Sufficient Money Subscribed to Fin- ish Grading and Build Trestles —Rails and Equipment Will Be Bought.

A special stockholders meeting of the Clackamas Southern Railway Company was called to order Tuesday afternoon at the office of the Secretary in the Anderson Building, and immediately adjourned to the Oregon City Commercial Club, where was held one of the most successful meetings ever held in Clackamas County. One of the largest crowds of farmers ever gathered in the Commercial Club was present and all were enthusiastic for the early completion of the railway line. The officers of the company went over carefully the details of what had been accomplished up to the present time, with the amount of stock issued, the amount of money received and the amount of subscriptions payable in work, and other interesting details which were of interest to all of the stockholders.

GRANT B. DIMICK, Who Subscribed For $4,000 Stock in Clackamas Southern at Big Meeting.

Speeches were made by Harvey E. Cross, Colonel Dye, W. A. Huntley, Grant B. Dimick, Frank Busch, George A. Harding, Oliver Robbins, O. D. Eby and others, and it was the unanimous opinion of all that the building of the Molalla railway was one of the greatest enterprises ever begun in Clackamas County, and the completion of that road would open the way for a greater development of the interior districts than any other enterprise that could be developed in Clackamas County at this time. NEW ROUTE TO BE CHOSEN FOR CANAL

PLAN IS TO AVOID FAR AS POS- SIBLE HARMING MANUFAC- TURING PLANTS.

ONLY ONE MILL WILL BE AFFECTED

Major McIndoe in Letter to Secretary Latourette, Declares Route Will Be Determined by Values Placed on Land.

Positive announcement was made Tuesday that the route first suggested for the East Side Canal and locks around the Falls of the Willamette, which was objected to by the management of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company and the Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company, had been abandoned. A decision will be made between two other routes, maps of which have been sent to Secretary Latourette of the Commercial Club. Neither of these routes will affect the property of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, it is announced, and one of them will do little harm to the pulp plant of the Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company. The other one is directly through the pulp plant of the latter concern. Both routes start at Third street.

Major J. F. McIndoe, in Letter to Secretary Latourette, Declares Route Will Be Determined by Values Placed on Land.

On Saturday I was advised by the Chief of Engineers that the Secretary of War had approved construction of a canal on the east side of the river at Oregon City and I was authorized to enter into negotiations with property owners for the necessary lands and rights of way, the exact location of the canal to be determined after definite prices have been obtained. Two tentative routes have been laid out, and my assistant, Mr. Thomson, will call upon the property owners for offers of prices for which they will sell the necessary land to the United States. The exact route selected will, of course, depend upon the reasonableness of the prices offered.

J. F. McINDOE,
Major, Corps of Engineers.

CLACKAMAS GETS SECOND FAIR PRIZE

COUNTY COULD HAVE WON FIRST HONOR IF WORK HAD START- ED EARLIER.

EXHIBIT CENTER OF ATTRACTION

Credit Due O. E. Freytag And O. D. Eby, Who, Virtually Unaided, Arranged Display—Benton Again Victor.

Hail, Clackamas County! The glad tidings reached this city late last night that Clackamas county had won second prize in the competition of counties which have exhibits at the State Fair. It is a great victory for the work of obtaining the display was begun only a short time before the fair started. Benton won first prize, but the judges had a difficult task in deciding between it and Clackamas. And right here it might be well to say if the public-spirited men of this county had taken hold of the work early and with the vigor and vim of other counties first prize would have been their reward. Virtually all the work was done by O. E. Freytag and O. D. Eby and too much praise cannot be accorded them for the successful outcome of their splendid efforts. The county court appropriated $225 for use in purchasing the samples used in the exhibit and the prize won is $250. Pretty good investment, isn't it? And the advertising the honor of being second gives the county cannot be estimated. It is freely predicted if the work is started early next year Clackamas county will take first prize with ease. Benton county, which for three consecutive years had been awarded the first prize, has an exhibit fully as good if not better than during previous

Popular Mayor, Who Declines To Make Race For Re-Election This Fall

GEORGE C. BROWNELL.

WIFE SAYS HUSBAND DROVE SON FROM HOME

Charging that her husband forced her thirteen-year-old son from their home, Mary Stevens Tuesday filed suit for divorce from Aaron Lewis Stevens. She alleges that he has treated her cruelly, and allowed her hardly enough money to supply the bare necessities of life. They were married April 27, 1911, in Portland. The plaintiff alleges that on August 4, 1911, the defendant drove her son, Victor Arrowsmith, from their home. She asks for $75 a month alimony during the pendency of the suit.

CHILD CASE INVOLVES INTERESTING POINT

Whether an appeal can be taken from an order or a decree of a juvenile court is an issue involved in a case which J. E. Hedges will argue before the Supreme Court tomorrow. This interesting point has never been decided, and the action of the highest court in the state will be received with interest especially in the larger cities, where there are so many juvenile cases.

The case is that of Foster against Myers and involves the custody of Loreta Hoag, a ten-year-old girl. The County Court here granted the custody of the child to Mrs. Hattie Myers, of Marquam, in a contest instituted by the mother, Mrs. Foster, formerly Mrs. Hoag. The Circuit Court refused to set aside or modify the order on the ground that it was not an appealable order and dismissed the appeal. The Supreme Court is called upon to decide whether the order is appealable and whether any appeal lies from an order or decree of a juvenile court. Mr. Hedges represents Mrs. Myers.

TEACHERS URGED TO WATCH PUPILS' HEALTH

Superintendent of County Schools Gary Tuesday mailed copies of the course of study in the elementary schools to about 200 county teachers. Copies will be mailed to the other teachers as the schools open. The pamphlet was prepared by L. R. Alderman, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and is considered the best ever issued in this state. Particular stress is laid on physiology and hygiene, and the teachers are urged to keep a careful watch over the health of the children. Personal cleanliness, ventilation and exercise are urged as requisites. It is also suggested that wherever possible, shower baths should be furnished for the children to use after playing. The pamphlet offers many suggestions to the teachers for conserving the health of the pupils.

STORM SWEEPS OVER WILSONVILLE SECTION

A severe storm swept over Wilsonville and Stafford Monday evening. Several large trees were blown down and potato vines and corn stalks were laid as flat as if they had been run over by a steam roller.

WEISMANDEL WILL CONTEST IS HEARD

County Judge Beattie Tuesday took under advisement the will contest involving the estate of the late William Philip Weismandel. The testimony was heard Tuesday of last week and Monday and Tuesday of this week. Suit was filed against the executrix, and one of the beneficiaries of the will, Mrs. Ola M. Ogle, of Canby, by Mrs. Daniel Lyons, Mrs. Rosa Howard, and his mother, Mrs. Sophia Weismandel. The will, which was executed December 10 last, was attacked on the ground that the testator at the time was not mentally capable of making a will and was unduly influenced. He had lived at the home of the executrix, but was living with his mother when the will was made. The testimony showed that the testator had been ill for two years before his death, and physicians said he suffered from tuberculosis. However, after his death an autopsy showed that he suffered from cancer. J. E. Hedges represents the executrix and C. D. and D. C. Latourette the plaintiffs.

BROWNELL WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE

MAYOR ANNOUNCES THAT HE IS NOT IN THE RACE FOR RE-ELECTION.

FRANK BUSCH URGED AS SUCCESSOR

Incumbent Thanks Residents of City For Honoring Him—Three Councilmen to Be Elected.

Mayor George C. Brownell announced Tuesday that he would not be a candidate for re-election, and that he would like to see Frank Busch elected to the office. Mr. Busch has been urged for sometime by friends to make the race, but he has not definitely determined to do so.

When Mayor Brownell was asked if he intended making the race for re-election he said that he appreciated very much the splendid vote which he received when he was elected, and he desired to take this opportunity to thank the people for the confidence they had reposed in him by electing him mayor. He declared that he had tried to do his duty, but felt that he could not afford to become a candidate again. He said the duties of the office interfered with his business and took up too much of his time.

When asked if he knew who would be candidates for the office, Mayor Brownell said he did not. He declared that there were many worthy and capable men in the city, but that he, personally, would like to see Mr. Busch elected.

"Mr. Busch is a very capable business man, said the Mayor, "and is a man of high character and ability. He is very much interested in the up-building of the city."

The election will be held the first Monday in December, and it is probable that there will be more than one candidate for Mayor. Three councilmen also will be elected at that time.

Mayor Brownell's retirement will be regretted by the residents of the city who hope that he would agree to serve at least two terms. His record is one of the best ever made by a mayor of Oregon City.

UNLUCKY BIRDMAN DETERMINED TO WIN

ALTA, Cal., Sept. 12.—(Special)—Total wreck of the Wright biplane in which he hoped to win a $50,000 newspaper prize for crossing the continent, today brought Aviator Robert G. Fowler's flight from San Francisco to New York to an inglorious end near this little mountain town. Fowler was uninjured, and says he yet will be the first aviator to cross the continent. He will make another trial.

After his successful flight from San Francisco to Auburn yesterday, Fowler was supremely confident today when he started to tune up his machine at Auburn. All went well until Fowler reached Colfax, which town he passed at 9:55 a. m. At that time he was 1000 feet in the air and was making about 55 miles an hour. As Fowler neared this station he began to have trouble, and, feeling that his rudder was going wrong, he started to veer toward the earth. Just as he neared the ground the rudder went entirely wrong and the machine crashed down on a hillside a short distance from the Southern Pacific station here, piling itself up in a mass of splintered wood, twisted iron and bent canvas.

Fowler leaped from the saddle of the flyer just as it struck the earth and, except for a few minor bruises, was uninjured. He was much disappointed at the unlucky termination of his flight but rejoiced to learn that his engine was only slightly damaged.

CUPID'S ANTI-TIP WAR UP TO CAMPBELL

Circuit Judge J. U. Campbell, of this city, is to hear in Portland arguments on the demurrers in the cases brought by Justices Bell and Olson involving their claims for payment of salary and the offsets claimed by Multnomah county for marriage fees, which the county contends should be turned into the county treasury.

When the question was presented to Presiding Judge Gatens in Portland for assignment to one of the circuit judges there for hearing, none was willing to hear it except Judge Mc-Ginn and the attorneys for Bell and Olson did not wish to have the hearing in his department. Judge Mc-Ginn is the only one of the judges who has declined to accept any fees for himself for performing marriage ceremonies.

While the present suit involves the salary only of the two justices, it has a much wider aspect. Nearly all of the circuit judges in the state have accepted fees for performing marriage ceremonies, as well as justices of the peace. According to one theory, all of these judges are liable to indictment and to civil suits for recovery of the money. Some lawyers contend that the county is not entitled to the fees, but that bridegrooms are entitled to have their $5 gold pieces returned.
