

Stories from Out of Town

FIRWOOD.

Mrs. Fridmore, who has been spending the summer with her son at Three-Six, has returned to her home in Seattle.

Fred Howe spent a few days at his home last week, visiting his mother. Born, to the wife of Geo. Kelsecker, on Thursday, Oct. 5th, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Mr. Mack has been hauling brick and lumber for a new house, which is now under construction. Mr. Mack has done considerable improving this summer, having recently finished building a fine barn and has had several acres of land cleared.

Raymond Howe spent Sunday with his mother.

Mr. Shotwell and son, of Portland, visited L. Fridmore last week.

Rev. Dr. Boyd, wife and little son John, and Mrs. Bailey, of Portland, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hart Monday. They were very much impressed with the scenery and prospects of this country and are thinking some of locating near Firwood. Dr. Boyd is pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, but would like to spend a part of the year in the country.

Warren Wilkins made a hunting trip to the mountains last week.

B. F. Hart had a party of land seekers looking around Firwood last week.

Firwood and Dover appreciate the R. F. D., which they now have on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, but are anxious to have it daily.

Mrs. Eva R. Hart recently built a small addition to her cottage.

Ruth and Ernest Hart visited their grandparents at Cottrell last week.

Mrs. A. Malar returned from Oregon City Thursday and resumed her school work Thursday afternoon.

Miss Katie Motyl returned to Portland Saturday after a few weeks' stay with her parents.

J. Straghn and wife, who have been visiting the Miller family, left for Eastern Oregon the first of the week.

Mrs. Vernon Miller went to Portland to take medical treatment.

W. J. Wirtz will lecture at Firwood Sunday, Oct. 15, at 2:30 P. M.

ELWOOD.

The migration of birds to the South forestalls of cold winter's approach. A great number of Elwoodites spent a few days in the hop yard. Picking was not as profitable this year, owing to the short crop and short hours. The weather was suitable for all "web-feet."

Mrs. Alice Henderson has returned to Philomath, Ore., where she has charge of the dormitory. A goodly number of students are enrolled and all are eagerly endeavoring to make this a successful year.

A birthday surprise party at Mrs. Carl Anderson's was given Saturday evening in honor of Carl Anderson. A rocking chair was presented as a present. The guests enjoyed the entertainment and refreshments.

J. Mellick is hauling oats to Estacada. He is selling oats at $25.00 per ton and wheat readily at $1.00 per bushel.

J. Currins, J. Mayes, of Oregon City, M. Dibble and C. E. Surfus, of Elwood, are spending a few days in the mountains hunting. The mountains furnish a "happy hunting ground."

D. Stahlnecker picked Lewis Valen's fruit on shares.

Elwood public school commenced last Thursday. Miss Lulu Miller, of Oregon City, is employed as teacher.

A. S. Henderson is remodeling Mrs. Blanche Elliott's house.

A very enjoyable time is reported at a party in the home of Mrs. Mand Arquet.

Mrs. Ida and Mrs. Lydia Park were visitors at Mrs. Della Vallen's Saturday.

Potato digging has commenced in Elwood. The crop is good.

Fred Stahlnecker and son, Archie, of Wilsonville, made a short visit at Elwood with the former's son, Daniel Stahlnecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Feaster Cadman, of Estacada, Miss Ruth and Mattie Maplethorpe spent a pleasant evening at Mr. and Mrs. D. Stahlnecker's.

Some of the owners of the Mutual Telephone line are disappointed at being cut off from the line at Beaver Creek. Others are hoping a connection with Estacada.

Miss Hannah Stromgreen, of California, surprised friends and relatives by an unannounced arrival. She will spend her vacation at her childhood home here, where she has many friends.

Hullo there, friend! How you getting on? Your harvesting done, eh, all in the dry? Or are you forced to hold your nose.

Your wheat is fit for feed alone, eh? Your winter flour you'll have to buy—From the middle man, as you say? Who lights his cigar off a country guy?

How are your fruit trees, loaded too, eh? With fruit, the most delicious kind. What, you don't say? The trees all so full.

You would like to know the reason why, eh? And somehow, friend, I can't tell—Why some of the big bucks as they're styled. Want single tax a spell.

I s'pose it's cause they own no land, eh? Upon which they've got to scratch—From early morn to setting sun. To rake and save a double tax.

Well, friend, we'll vote against it when we can; But some how or other to us tickets read—In such a way when we mean No. We sign NO yet YES it means and leads.

CHERRYVILLE.

Miss Lois Herald the Cherryville school teacher, who has been attending the teacher's institute at Oregon City convening last week, returned to Cherryville last Sunday.

Dr. Botkins is having lumber hauled for his new house, which he intends building in the spring.

J. T. Friel, Jr., has gone to work for the telephone company putting up telephone poles.

H. C. Hoffman, of Portland, was in Cherryville Sunday.

Jas. Botkins has bought 80 acres of land near Portland.

GLACKAMAS.

Farmers are busy getting ready for the winter season that will soon be here. Cucumbers and cabbage by the ton; onions, potatoes, prunes and strawberries, of the second crop, bring coin to gladden the heart and fill the pocket of the husbandman.

A Mr. Polaski recently bought the old powder magazine near the station and has converted it into a suitable plant for manufacturing spraying fluid.

Julian Morfitt, Elmer Shearer, and Isabelle Mather are attending the trades school in Portland.

Mrs. W. T. Johnston held a sewing bee at her home last week Thursday. Among the guests present were Mesdames Carey Johnston, Thomas Davis, L. D. Jones, Ward Jones, H. Roadarmel, Fred Patterson and Grandma Johnston; the Misses May and Willa Johnston. The ladies sewed 30 pounds of carpet rags besides taking time to enjoy the excellent dinner provided by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Street, with their son, Arthur, left Clackamas October 9 for Seattle, from whence they sailed for Australia. Mr. Street recently sold his pretty new place to parties from the East who will take possession in the spring. In the meantime the premises are in the care of W. B. Reynolds.

Mrs. Hickey, her brother-in-law and two children visited Grandma Johnston over Sunday.

Fred Patterson is having several days' work at the courthouse in Oregon City.

Rally day services will be held at the Congregational church next Sunday morning.

Of the two hundred or more houses in Clackamas and vicinity, so far as known, but one is vacant. This fact speaks well for the progress of the town.

ELDORADO.

Most everyone have their potatoes dug and are very busy getting their fall seeding completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schoenborn moved into their new house last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels and Joe's mother and sister, Kate, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones.

Fred Moore has bought George Soury's place for $275 and he and his family have moved in. Mr. and Mrs. Soury have gone to Bolton to live.

Mrs. C. E. Smith is suffering from an abscess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wallace made a business trip to Eldorado Saturday and while down here took in the dance at Berthold's Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Helvey are the proud parents of another son, born on Tuesday of last week.

Ernest Jones and family spent Sunday afternoon with Clyde Smith and family.

Mrs. Joe Daniels and her sister-in-law called on Mrs. Udel Friday.

Quite a number from here spent from one to two days at the county fair.

A dance was given in Berthold's new house Saturday night. Otto Stricker and brother, Oscar, furnished the music. There were about fifty guests and all had a very nice time. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Elmer Erickson and Miss Fisher, of Mulino, were married in Oregon City Thursday of last week. They went down the Columbia on their honeymoon and are expected back tomorrow (Tuesday) and we all are ready with our tin cans and bells to give them a roundup when they get back. We wish you a long and happy life together, Mr. and Mrs. Erickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davies and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spangler attended the social at Beaver Creek and returned early enough to take in part of the dance at Berthold's Saturday night.

MARQUAM.

day, October 5th, with Mr. Jeff Skirvin as principal and Miss Watts in charge of the primary grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, of Waitsburg, Wash., have been visiting with the latter's sister, Mrs. J. E. Marquam.

Mrs. Catherine Jones, who has been ailing for some time, is improving, and was brought home.

Flowing and seeding are the order of the day.

Potato digging has commenced in a few fields, but the late ones are green and growing yet, and if the rains continue for a week a great many will rot in the ground.

The butcher from Woodburn, bought a fine drove of beef cattle from Fred Myers and Shelly Haugh the first of the week.

J. Barth has been graveling our streets which was badly needed.

J. P. Miller had the misfortune of being kicked on his thigh last week by one of his horses.

Bentley, Myers & Company were seen hauling off their hops Monday.

Mrs. Minnie Avery, who has been staying with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Larkins, this summer, has returned to Portland.

EAGLE CREEK.

The farmers are busy digging potatoes, plowing, harrowing and putting in their fall crops.

Mrs. Viola Douglas, accompanied by her son Carl made a trip to Portland last week.

Miss Anna Duncan commenced teaching a term of school in District No. 50 last week.

H. S. Gibson was an Oregon City visitor last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Douglas returned from the coast Monday, having spent a pleasant vacation.

CLARKES.

Miss M. Schelly visited her sister, Mrs. Henry Kleinsmith, last week.

Mr. Wettlaufer was in town last week.

A. Astom, of Canby, is teaching the Timber Grove school.

The Clarkes new school house is finished. School will start Monday.

Eugene Cummins has started his sawmill.

H. Rogers is hauling lumber for P. Sager.

Mrs. Buol and her son Otto were in town last week.

MULINO.

School commenced here Monday with a good attendance. Miss Elna Snodgrass is the teacher for this year. Ernest Mallatt had the misfortune

Greatest Offer Ever

The Morning Enterprise and The Weekly Oregonian

(Clackamas County's Daily)

(The Northwest's Greatest Weekly)

Until November 1, 1912

Regular Price of the Morning Enterprise by mail is $3.00

$3.00

Regular Price of the Weekly Oregonian is $1.50

JUST THINK--More than an Entire Year to Clackamas County's live daily and the Northwest's greatest weekly for the price of one paper only. Bargain period ends October 31, 1911. On that day, or any day between now and then, $3 will pay for both papers to November 1, 1912. Positively no orders taken at this rate after October 31, 1911.

Subscribe with your postmaster, or R. R. carrier, or bring direct to the Oregon City Enterprise, Oregon City, Ore., on or before October 31.

This Offer is Good to Present as Well as New Subscribers

This Offer is Good to Present as Well as New Subscribers

Send Your Subscription at Once and Tell Your Friends About Our Great Offer The Sooner You Subscribe the More You Get, As the Paper Starts at Once

BAPTIST CONVENTION DELEGATES CHOSEN

A business meeting was held at the Baptist church Thursday evening. Among the matters discussed were the choosing of the delegates to the state convention to be held at McMinnville from October 17 to October 20. It is the plan of the Oregon City delegation to extend an invitation to have the convention meet in this city in 1912. Rev. Hayworth, who is president of the State Ministerial Association, will leave Monday for McMinnville.

The delegates from this city are: Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Hayworth, Mrs. L. H. Olmstead, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Davis, Mrs. D. C. Latourette, Martin Sumner, J. W. Loder, Mrs. Frank Welsh, Miss Amy Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mars, Miss Veda Williams, Mrs. C. A. Nash.

Here is the Only Bargain House

Compare our prices with others and you will be sure to trade here. New and second hand furniture of all kinds. Granite, glass and light hardware.

E. W. Mellien

(Opposite The Grand

MRS. HUGH HENDRIE ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Hugh Hendrie entertained in a most delightful manner at her home on Tenth and Washington streets, Thursday evening, bridge being the feature of the entertainment. The first prize was won by Mrs. J. R. Humphrys and the consolation prize by Mrs. A. A. Price. Refreshments were served. The house decorations were of roses.

Those attending were Mrs. C. H. Cauffman, Mrs. H. S. Mount, Mrs. Theodore Osmond, Mrs. Lena Chapman, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. J. R. Humphrys, Mrs. J. F. Clark, Mrs. A. A. Price, Miss Pratt, Mrs. E. S. Folienabee, Mrs. William Logus, Mrs. W. A. Shevman, Mrs. E. T. Avison, Mrs. C. H. Meissner, Mrs. L. L. Porter, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. Henry O'Malley, Mrs. E. P. Rands, Mrs. Walter Wells, Mrs. C. G. Huntley, Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Mrs. J. H. Walker, Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. C. D. Latourette and Mrs. C. W. Evans.

Are you a subscriber to the Morning Enterprise? If not you should call and let us put your name on the subscription list immediately.

Body Shipped to Iowa. The remains of Mrs. Anna Edgeman were shipped to Cleo, Iowa, Thursday evening, where they will be interred in the family lot. Mrs. Edgeman died at Molalla October 9. The body was accompanied by her son to Cleo.

Our greatest clubbing offer. The Morning Enterprise, by mail and the Weekly Oregonian, both until November 1, 1912, for only $3. Offer closes October 31, 1911.

RECENT ARRIVAL IS DEAD.

Peter Fauske died near this city Thursday, and the body was brought to the Holman undertaking parlors. The funeral will be held October 29, pending the arrival of relatives from the East. The interment will be in the Multnomah cemetery near Lentz. Mr. Fauske had been ill for several months of tuberculosis. He had been a resident of Oregon but a short time. He was born in Wisconsin.

Read the Morning Enterprise

CHAUTAUQUA WORKERS TO MEET

A meeting of the stockholders of Willamette Valley Chautauqua Club has been called for 1 o'clock the afternoon of October 24. The meeting will be held in assembly hall of the Commercial Club. All stockholders are urged to attend.

Our greatest clubbing offer. Morning Enterprise by mail and the Weekly Oregonian, both until November 1, 1912, for only $3. Offer closes October 31, 1911.

NOT EXPENSIVE

Treatment at Hot Lake, including medical attention, board and baths, costs no more than you would pay to live at any first class hotel. Rooms can be had from 75 cents to $2.50 per day. Meals in the cafeteria are served from 20 cents up and in the grill at the usual grill prices. Baths range from 50 cents to $1.00.

We Do Cure Rheumatism

Hot Lake Mineral baths and mud given under scientific direction have cured thousands. Write for the treated booklet descriptive of the Hot Lake Sanatorium and the methods employed. The Lake Sanatorium is accessible, as it is located directly on the main line of the O.W. R. & N. railway, special excursion rates to be had at all times. Agents.

HOT LAKE SANATORIUM HOT LAKE, OREGON. WALTER M. PIERCE, Pres.-Mgt.