SEATTLE MURDER CASE

The verdict in the Seattle case was not unexpected by those who had carefully read the evidence in the trial progressed.

Let that man go free? What, let that man go free? Why, the motherhood of Virginia, the womanhood of this nation, will shoulder in terror the security of its life is threatened.

It was in this sentiment that the jury unhesitatingly responded in its verdict that Seattle should expiate its crime by death.

The Seattle case has been exceeded in its dramatic interest by two Virginia trials of recent years.

The case of Seattle will of course be appealed. What the outcome of that appeal may be none can tell.

The Seattle case should bring home to Seattle a moral truth. It may serve to bring immoral men back to their living.

As the great savings banks grow in popularity they are bringing to light some interesting revelations.

From far away Corinth, Miss., comes a letter to the Postmaster General from the postmaster of that place, reading:

I am enclosing with my compliments a silver dollar which was deposited together with several hundred others just like it, which had apparently been buried for many years.

I send this to show you the benefit the enactment of the postal savings bank is bringing about.

There are HALF A BILLION PAIRS OF EYES in China looking admiringly toward Japan. There are in China and over the vast neighboring areas UNCOUNTED MYRIADS needing but a leader and arms and training to hurl themselves upon western civilization and SMITE US HIP AND THIGH as their ancestors smote ours in years ago.

They are awaking. They are training. They are arming. The GREAT YELLOW STORM CLOUD is slowly rising along the whole eastern sky, and it is only a matter of TIME when the storm will

Nations Will Not Unite For Any Purpose Not Prompted by Self Interest

By HUDSON MAXIM, inventor

DISARMAMENT is a beautiful dream, but it does seem to me to be IMPOLITIC AND IMPRACTICABLE.

The coming international tribunal will need all its guns to enforce its mandates.

THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH WILL NOT UNITE AND CANNOT UNITE FOR ANY PURPOSE NOT PROMPTED BY INDIVIDUAL SELF INTEREST.

It would be impracticable for the carnivora and the herbivora to make an arbitration pact to settle their differences.
