QUEENSBURY LANDS JOB.

The Marquis of Queensbury has had more luck than he perhaps expected when he came to this country in search of a job. Things are not as rosy as they once were for titled folks on the other side and Queensbury, long on title and short on purse, found it necessary to be up and doing in order to have the ghost walk. There isn't much a marquis can do across the big pond and so Queensbury elected to come here and take a chance in the game.

Hardly had he landed when an enterprising Western newspaper offered him a job as a writer on sporting matter, and Queensbury promptly accepted the job. The paper gets good advertising and the marquis gets good pay, so it is a good thing all around.

Queensbury is a first class authority on sporting topics and should make good in his new position. Because of the spirit he has shown let us hope that he does.

Oklahoma reports a bumper crop of broom corn, but the feather duster will continue to do business at the old stand.

Perhaps if Mr. Bryan had his way Congress would investigate the crimes of '96, '00 and '08.

The Boston Globe hits the nail on the head by calling it "yellow-Astor journalism."

The tariff is to be an issue in the campaign of 1912, they tell us. Just as if any one can remember when it wasn't.

The Kaiser isn't looking for war but he is ready for it if France sends it along his way.

Greeks and Lightning. Skins of seals and hyenas were believed by the Greeks to be effective protections against lightning.

"What are the wild wares saying?" softly murmured the emotional woman as she stood on the silver lining of the mighty main.

"Nothing, Maria," replied the man hoarsely. "They are like some people we know—they make a great deal of noise, but don't say anything."—London Tit-Bits.

EDUCATION.

We all have two educations—one from others and another, and the more valuable, which we give ourselves. It is this last which fixes our grade in society and eventually our actual condition in this life and the color of our fate hereafter. All the professors and teachers in the world cannot make you a wise or good man without your own cooperation, and if such you are determined to be the want of them will not prevail.—John Randolph.

THE IDEAL.

The ideal is in thyself. The impediment, too, is in thyself. The condition is but the stuff thou art to shape that same ideal out of. What matters whether such stuff be of this sort or that, so the form thou givest it be heroic, be poetic?—Carlyle.

New Head of the G. A. R. Was With Sherman on His March to the Sea

JUDGE HARVEY M. TRIMBLE of Princeton, Ill., who was elected commander in chief of the G. A. R. at the forty-fifth annual encampment held at Rochester, N. Y., is one of the best known of living Grand Army men. Born in Ohio, he has lived in Illinois since 1843. He was a student at Eureka college when he enlisted for the civil war in the Ninety-third Illinois volunteers. He was promoted to the position of sergeant major and in 1864 to adjutant. Except for a period of fourteen days when he was a prisoner of war, he participated in every movement of his regiment, including the Mississippi campaign, the Yazoo Pass expedition, Chattanooga, Atlanta, Missionary Ridge, the march to the sea, the Carolina campaign and finally the grand review at Washington. The regiment lost 418 men in killed and wounded. Judge Trimble has been department commander in Illinois and was president of the Vicksburg park commission. Following his admission to the bar in 1867 he practiced law and served his county and district as county and circuit judge. Judge Trimble favors the Sherman pension bill, which Democratic Leader Underwood has promised congress will pass at the coming session.

FIGHT ON STORAGE EGGS HAVING EFFECT

While the situation has been very much improved since the state officials began to worry violators of the pure food law who sold storage eggs as fresh stock, there is still considerable trouble with substitution in the Portland trade. Local eggs are so much better than can be possibly offered by storage operators that purchasers soon distinguish the difference and therefore the number of complaints regarding poor quality is increasing.

The situation has become so bad that several of the leading handlers of eggs along Front street, Portland, have quit the sale of the ice house stock altogether and will hereafter offer only the guaranteed local stock. One Front street house, which is closely allied with an Eastern ice house importer, is still trying to manipulate the market so that the Eastern can take the place of the local stock. However, Eastern stock is not giving satisfaction except to the cheaper buyers.

COLLEGE BLOUSE.

Just What's Needed For Athletic Sports.

NEW DESIGN IN BLOUSE.

At all times of the year the college girl needs a supply of shirt waists or blouses for the different sports she particularly elects. The model pictured is a smart little affair just built for her requirements. Carried out in a daintily striped flannel or in some serviceable wash material it is stunning.

Harmful Styles in Woman's Dress.

The following extract is clipped from a recent editorial in the Ladies' Home Journal, and "pity 'tis true": That men's position of deference toward women is changing admits of no question. It is noticeable on every hand. But let women quietly ponder and ask "Why is it?" and they will find that the insidious loss of respect is based on the little things that men have always associated with them and that women are losing sight of—the feminine foolishnesses that are sadly growing on modern girls and women. Small in themselves, yet then it is an other, and after awhile the whole mass of small things becomes a formidable mass, and gradually the estimation that has received a succession of constant little jars is found to have become weakened. Believe it or not as women may, that is where the two sexes stand today in America, and it is a position neither pleasant nor desirable. Women are putting them selves down slowly, but none the less surely, in the eyes of men by their growing tendency to place the emphasis on the things that are not worth while. The women who represent the best of American womanhood recognize this condition and deplore it just as much as do the men, and it is a grievous pity that the sensible portion of American women have not more influence on that larger majority of the sex who are today playing with their greatest source of protection, the respect of men.

Shrinking Wash Goods.

Keep your material in the same creases as when bought, opened only enough to tie the tub to cover the goods and leave sufficient length of time to be thoroughly shrunk. Then lay a broom across the tub and carefully hang the material on it, still folded. Thus it will drain in the tub and dry. On removal the goods will be as pressed and smooth as when bought. A little salt in the water will also set the color at the same time.

Pictureque Evening Frock.

The season's evening frocks all make for pictureque effects, and the costume in the cut is a charming example of this mode. It is girlish, though quaint and effective in treatment. The material used is pale blue chiffon over satin of the same shade. The band of black velvet across the front of the skirt is a novel feature, held in place as it is, with an exquisite pink silk rose.

Shut in Paraguay.

Paraguay is shut in on the west, north and east by hundreds of miles of thick, almost uninhabited forest country. On the south the greater part of the outlet is barred by swampy land, practically without population. From the day of its discovery to the present time the country has had only one artery of exit and entrance, the Parana river.

A Hard Bird.

Customer—What sort of chicken do you call this? Waiter—That, sir, is I believe, a Plymouth Rock. Customer—Ah! I'm glad it has some historic interest. I thought it was just an ordinary cobblestone.

Discussed by an Aviator, a War Correspondent and an Army General

By Lieutenant CONNEAN, French Officer, Who Has Been Flying Under Name of Beaumont

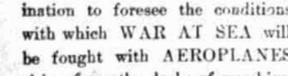

By General JAMES ALLEN, Chief of United States Signal Corps and Head of Aviation Division

I THINK THAT WITHIN TEN OR FIFTEEN YEARS AEROPLANES WILL HAVE COMPLETELY REVOLUTIONIZED PRESENT IDEAS OF NAVAL WARFARE. PERHAPS EVEN THE DEVELOPMENT OF AVIATION BY THAT TIME WILL HAVE MADE THE MODERN DREADHOUGHT AS OBSOLETE AS THE OLD WOODEN BATTLESHIP IS NOW.

WITHIN a year this country will be as FAR ADVANCED as any nation in strength of aerial forces. I hope by the end of that period to have twenty aeroplanes operated by forty officers. I also hope the good work already done will PROMPT congress to give GREATER aid to this branch of the service.

We have established one of the BEST aerodromes in the country at College Park, Md. The six officers practicing flying there are making very CREDITABLE progress.

SPEED IS HARDLY ESSENTIAL FOR THE GENERAL USE OF THE AEROPLANE. OF COURSE FOR MESSENGER WORK WE SHALL WANT A MACHINE THAT WILL GO FROM SIXTY TO SEVENTY MILES AN HOUR, BUT FOR ORDINARY WORK FORTY MILES AN HOUR IS PLENTY.

General ALLEN

By JAMES F. J. ARCHBALD, War Correspondent

IN THE FORTHCOMING CONFLICT, WHICH I EXPECT WILL BEGIN BEFORE LONG, THE AEROPLANE WILL FIGURE FOR THE FIRST TIME AS A FACTOR. France is the ONLY country in the world that has taken advantage of aerial navigation for military purposes. She has a MAGNIFICENT ORGANIZATION of air machines and flying men. Germany is FAR behind her, and England is FAR behind Germany.
