WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN COLORADO.

The opponents of equal suffrage have been circulating a statement that Denver has a great amount of juvenile crime—presumably due to mothers neglecting their children for politics.

Colorado "nothing is so feared by corruptionists as the vote and influence of women." None of this news to anybody who has taken the pains to look into affairs in Colorado. The reports that woman suffrage is detrimental to Colorado come from the same corrupt sources in that state, are propagated through the same corrupt channels elsewhere, and are swallowed by the same gullible innocents from which, through which and by whom scandalously false stories about Judge Lindsey have come, and been propagated and swallowed.

GERMAN VETERANS HONOR DEAD COMRADE

The funeral services over the remains of the late Julius E. Freytag were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Congregational church, of which the deceased was a member. The church was crowded with friends of Mr. Freytag, and the floral offerings were beautiful.

SELFISHNESS. Selfishness is poverty. It is the most utter destitution of the human being. It can bring nothing to his relief, it adds soreness to his sorrows, it sharpens his pains, it aggravates all the losses he is liable to endure and when goaded to extremes often turns destroyer and strikes its last blows on himself.

BEAVERS AND SEALS IN HARD FIGHT TODAY

PORTLAND, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—San Francisco's Seals open a seven-game engagement with the Beavers at Recreation park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in what will be the final series of the year on the Portland grounds, for the McCredettes close the schedule with three weeks on the road.

To date the inter-club clashes have been nip and tuck affairs, Portland having won 13 games from the Seals and lost 12. From which it would appear that the Beavers have a tough row to hoe despite the fact that the Californians have not been going any too good and are down in fourth place.

The results Monday follow: Pacific Coast league—Vernon 4, Sacramento 1; no other games scheduled.

Northwestern league—Victoria 7, Vancouver 2; Seattle 6, Tacoma 2. National league—New York 2, Cincinnati 0; Chicago 6, Boston 5; Brooklyn 5, Pittsburgh 4; St. Louis Philadelphia game postponed, rain.

MADMOISELLE'S VEIL

This Adjunct of the Toilet Completes a Charming Hat Effect. Of course she wears a veil if she wishes to be in the fashion and also if she likes to keep her well curled hair in trim, orderly style.

Black and white lace veils which hang straight from the brim of the hat are very smart indeed. They add a bit of charm to a charming hat of FANCY PLEASANT BLOUSE. Face, and nowadays that is a point not overlooked by the up to date woman or girl.

Fancy mesh-veils to match one's chapeau are also in vogue, and one sees numbers of brown, blue and green veils. But the black veil will always have its admirers, and there are many smartly groomed women who stick to black veils of various styles despite the whims and vagaries of that whimsical dame, Fashion.

The peasant blouse in its many variations will continue to be popular this fall and winter. The model pictured is quite new, the yoke being cut in points. This waist is made of messaline with trimming portions of all over lace, piping and buttons of velvet.

JUDIC CHOLLET. This May Mantion pattern is cut in sizes from 34 to 42 inches bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 712, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two-cent stamp for letter postage, which insures more prompt delivery.

Governor Wilson and His Wife Have Fine Home in Princeton

Photos copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

GOVERNOR WOODROW WILSON of New Jersey continues to live in the handsome home that he occupied while he was president of Princeton university, going to Trenton only when he is needed there, at which times he can be found in the executive offices in the state capital. During the summer he occupied the summer home owned by New Jersey at Sea Girt, where he and Mrs. Wilson entertained lavishly. The Wilson home at Princeton is shown in the above picture, which also includes a recent photograph of the governor and Mrs. Wilson.

EASTERN DEALERS IN APPLES HOLD OFF

The Northwestern Fruit Exchange, in its latest bulletin, reports little change in market conditions during the week past. Speculators in the large eastern centers have evidently made up their minds to "stand pat" against the purchasing of boxed apples for the present, in the belief that holders will weaken later, or that when the movement is actually on in earnest, there will be a large surplus, which will drift into their markets unsold, and which can then be picked up at bargain prices.

Commenting on the attitude of the eastern buyers referred to, the Exchange says: "This belief is more or less justified, their figure, by the history of the past season or two, and they argue that if the Northwestern growers allowed their cars to 'follow the line of least resistance,' in years when the conditions were favorable, they are all the more apt to do so this year, when market conditions are very complex and difficult, on account of the enormous crops of apples being harvested in all of the eastern districts."

The view which the Exchange takes of all this is that the easterners are right or they are wrong, entirely as the northwestern growers shall elect. Undoubtedly there are, in the aggregate, hundreds of cars, in weak hands, which will eventually roll into the eastern markets and sell at low prices through the auction and commission houses. It will depend largely on how our apples are handled, and by whom, and what facilities are at the command of the producers, as to what the final results will be.

Taken in connection with other domestic sales reported, the Exchange announces that it has sold out in advance of shipment every single car of Jonathan apples controlled by the Cashmere union, and announces hereunder the new season's averages: Extra fancy grade, $1.55 plus; fancy grade, $1.35 plus; choice grade, 95 cents plus, all f. o. b. cars, Cashmere, Wash.

The above averages are based on the official proportions of each grade as furnished by the union, and include all sizes, from 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 tier, inclusive. It is noteworthy that under the Exchange system the union has disposed of all grades at proportionate prices.

The Streets of Amsterdam. Amsterdam, in Holland, a city of ten miles in circumference, is mostly built on piles driven into the sandy soil, but the bowing of the tide and the debris of the Almsel river have made ninety islands, and the city has more canals than streets. The water ways are traversed by over 300 bridges, so that Amsterdam has earned the designation of the Venice of the north.

The Ten Commandments of Advertising. At the great convention in Boston a short time ago of the National Association of Advertising men, Joseph Appel, Advertising Manager of Wanamaker's Philadelphia store, gave to the Retail Advertisers' Division these ten commandments of advertising: Thou shalt have no other gods in advertising but truth. Thou shalt not make any graven image of wealth, or power, or station and thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them except with honor. Thou shalt not use the power of advertising in an unworthy cause or in behalf of unworthy goods. Remember the working day to keep it holy. Honor thy business and thy advertising, that they may honor thee, and thy days of usefulness be long upon the land. Thou shalt not kill fair competition from without nor ambition from within your organization. Thou shalt not lie, misstate, exaggerate, misrepresent nor conceal; thou shalt not bear false witness to the public, but thou shalt be fair to thy merchandise. Thou shalt not steal by false pretenses in statements, spoken, written or printed. Thou shalt not permit adulteration nor substitution in advertised goods. Thou shalt not covet, nor imitate nor run down thy neighbor's business; thou shalt not covet nor run down thy neighbor's name, nor his fame, nor his wares, nor his trade, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Get Together Spirit Is Salvation of American Farmers. By WOODROW WILSON, Governor of New Jersey. American Press Association.

THERE is a very interesting implication in the Lord's Prayer. It begins with this petition: "Give us this day our daily bread," and all of life is based upon the physical sustenance of it, for a man cannot keep his mind or soul right if his stomach is empty. My interest in agriculture, therefore, is to hope that by the GET TOGETHER SPIRIT the farmers may bring about BETTER MARKET CONDITIONS and get BETTER RAILROAD RATES by reason of economical shipments from combined storehouses. THE GET TOGETHER PROPOSITION IS THE PROBLEM OF ALL POLITICS AND ALL LIFE. THEN THERE COMES UPON THE MIND THAT GREAT ILLUMINATING DISCOVERY THAT THE COMMON INTEREST IS ALSO THE INTEREST OF THE INDIVIDUAL. THEN THERE COMES THAT MOST ENLIGHTENING OF ALL DISCOVERIES, THAT IF YOU SERVE YOUR FELLOW MAN YOU SERVE YOUR OWN INTERESTS VASTLY BETTER THAN YOU COULD HAVE SERVED THEM IF YOU SEGREGATED THEM. This is the spirit of America. This is the BREATH OF INSPIRATION upon which we shall be lifted STEP BY STEP to the heights of a better life.
