

Stories from Out of Town

MILWAUKIE.

Mrs. Getman, of Island Station, sustained a broken ankle Thursday morning by being thrown from a buggy, the horse having become frightened at a wheelbarrow.

Guy Goff, who has been staying with his aunt, Mrs. T. J. Clarke, returned to his home at Dotham, Oregon, Friday morning.

Miss Rose Walsh has moved to Portland for the winter. Mrs. M. A. Henderson, recently of Los Angeles, but now residing in Portland, visited her sister, Mrs. La Due Monday.

Miss Marie Duffy has accepted a position as teacher in the new Catholic school to be opened at Sellwood.

A. J. Harmon, the new baker, has a fresh supply of choice cakes, bread and pies on hand all the time. Give him a call.

Rev. Harry Emmel conducted the services at the Evangelical church Wednesday evening and delivered a forceful and interesting sermon.

C. C. Hammerly, formerly a newspaper man of Eastern Washington, but recently of McMinnville, Oregon, called on Mr. Thomas Tuesday at the Appeal office.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kroeller, of Naperville, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Emmell this week. Mr. Kroeller is connected with the Naperville Lounge Factory, the largest of its kind in the United States. We understand he is looking for a location for a branch factory.

Rev. Harry Emmell, accompanied by his wife and three children, of Lake Como, Penn., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Emmell, Harry Emmell's parents. Rev. Emmell has accepted a charge in the M. E. church at Hermiston, Oregon, and expects to go there in the near future.

On Friday evening, October 6th, the Guards of Linden Circle W. of W., will give an entertainment in Woodmen hall. A program will be rendered after which dancing and cards will be indulged in. Light refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Lowe, who has been in the hospital the past five weeks, is home again and doing nicely.

Mr. Baker has returned home from a seven weeks' visit at his old home in New York state.

C. B. Weaver is home from an extended trip to Astoria and is building an addition to his home.

Mr. Johnson is getting ready to extend the water pipe east on Laurel Avenue. There are a number of people living on this avenue who have been wanting this main laid and we are indeed, thankful to see the work started.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club met Friday afternoon and had a very good attendance. They decided to keep the library open Monday and Wednesday evenings and possibly Thursday evening also. The first two evenings the boys club will use the library, the third evening will be strictly for reading. The club will assist the boys club all they can.

Mrs. George Wissinger has volunteered her service for one evening each week at the public library.

Prof. Goetz is anxious to organize a basketball team for the young ladies of the school. A tennis court has been built on the school play grounds.

School closed three days on account of the institute being held at Oregon City.

During the vacation this week the school board had the black boards repaired.

The Milwaukie Grange will meet Friday evening. Announcements of this year's lecturers from the state lecture will be made. A discussion on tax will be one of the subjects for the year's work.

Elliott Brothers, of Portland, will have charge of the Milwaukie Mercantile Company's store for twenty-six days.

Dan Mazzi is working for O. Wisinger.

City council will meet next Tuesday evening.

Jim Matthews was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Jack Peterson returned from his vacation Saturday.

Erroll Quartette Dance Saturday evening.

Evangelical church notes: Sunday school, Rally Day, Sunday morning at 10:30; preaching at 8 P. M., subject,

"Dancing," Y. P. A. at 7 P. M.; prayer meeting Wednesday evening; Choir practice Thursday evening; Teachers' Training Friday evening. E. Radebaugh, pastor.

EAGLE CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Douglass, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Marshall, of Garfield, left last week for the coast.

Fred Ely sold a calf to R. B. Gibson the other day.

Ed. Roy and Miss Bina Douglass attended the Canby Fair Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howlett returned home Monday after about a month's stay with their daughter, Mrs. J. P. Woodie of Estacada.

Gus Burnett, who has been busily engaged in drying prunes, is through for this season.

Miss Meda Murphy, who has been working at Gus Burnett's during the prune-picking season, returned home Monday.

BAKER'S BRIDGE.

Heavy rains injured hay and grain, but that loss will be made up some what in a better crop of potatoes, though potatoes will be a short crop this season.

F. C. Bulk and family and A. B. Buckles and wife visited E. C. Hackett at Riverside.

Revival meetings are being held at Baker's Bridge church.

School bells are ringing in No. 30 and No. 9.

Arthur Cliff is building a fancy chimney for Mr. Mendenhall's new bungalow.

Dances have closed for the season at Clear Creek park.

Carl Mumpower sustained a fracture of his left leg recently while assisting in breaking a colt.

William Little is back from harvest and hop fields and is assisting his brother in putting in a cement basement for his new house.

M. S. Shearer sold his place for $250 an acre recently.

J. R. Carr sold a portion of his farm to a newcomer.

D. F. Whitman delivers the mail with an auto now and so we get our mail earlier.

G. T. Watts is peddling vegetables in Portland as usual.

Arthur Cliff is busy digging wells and building chimneys, etc.

The young voter that arrived at John Hatton's some time ago seems a strong, healthy lad, and bids fair to be one of the best of Clackamas county's products.

Uncle Sam has a surveyor at work here gathering material for a geological map.

FIRWOOD.

No school the first of the week on account of teachers' institute.

Carl F. Anderson, of Oregon City, supervisor of the schools of this district, spent several hours at the Firwood school last week.

Miss Edith Miller was out from Portland Sunday visiting her parents.

L. Pridemore spent several days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fischer drove to Bull Run last week.

R. Brownell, of Portland, visited his daughter, Mrs. E. Reed, over Sunday. John Sinclair drove to Portland Tuesday.

Carl F. Anderson spent Wednesday afternoon and evening of last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hart.

The heavy rain Sunday prevented people from going to the lecture.

TWILIGHT.

Everyone is home from the fair as busy as bees after their outing.

Adolph Joehnke, who has been afflicted for a year, is sick again.

School commenced last Thursday with Miss Alta Cox, of Portland, as teacher.

Clyde Harvey is home from Seattle for a few months' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harvey.

James Hylton thought his baby was good looking, but he knows it now for it carried off a blue ribbon from the fair.

William McCord, James Hylton and George Lazelle received prizes on their cattle at the fair.

Greatest Offer Ever

The Morning Enterprise and The Weekly Oregonian

(Clackamas County's Daily)

(The Northwest's Greatest Weekly)

Until November 1, 1912

Regular Price of the Morning Enterprise by mail is $3.00

$3.00

Regular Price of the Weekly Oregonian is $1.50

JUST THINK---More than an Entire Year to Clackamas County's live daily and the Northwest's greatest weekly for the price of one paper only. Bargain period ends October 31, 1911. On that day, or any day between now and then, $3 will pay for both papers to November 1, 1912. Positively no orders taken at this rate after October 31, 1911.

Subscribe with your postmaster, or R. R. carrier, or bring direct to the Oregon City Enterprise, Oregon City, Ore., on or before October 31.

This Offer is Good to Present as Well as New Subscribers

This Offer is Good to Present as Well as New Subscribers

Send Your Subscription at Once and Tell Your Friends About Our Great Offer The Sooner You Subscribe the More You Get, As the Paper Starts at Once

Since its foundation, it has been the policy of this Company to embody in the

Remington

in perfected form, the best typewriter ideas by whomsoever advanced.

For our latest manifestation of this policy, inspect the new

Visible Writing Remingtons Nos. 10 and 11

which embody every desirable feature extant—PLUS an Adding and Subtracting Mechanism, which constitutes an innovation.

The voice that cried in the wilderness 30 years ago: "You cannot afford to write in the old way," now acclaims with equal conviction: "You cannot afford to calculate in the old way."

Remington Typewriter Company (Incorporated)

Friends from the East are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Schmidteke. The good roads meeting held Wednesday evening in Twilight hall, was largely attended and a very enthusiastic meeting. Twilight will do her share.

WILSONVILLE.

Mrs. J. W. Thornton has been quite ill for a few days.

Miss Murray, of the local school, attended teachers' institute at Oregon City this week.

Jack Peters attended the Canby Fair Friday and Saturday.

Mr. MacFeeters, of Forest Grove, visited relatives in Wilsonville on Tuesday.

Mrs. Aubrey Wood, the teacher at Corral Creek school, attended the Institute the first of the week at Oregon City.

Milton Seely's bid was accepted for janitor of the village school for the present year. H. D. Aden spent Friday in Portland on business, and purchased a large stock of fall goods, which will be opened this week.

The Peters hardware store is to have beautiful plate glass windows to replace the ones broken by the late storm.

Three young men of our village are boarding the train to the Rose City each day, to attend high school. Quite a lot of vehicles and autos passed through Wilsonville last Friday, loaded with passengers enroute to the Canby Fair.

Mr. Calavan was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Say, on Thursday, after visiting Corral Creek's school.

Mrs. Joe Thornton arrived home on Saturday last after visiting for a month in Kansas City and at the home of her brother, Mr. Frary, of Carson City, Nevada. Mrs. Thornton with several friends spent some time taking in the beautiful scenery of Royal Gorge and also visited in Salt Lake for a short time.

The clover huller is kept busy when the sky stays clear long enough to permit the huller to put on steam.

Rev. Bishop, of Tualatin, has been assigned to the Wilsonville M. E. church, by the late conference and began his work here last Sabbath. He will divide his time between Tualatin and Wilsonville, and requires no introduction to the members of the village church here, where he has already many friends.

Have you noticed the placard in the bank or the postoffice, in which you are offered the Morning Enterprise and the Weekly Oregonian one year for $3.00. A county paper like the Morning Enterprise ought to be appreciated by us, one and all. Chas. Ridder will be glad to receive your subscription at the postoffice at any time convenient for you to subscribe. Better do it now while this offer gives you two papers for the price of one.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Improvements still go on. E. W. Ambler is building a new barn and Messrs. A. Mautz and John Lewellen are assisting in the work. F. M. Darling is re-shingling his woodshed this week.

J. M. Gillett, who has been digging a well at Willamette for Mr. Morrison, is on the sick list.

J. Lewellen has torn down his old root house and built a new one.

Grandma Albright, of Midway, Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Minnie Albright Saturday, then went to Mulino to visit her son, Charlie, and family.

Mrs. Pettit, of Duane street, has her mother and sister visiting her this week.

Mrs. Willie Quinn and Beasie Quinn visited relatives and friends at Logan last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Hattie Merrill and daughter,

Blanche, were visiting friends in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday and on Monday Mrs. Merrill went to Portland to find work as nurse.

John Darling, Jr., and wife of Sellwood, are visiting here with their parents.

Mrs. W. G. Hall spent Saturday and Sunday at Rockwood with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mautz went to their home near Madras last week on Thursday.

CLARKES.

Mr. Haag was in town last Saturday.

Mr. Marquardt was in Portland last week.

Ed. Buol is working for the Clarke brothers.

Sam Elmer was digging potatoes last week.

Willie Marshall moved down to Mrs. Eliza Kleinsmith's the other day.

Mr. Bottemiller was painting his house last week.

Mr. Henrich, of Beaver Creek, baled hay for Lindau.

Blanche, were visiting friends in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday and on Monday Mrs. Merrill went to Portland to find work as nurse.

John Darling, Jr., and wife of Sellwood, are visiting here with their parents.

Mrs. W. G. Hall spent Saturday and Sunday at Rockwood with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mautz went to their home near Madras last week on Thursday.

Mr. Haag was in town last Saturday.

Mr. Marquardt was in Portland last week.

Ed. Buol is working for the Clarke brothers.

Sam Elmer was digging potatoes last week.

Mr. Baurer threshed last week. Miss Emma Baurer came home from Portland last Friday.

REDLAND.

Moving seems to be the style around Redland lately. Ed. Oldham is moving into the Monahan house and N. S. Oldham to D. H. Mosher's house. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stone have moved to Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stone have also moved away.

A number of neighbors called on Mr. Stone Wednesday evening and spent a very pleasant evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Kerr,

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Hingsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Brook, Mrs. Courtright.

Mr. Cook preached his first sermon at the M. E. church Sunday morning. The stork called at the M. E. church September 25 and left a boy with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Funk and daughter attended the fair.

Mrs. Ed. Morgan is taking care of her sister, Mrs. Frank Sprague, who has been sick for some time.

Mr. Fullen is quite sick.

Read the Morning Enterprise

NOT EXPENSIVE

Treatment at Hot Lake, including medical attention, board and baths, costs no more than you would pay to live at any first class hotel. Rooms can be had from 75 cents to $2.50 per day. Meals in the cafeteria are served from 20 cents up and in the grill at the usual grill prices. Baths range from 50 cents to $1.00.

We Do Cure Rheumatism

Hot Lake Mineral Baths and mud given under scientific direction have cured thousands. Write for illustrated booklet descriptive of Hot Lake Sanatorium and the methods employed. Hot Lake Sanatorium is accessible, as it is located directly on the main line of the O.-W. R. & N. railway, and special excursion rates are to be had at all times. Agents.

HOT LAKE SANATORIUM
HOT LAKE, OREGON.
WALTER M. PIERCE, Pres.-Mgr.

E. W. Mellien
Opposite The Grand

Here is the Only Bargain House

Compare our prices with others and you will be sure to trade here. New and second hand furniture of all kinds. Granite, glass and light hardware.