PORTLAND GIVES TAFT GREETING

NATION'S CHIEF ACCORDED BIG OVAATION IN METROPOLIS OF STATE

EIGHT HOURS 'DELIGHTFULLY' SPENT

Commercial Club Banquet One Of Features Of Visit—Thousands See President In Street Tour.

PORTLAND, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—William Howard Taft, President of the United States, passed eight hours as Portland's guest of honor today. Not at any point on his present tour of the country has the President been received with more open-hearted hospitality or greater show of enthusiasm and affection by the people.

Arriving in the city in the waning hour of a perfect October day the President found tens of thousands of Portland men, women and children assembled about the station grounds and along the principal streets to join in the demonstrations of welcome. More than five hours of the President's stay in Portland was consumed by the various parts of the program arranged for him. But while it was arduous, the program was carried out with never a hitch. Provision was made for the famous Taft forty winks of sleep which are said to be all the big man needs to lay up a full new store of reserve energy. He had this up of twenty minutes at the Commercial Club just before the big banquet given in his honor and emerged from the brief rest quite as fresh as if he had not been making car-platform speeches all day in addition to directing the destinies of the Nation from the "White House on wheels" in which he is visiting twenty-four states. An informal reception at the Union Station, an automobile procession through the principal streets, a banquet and address at the Commercial Club, an hour's public address at the Armory and a visit to the Knights of Columbus—that summarizes the President's activities while in Portland. All official business had been disposed of on the train en route here from Puget Sound so that his time, previous to arriving shortly before 11 p. m. in his private car, was given wholly to the program of events that had been arranged.

The two distinct features of his visit were the public meeting at the Armory and the banquet at the Commercial Club. In his Armory address President Taft took up subjects of the greatest National importance as well as subjects especially pertinent to Oregon and the Coast country.

THE ELECTION RETURNS MERRY-GO-ROUND.

MAINE HAS HAD A BEWILDERING TIME TRYING TO DISCOVER WHETHER THE VOTE WAS WET OR DRY.

WIFE THINKS HUSBAND DROWNED BY ENEMIES

Joe Henning, the Indian, who with his wife and daughter-in-law have been camping near the home of H. E. Cross at Gladstone, and who have been waiting to find some trace of the former's son, Henry Henning, who mysteriously disappeared from this city while in company with two men near the river bank on Sixth street, fearing that the man was killed by his companions and thrown into the river, returned to Warm Springs Wednesday. They have been waiting, thinking the body would rise to the surface if thrown into the river. The young man, who was twenty-two years of age, is survived by his aged parents, a young wife and babe. He disappeared about three weeks ago.

CLUB TO GIVE BIG SMOKER WEDNESDAY

The Commercial Club will give the first smoker of the season in the club parlors next Wednesday evening. M. D. Latourette, secretary of the club, will issue the invitations today, and it is expected that the attendance will be the largest in the history of the club's social functions. A fine program has been arranged and all who attend are assured a delightful time. The smokers of the club last winter and spring were a big success, and the series the coming winter and spring is expected to set a new record.

Two Couples Get Licenses.
Marriage licenses were issued to the following Wednesday: Lydia Bachman and Peter Lee, of Portland; Anna Hess and Gere Kamp, of Portland. The latter couple were married by Judge Campbell.

COLUMBUS DAY IS OBSERVED BY SCHOOLS

Behind him lay the gray Azores,
Behind, the gates of Hercules;
Before him not the ghost of shores,
Before him only shoreless seas.

The good mate said: "Now must we pray?"
For lo, the very stars are gone;
Brave admiral speak, what shall I say?"

"Why say, sail on, sail on, and on."

"My men grow mutinous day by day,
My men grow ghastly wan and weak."
The stout mate thought of home, a spray

Of salt water washed his swarthy cheek.
"Of what shall I say, brave admiral say,
I've sight naught but seas at dawn?"
"Why you shall say at break of day,
Sail on, sail on, and on."

Then pale and worn he kept his deck,
And peered through darkness, ah that night,
Of all dark nights, and then, a speck—
A light, a light, a light, a light,
It grew to be Time's burst of dawn.
He gained a world, he gave that world
Its grandest lesson, on, sail on.

The school children of Oregon City are glad today that Columbus discovered America, or rather this hemisphere, which was named after one American Vespucci, who evidently had a better press agent than one Christopher Columbus. Columbus has not been entirely forgotten, for one day each year the nation pays him homage, while poor old American Vespucci's (pronounced Ves-poo-tee, by the way) memory has to take a back seat. The country, however, seems to have taken the view of Admiral Schley before he was heckled about that famous or infamous "loop"-to-wit, or viz: "There is glory enough for all," "Old Doc" Cook tried to "put over" the same thing, but it didn't "work" in his case.

Albert, levity, brevity, Professor Gary, Professor Toozee, Superintendent Alderman, and a few other notables to the contrary, you will notice the school children and their teachers have a holiday today. It will not be a general holiday exactly, for some of the stores will be kept open, most of them, in fact, and men will gather on the corners, and in warmer places, and speculate on who is going to be the next mayor of Oregon City, and when the commission form of government is to be put into effect.

The teachers in the city and county schools Wednesday afternoon explained to the pupils the significance of the holiday and told them what Columbus had accomplished. There is a movement on foot to have sessions of school on Columbus Day, Washington's birthday and Memorial Day, and to devote them to patriotic exercises. This was put to a vote at the recent teachers' institute in this city, and it was defeated by an overwhelming majority. It is argued, however, by noted educators that the teachers made a mistake, and the legislature may be called upon to make such a provision.

Football Team Seeks Game.
The Oregon City football team would like to arrange a game with a Portland eleven weighing not more than 145 pounds to the man for next Sunday. Arrangements may be made by telephoning Harry White, manager, A-86, Oregon City.

The Enterprise has a position open for you. Call at once.

MRS. GIBBONS' FUNERAL TODAY.
Mrs. Catherine Gibbons, who died Tuesday at her home in Greenpoint, will be buried in Mountain View cemetery this afternoon. The funeral will be conducted at the Holman Undertaking establishment at 2 o'clock by Rev. Hayworth, Justice of the Peace. Samson, who was a friend of Mrs. Gibbons, made the funeral arrangements. The deceased was eighty-three years of age.

BEAVERS WIN AGAIN AND VERNON LOSES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—There is little doubt now that Portland will win the 1911 pennant. McCredie's men never played better ball than they are now and Vernon seems to have gone all to pieces. The Beavers easily disposed of Los Angeles today and Vernon dropped another to the Oaks.

Henderson outpitched Tozer and the Beavers outplayed their opponents in every department of the game.

When the result of the Oakland-Vernon game, disclosing the rout of Happy Hogan's men, was posted on the score-board the Los Angeles fans cheered the Beavers, apparently reconciled to the belief that the Coast League pennant will go to Portland.

Portland's victory today and the defeat of Vernon gives McCredie's team a lead of 17 points over the Villagers in the contest for the Coast championship. The camp of McCredie is gay and glad.

Captain Dillon had announced that "Flame" Delhi, his crack twirler, would try his left hand against Portland today but he disclosed such a wildness while warming up for the contest that the angel leader changed his mind and dispatched "Bill" Tozer to the firing line.

ESTACADA RESIDENTS HUNT GEMS IN SEWER

Drifting their way somewhere in the half mile of sewer between the Hotel Estacada and the Clackamas River, in Estacada, are $2,500 worth of diamond rings, the property of Mrs. J. W. Hawkins, which she lost Wednesday noon, in the kitchen sink. Almost the entire population of Estacada has turned out to look for the jewelry, and are digging up the sewer, under the direction of Mr. Hawkins.

The property consisted of six diamond rings, which were tied up in a handkerchief. They were inadvertently dropped into an open sink about noon yesterday. The sewer is twenty-five feet deep in places, and probably it will require a day or two before it is dug up, if the rings are not found before that time.

ST. PAUL'S TO GIVE RECEPTION TO PUBLIC

A reception for the general public will be held at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the rectory of St. Paul's church. The object of the reception is that all who are interested may see the preliminary drawings of the new church. The ladies of the parish will serve coffee and sandwiches, but there will be no charge or collection. Undoubtedly when the new building is completed it will be the most artistic on the Pacific Coast. Moreover it will be a distinct addition to Oregon City and all citizens should be proud of it.

The Rector, Rev. C. W. Robinson, cordially invites the public to be present and he would be glad to hear any suggestions on the preliminary drawings.

Miss Percival and Miss Robinson leave for the East next week and their friends will have an opportunity of telling them good bye at this reception.

COUNTY'S DEBTS TOTAL $100,000

LIABILITIES ARE $199,145.29 WITH PRESENT RESOURCES $98,460.57.

SEMI-ANNUAL REPORTS ARE FILED

$69,514.88 For Payment Of General Fund Warrants And $98,460.57 Available For Road Warrants.

A semi-annual statement of the financial standing of Clackamas county filed Wednesday shows a net indebtedness of $100,684.72. The total liabilities are $199,145.29 and the resources $98,460.57. The liabilities consist of $20,988.78 outstanding general fund warrants, $192,056.51 outstanding road warrants and $5,000 interest.

There is in the county treasury $69,514.88 for the payment of general fund warrants, and $98,460.57 applicable to the payment of county road warrants. The semi-annual report of Sheriff Mann is as follows: Sheriff's office, $1,255.89; Circuit Court, $1,982.20; Justice's Court, $1,172.95; Sheriff's office, $3,340.32; Clerk's office, $1,884.38; Recorder's office, $2,002.65; Court House expenses, $3,939.42; County poor, $3,183.64; printing and advertising, $1,800.19; surveyor and road surveys, $1,841.45, and Coroner's office, $811.95.

Heretofore the expense of collecting the taxes has been made a separate item in the report, but in the present one it is included in the expenses of the sheriff's office, which accounts for the large increase in that item. The expenses of the office, however, have been somewhat larger than usual due to the search that has been made for the slayer of the Hill family at Ardenwald station.

County Treasurer Taft's report shows the amounts on hand from last report as follows: Special school fund, $44,149.93; special fund, $12,432.21; general fund, $103,258.53; county school fund, $61,942.36, and district road fund and special fund, $62,923.31.

GERTRUDE JONES AND CLYDE ANDERSON WED

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Babcock, Beaver Creek, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Gertrude Jones became the wife of Mr. Clyde Anderson. Rev. Vohs performing the ceremony in the presence of the intimate friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom. The bride looked very pretty in her gown of white satin and carrying white carnations. The matron of honor, Mrs. J. S. Jones, was becomingly gowned in dove-colored silk and carried carnations. Mr. Jack Jones, brother of the bride, was best man.

The rooms of the Babcock home were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and flowers. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Many handsome presents were received by the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will make their home at Beaver Creek.

The bride came to Oregon about seven months ago from Liverpool, England, and since her residence at Beaver Creek has won many friends by her charming personality. The bridegroom is an industrious young man and is well liked at Beaver Creek, where he has made his home for the past three years, having come from Wyoming. He is a brother of Mrs. A. F. Babcock, one of the well known residents of Beaver Creek.

FARMERS EAGER TO BUILD BOULEVARD

SPECIAL TAX IS URGED AT ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HELD AT CENTRAL POINT.

DIMICK TELLS COMMISSION'S PLAN

Money Subscribed Will Not Be Donated, Says Judge Hayes, But An Investment—Risley Silences Non-Progressive.

Gordon E. Hayes sounded the keynote at one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the East Side Capital Highway Association at Central Point Wednesday night when he declared that the money raised for building the boulevard should not be considered as donations but investments.

"You men, who will be called upon to put up a part of the money for this great boulevard," said Judge Hayes, "will not only get back what you subscribe but two or three times more in increased land values. This has been true wherever good roads have been built, and it will prove so in this instance. You have the fertile soil and the scenery and what you need now are good roads. Good roads and good schools go hand in hand. We have the schools and we are going to have the roads. The county has spent a quarter of a million dollars on the schools and it is time that money was being spent on the roads."

More than 100 persons in the Central Point section attended the meeting, which was held in the school house, and sentiment was unanimous in favor of levying a special tax for building the great highway. There was only one discordant note and Charles W. Risley answered the disgruntled citizen most effectively. This man declared that the "automobile hogs" were ruining the roads, and suggested that the machines not be allowed on the proposed boulevard. Mr. Risley, who has been most generous in donating his automobile for use in taking persons to the road meetings said: "There are about as many hogs with teams as there are with automobiles."

The meeting was presided over by President Kertchem, and the opening address was made by Grant B. Dimick, a member of the Capital Highway Commission appointed by Governor West. Judge Dimick declared that the commission had not decided upon a route. He said a map would be made of the proposed routes, and a report would be made to the governor regarding the subscriptions promised in various localities. He declared that an experienced supervisor should be chosen and retained.

A. N. Wills, of Sellwood said that good roads trebled the land values, and the thrift of communities was judged by its highways. He said it would take much money to build the highway and that the landowners who would be benefited should help to pay for it.

S. C. Dillman declared that he would not only pay his pro rata of the special tax proposed, but he would give the road movement. This announcement was enthusiastically applauded. Dr. L. A. Norris said he was willing to subscribe to the road fund.

Elliott & Park donated several automobiles to take the crowd from Oregon City to Central Point. This firm has been generous with its machines in aiding the road movement.

Secretary Latourette, of the East Side Capital Highway Commission, said the Central Point meeting was one of the most important that had been held and that he was confident the residents of that section would do their part in building the highway.

MRS. TAYLOR ASKS $2,500 MONTHLY

MILLIONAIRE MINER'S WIFE FILES MOTION FOR MAINTENANCE DURING SUIT.

$7,000 IS WANTED FOR EXPENSES

Defendant In Annulment Action Says Witnesses Will Have To Be Brought From California.

Mrs. Minnie D. Taylor, who is being sued for an annulment of her marriage by Charles D. Taylor, millionaire miner, through her attorneys, Fliegel & Reynolds, Wednesday filed a motion for an order for $7,000 to defend the suit and for $2,500 monthly for maintenance during the pendency of the action. Judge Eakin who recently set aside an order annulling the marriage upon complaint of the defendant, will hear the motion.

The defendant alleges that she lives at Santa Ana, Cal., more than 1,300 miles from Oregon City, and that she believes the suit was brought here to prevent her from making an adequate defense. She further avers that Mr. Taylor has contributed nothing toward her support since 1909. The following is a part of an affidavit filed by her in support of the motion: "That plaintiff is a man of great wealth and has property aggregating more than $1,000,000. That since the marriage of plaintiff and defendant plaintiff sold certain mining property in Nevada for $1,200,000. That the ordinary living expenses of plaintiff and defendant while living together were about $3.00 per month and defendant needs $2,500 per month to meet ordinary expenses so long as this suit is pending in this court or on appeal to enable her to live in the manner and according to the standard of living to which she has been accustomed as the wife of the plaintiff and according to her station in life."

Mrs. Taylor declares that she has been compelled to spend $1,500 in defending the suit, and she declares that to make a proper defense it will be necessary for her to bring six witnesses here from San Francisco at an expense of at least $200 each and one witness from New York at an expense of more than $200. She says her testimony is necessary to refute charges of misconduct on her part made by the plaintiff. The affidavit continues:

"That the defendant considers the defense to her honor and character and reputation to be the dearest interest which she has or could have and that the plaintiff will make every possible effort to blacken the character of the defendant and to prevail in said suit."

A. F. Fliegel, one of the attorneys for the defendant, also filed an affidavit declaring that the money asked by her was necessary for her maintenance and the proper defense of the suit. In reopening the case several weeks ago Judge Eakin said that the defendant should be given the right to make a defense. The main issue is expected to be heard at the fall term of court, and much sensational testimony will be introduced. That Mr. Taylor will make a vigorous fight against paying the large amount of money asked was indicated some time ago when his attorney, George C. Brownell, opposed allowing her a large sum.

ELLIS CATCHES BIG SALMON.

Fish Weighing Sixty-Eight Pounds Hooked In Rapids.

W. R. Ellis caught a salmon weighing sixty-eight pounds, and measuring five feet four inches in the rapids Wednesday. This is one of the largest fish ever caught in the Willamette with hook and line. Frank Bigger fished with Mr. Ellis.

Six Per Cent Semi-Annual Interest Coupon Bonds.

THE CLACKAMAS SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY is now offering to our home people its first mortgage 6 per cent semi-annual interest coupon bonds, and as the bonds are limited to ties, rails and equipment and all other work, such as grading and bridges, are paid for by stock subscriptions, the bonds issued by this company are first class.

These bonds are issued in the following denominations, viz: $100, $500, $1,000.

The Clackamas Southern Railway Company offers the following reasons why these bonds should be sold in Oregon:

FIRST—It is an Oregon enterprise and owned by Oregon people.

SECOND—The country traversed by this line is thickly populated and has freight and passenger traffic in sight to make it the best paying road in Oregon for its length.

THIRD—The best business men and farmers in the County are stockholders in this road and authorized the issue of these bonds at the stockholders' meeting by unanimous vote.

FOURTH—These bonds draw 6 per cent interest and the holder gets his interest twice each year.
