Aviator Atwood has been fined in New York for exceeding the speed limit in an automobile. It was known before, however, that men can be "up in the air" while still on earth.

A New Jersey school has expelled a girl, child of English parents, for not saluting our flag and taking the oath of allegiance. Never say again that New Jersey is not a part of this country.

They are now smuggling Chinese into Southern California in automobiles. After the perfection of the aeroplane, this thing will be easier but much less luxurious for the Chinks.

It is claimed now that a certain specific for hay fever has been found, on the eve of frost. The discovery leaves ample time for manufacturing and advertising before the next season sets in.

People who had fondly imagined that any extensive use of such a killing thing as formaldehyde in milk was not to be dreaded are having an other rude awakening. But, of course, they will go to sleep again after the shock is passed.

Prizefights and Poultry. "John," said his wife, "why do they quarrel so much about poultry in these disgraceful prizefights?"

"Poultry?" said he, laying down his newspaper. "Now, my dear, whatever do you mean?"

"Yes," she went on, "it says here that at first the white man was inclined to show his chicken heart, but gave a very pretty duck to avoid his colored opponent. Why did he want to avoid him—first because he was a colored man? And then here it says the colored man claimed a foul in the seventh round. Was that the duck the white man gave him?"—London Mail.

London Tea Shop Girls. The London tea shop girls must eke out her wages by angling for tips. There is a good deal of pathos behind her smile. The careless tea drinker does not suspect the irony of her elaborately piled up hair, the satire of her natty high heeled shoes, the mockery of her quick badinage. She looks perfectly light hearted as she darts to and fro among the tables. She has no right to appear tired. She must conceal her fatigue. A melancholy countenance is out of place in a tea shop.—London Opinion.

American Finances Will Be Quiet Until After 1912. By DANIEL G. REID, New York Financier. Includes portrait of Daniel G. Reid.

ALTHOUGH AMERICAN FINANCES ARE IN A SOUND CONDITION, THERE WILL BE A PERIOD OF FINANCIAL QUIETUDE UNTIL AFTER THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, WHICH ALWAYS UNSETTLES THINGS. Until then there will be no HYSTERICAL BOOMS anywhere in America. Then things should become normal and PROSPEROUS if the present danger of labor strikes is AVERTED.

HOPS SELL FREELY AT 33 CENTS POUND

Liberal buying of hops is reported in the Willamette Valley, sales reaching probably 500 to 600 bales. T. A. Lively is the principal buyer, but the Seavey Hop Company is likewise an operator of importance. In nearly all instances the price was 33c a pound.

Offers of 25c to 30c a pound are being freely made in the Russian River and Sonoma Districts of California, although the crop in the latter section is said to show the poorest quality in years. Samples are said to show mold, honeydew and practically every other ailment that usually affects hop quality.

Since the recent business at 25c in the Sacramento section, no new developments are reported in the hop trade there. Special cables from England state that half of the hop crop there is already sold and the market has advanced 10 shillings during the past week.

From Germany comes the report that the market is weak and 10 marks lower. This is not deemed a bearish feature by the trade, because the German market is much higher than any other in the world. From 66c to 84c a pound is being paid net to growers there.

HOARDED RICHES. Riches are intended for the comfort of life and not life for the purpose of hoarding riches. I asked a wise man, saying, "Who is the fortunate man and who is the unfortunate?" He said: "That man was fortunate who spent and gave away and that man unfortunate who died and left behind. Pray not for that good for nothing man who did nothing for he passed his life in hoarding riches and did not spend them."—Sadi.

Right to the Point. As a short and straightforward proposal nothing has ever surpassed that of the youth who, on entering the room, knelt down before the lady and producing a ring from his pocket, said, "May I?"

KEEP MOVING; INACTIVITY is the breathing place of sin, the sign of business stagnation, the sign of apathy and the predecessor of opportunity. You can stimulate your business to a healthy growth by using Enterprise "Liners" to attract the attention of the public to what you have to offer.

Strong reasons make strong action and you will find that an "ad" backed by the strength of your conviction will carry weight with the readers of these little "doors of opportunity." The key is copper, not golden, for the expense of advertising in these columns is measured by cents, not dollars. The returns though tell another story—reverse the order and measure your profits in dollars. The cents will have been well invested and have taken good care of themselves.

A month's trial will convince you of the value of these little business inducers.

Notices under these classified headings will be inserted at one cent a word, first insertion, half a cent additional insertions. One inch card, 12 per month. Cash must accompany order unless you have an account with the office. No financial responsibility for errors; where errors occur free corrected notice will be printed for patron. Minimum charge 15c.

Several Air Men Trying to Fly From Sea to Sea For $50,000

Photos by American Press Association.

SEVERAL aviators have entered the contest for a $50,000 prize offered for the quickest flight from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and starts have been made from each ocean, as the terms of the offer permit the trip to be made in either direction. The first few days of the various flights were not encouraging to the aviators, as each of them had accidents and motor troubles. Robert G. Fowler started from San Francisco, being the first contestant to take to the air. He is shown in the above picture as he kissed his mother goodby before taking to the air and also in his machine winging its way rapidly toward his eastern goal. The other picture shows Calbraith P. Rodgers standing beside his machine at Governors Island, New York harbor, a few moments before he started on his flight westward.

NATIONAL LEAGUE TO DUST LYNCH

Five Club Owners Said to Have Agreed to Oppose Him.

HEYDLER MAY HEAD CIRCUIT.

Pittsburg and Cincinnati Favor Him For Position—Dreyfuss to Lead Fight on Fogel and Russell—May Bring Out Syndicate Features.

Thomas J. Lynch will not be president of the National league following the annual meeting of the league directors the second Monday of next December. Five of the league presidents have agreed to oppose him. These five are Murphy of Chicago, Herrmann of Cincinnati, Ederts of Brooklyn, Stinger of St. Louis and Dreyfuss of Pittsburg. By some means, Fogel of Philadelphia or Russell of Boston is expected to have a vote at the annual meeting, and Brush of New York is expected to support Lynch for another term unless he sees a great light in the meantime.

The passing of Lynch was planned at Chicago when the board of directors met to pass upon the Lynch ruling in the case of Sherwood Magee, the Phillie outfielder, who had been suspended for striking Umpire Finerman. At that time several of the directors got together and decided Lynch was not the man for the job. Lynch heard of it and became stubborn. He refused absolutely to change his ruling in the Magee case—that is, he did at first, and then he began angling for votes which would re-elect him president of the league.

While he was given no promise of support, at least two of the magnates intimated that they might support him at the annual election, but he would have to go along with them and reinstate Magee. At the same time these very magnates were planning to make another man president. Therefore Mr. Lynch is due for a fine young double crossing. The five young magnates who propose to run the league are divided as to whom they want to succeed Lynch.

Dreyfuss and Herrmann, it is understood, are favorable to John A. Heydler, secretary and formerly president of the league. The race appears to be between Heydler and Francis Richter of Sporting Life. The position has been tendered to Richter in the past, but he has refused to accept it, declaring that it would require all his time and he could not neglect his business. In connection with the next league meeting it is rumored that Barney Dreyfuss of Pittsburg will lead the fight to prevent Fogel of Philadelphia and Russell of Boston from voting. It is understood now that should these men become insistent in their desire to vote Dreyfuss will expose the whole structure of "syndicate baseball" and will endeavor to prove not only to the directors, but to the public at large, that not only does the Chicago club own the Phillies, but the New York National league club controls President Russell and the Boston Nationals.

Topeka, Kan., Mrs. Wade received an ovation. The Denver papers say "Mrs. Wade was grace and beauty in self when seated at her instrument." We Give Service We Give Service "Tea and Toast" There's something quaint about the mere suggestion; there are traditions behind it that hark back to a less strenuous age; to an age when the dear old ladies met at the weekly sewing circle to coin nice ripe gossip, and sip tea and eat Toast. As a universal institution the sewing circle is now a memory, but "Tea and Toast" is more popular than ever. This popularity is largely due to the invention of the Electric Radiant Toaster. This attractive little device makes Toast scientifically, for its radiant heat forces the absolutely necessary chemical change in the bread. This means Perfect Toast in any degree that suits your individual taste. And it will surprise you to know that the net cost is the merest fraction of a cent per slice. Also that it makes Toast faster than the average family can eat it. Entirely aside from these vital features—utility, speed and economy—there is a genuine charm in operating the Electric Radiant Toaster. The soothing glow of the coils on a neat porcelain base creates a snug and cheerful atmosphere. The Electric Radiant Toaster is a unique ornament wherever it is used—on the finest polished table, or on the finest damask table cloth. PORTLAND RAILWAY, LIGHT & POWER CO.
