COMEBACKS TO BE QUITE NUMEROUS

Many Players Once in Fast Company Are to Return.

THEY WERE NOT QUITE RIPE.

Through Draft and Purchase Both Major Leagues Hope to Be Benefited Next Spring by the Additions—Some Veterans to Be Given Another Trial.

"Comebacks" will be numerous at the big league training camps next spring—not aged "comebacks" of the class of Tom Hughes and Jimmy Callahan, but youngsters and semi-vets who were up before and failed to make good because of inexperience or accidents. Their relegation to the minors did not mean that they did not have the stuff in them. On the other hand, it simply meant that they were not quite ripe for fast company.

Consequently he goes back to develop. Well, there were many such men pulled back by the draft or purchase during the last few weeks. Cleveland has seven of them. In fact, Catcher O'Neill of Worcester was an Athletic recruit, as were Pitcher Collamore of Scranton and Utility Player Hyde Barr of New Orleans. Third Baseman Manusch of New Orleans has been a member of the New York Giants as well as the Athletics. Outfielder Williams was with the Browns last spring, while Catcher Konnick of Dayton was given a trial by Cincinnati. Third Baseman Bunting of Worcester was taken south by Brooklyn last spring.

Detroit gets a "comeback" in Pitcher Dubuc of Montreal, who was with Cincinnati for a season. Chicago gets a pair in Pitcher Hovlik, formerly of Washington, and Third Baseman Rath, who was tried out by the Athletics and Naps. St. Louis will try out First Baseman Danzig of Sacramento, once with Boston, and Pitcher Brown of Akron, who was a Cincinnati recruit a year ago.

Washington gets First Baseman Flynn, late of Pittsburgh; Shortstop Foster, formerly a Yankee, and Outfielder Moeller, once with the Pirates.

There are more "comeback" recruits in the National league, the list being headed by Otto Hess, bought by Boston. The Rustlers have also hooked First Baseman Houser of Indianapolis, who used to be with the Athletics.

Brooklyn has taken the most men. Ebbets' recruits are Paige, formerly of the Giants and Naps; Infielder Rollie, formerly of the Chicago White Sox; Outfielder Welchance, a former Philadelphia National; Velder Sittin, Philadelphia National; Infielder Kirke of Boston and Pitcher Compton of Cincinnati.

Lighter Than Cork.
One of the strangest trees in existence is the ambash, growing in the shallow waters of Lake Chad, in Africa, a body of water which when at its maximum extent covers 10,000 square miles, and yet has on the average a depth of only six feet. The ambash tree grows so rapidly as to attain its full size, twenty-five feet high, with a trunk a foot in diameter, in two years. The wood when dried is unrivaled in lightness, its density being only two-fifths that of cork.

Our greatest clubbing offer. The Morning Enterprise by mail and the Weekly Oregonian, both until November 1, 1912, for only $3. Offer closes October 31, 1911.

Other National league "comebacks" are Pitcher Maxwell of New York, Outfielder Hyatt of Pittsburgh, Outfielder Cravath of Pittsburgh, Infielder Kirke of Boston and Pitcher Compton of Cincinnati.

race heats on the platform that will be constructed for that purpose.

A track meet will be held Saturday morning. Gold medals will be awarded for 100-yard dash, 200-yard dash, 400-yard dash, running broad jump, pole vault, hammer throw, shotput, 12-pound high jump, potato race, and one-half mile race, one-half mile bicycle race.

The baby show will be among the attractions Saturday. Secretary Lazelle has been besieged with application blanks from proud parents, who are to have their children enter for prizes. Last year the baby show proved a decided success. More than 100 children were entered. Mrs. A. J. Lewis will have charge of this department this year. Automobile races are on the program for each afternoon during the fair.

Elliott & Parks have obtained a special car to be used in the races at the fair. It is a Ford racer called "The Spider," and arrived in the city Monday.

CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT STOPPED BY CLERGY

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The clergy of England, who have been making strenuous efforts to put a quietus on the proposed heavyweight fight between Jack Johnson and Bombardier Wells, the English champion, won their victory today when it was announced that the fight will not take place. The announcement comes from a result of the stand taken by Winston Churchill, the home secretary, who declared that if the promoters did not abandon the proposed fight, he would have both Johnson and Wells bound over to keep the peace. It is understood that an official announcement declaring the match off will be made by the promoters.

The cause of the attack by the clergy was an account of the moving pictures, which they claim would instill brutality into the minds of children. The picture rights had been sold for $100,000.

Our greatest clubbing offer. The Morning Enterprise by mail and the Weekly Oregonian, both until November 1, 1912, for only $3. Offer closes October 31, 1911.
