopelessly behind. The course comprises eight years in the grammar grades and two years in high school. Eight teachers are employed, six of whom are sisters. Father Hillebrand has charge of the school, the Sister Superior being director of the studies.

SIDEWALK DELAY DUE TO LACK OF LUMBER

Regarding the petition that is being circulated for signatures to the City Council that work on the sidewalk on Singer Hill be pushed to completion, Councilman Burke, chairman of the Committee on Streets, said Monday the delay had been caused by a failure to obtain lumber. "It is the intention to finish the sidewalk as soon as possible," said Mr. Burke. "When the lumber is obtained fifty men will be put to work, if necessary. The contractor is just as anxious as the council to complete the sidewalk, but it has been impossible, owing to the conditions of the roads, to get the lumber. It was ordered more than two weeks ago, and it is being laid as fast as it arrives."

THIESSEN DIVORCE SUIT BEING HEARD

The divorce suit of George W. Thieszen against Emma Thieszen, former resident of Sellwood, was called for trial before Judge Campbell Monday. All the direct evidence was heard and the rebuttal testimony will be given Wednesday. Mrs. Thieszen, in a cross complaint, alleges that her husband compelled her and her baby to move from Sellwood and live in a granary on his father's farm near Concord. She asserts that she became ill, and after treatment at a hospital, her husband told her not to return to their home. She did, however, and she avers that when she asked for food he brought her a small piece of bread, and ridiculed her before his brother. Brownell and Stone represent the plaintiff and Dimick and Dimick the defendant. Both husband and wife want the custody of their child.
