M'NAMARA PANEL IS HARD TO GET

FIRST TALESMAN LET GO AND OTHER MEN EXAMINED MAY BE DISQUALIFIED.

MANY QUESTIONS ASKED BY LAWYERS

Progress Slow in Great Dynamite Case And Jury May Not Be Obtained For Days—Barrow is Active.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—When seemingly caught in its first big snag, the McNamara murder trial in an instant today twisted itself out of a situation which had worried opposing counsel since last Wednesday, and for the remainder of the day at least went ahead joyfully.

"Could you set aside your opinions sufficiently to enable you to give a fair and impartial verdict?" was the question put to Talesman Z. T. Nelson by Judge Bordwell, supplementing the earlier examination by Clarence S. Barrow, chief of counsel for James B. McNamara, who is on trial for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a machinist, killed in the Los Angeles Times explosion a year ago.

Nelson had been asked many hundreds of questions to elicit his views, and had answered all of them without clearing up the situation.

"I don't just know," he replied to this one, and in an instant District Attorney Fredericks, for the state, withdrew opposition to a challenge previously made by the defense on account of bias.

In the course of Nelson's lengthy examination he had said he believed the Times building was blown up by dynamite, and that he had an opinion concerning the guilt or innocence of McNamara. As the defense contended both that the Times was blown up by gas, and that McNamara has an alibi, these opinions were extremely distasteful to it.

When court closed today Nelson was on his way home, and two other talesmen had been examined by the defense. One of them, John W. Roberts, a real estate dealer, was found satisfactory, and Robert F. Bain, a carpenter, also was examined without raising any contest. Nevertheless, it was the fairly general opinion tonight that the Nelson case would be duplicated before a jury was secured.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Persistent reports that Harry Thaw's release from the Matteawan Asylum is expected within three months are denied by Dr. James V. May, superintendent of the institution. "I can say most positively that Thaw will not be released before January 1, or for some time after," said Dr. May.

OPENING OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

INTEREST GROWS IN BIG LYCEUM SERIES

Much interest is being manifested in the lyceum series to be given in this city this winter, and it is believed that there will be an unprecedented attendance next Thursday night to hear Edmund Vance Cooke, author and lecturer. Twenty enterprising Oregon City men personally guaranteed the lyceum bureau against loss, and that their faith was not misplaced is already assured. Mr. Cooke has an enviable reputation as an entertainer, and no one who wishes to have a delightful evening should miss his lecture.

The executive committee, which has charge of the series, is composed of J. E. Hedges, president; Mrs. Linn E. Jones, Mrs. W. A. Sweeney, O. D. Ely and John W. Loder.

POULTRY RAISERS TO HOLD BIG MEETING

A meeting of the poultry raisers of the county will be held at Mount Pleasant Friday night. A permanent organization was effected some time ago, and all the raisers of poultry in the county are urged to attend the meeting. There is no better county in Oregon for the poultry industry than Clackamas county, and it is believed, by organization, better results can be obtained. It is planned to have a poultry show in Oregon City in the near future. The association also will arrange fine displays for the State and County Fairs next year.

SAYS HUSBAND FLED WITH THEIR SAVINGS

Alleging that he drew $450, their savings, from an Oregon City bank, August 1, 1911, and fled to Missouri, leaving her destitute, LeVina Lindau, filed suit Monday against Philip Lindau. Mrs. Lindau asserts that her husband was cruel to her between January 1, 1901, and August 1, 1911. They were married July 4, 1890. She asserts that she was compelled to pay debts contracted by them after he left her. George C. Brownell and William Stone represent the plaintiff.

Orrlen K. Entriken sued Louise K. Entriken for divorce, alleging that she neglected her household duties and associated with other men. He avers that she frequently returned home late at night.

Paper Company Sued.
Vernon C. Randolph Monday sued the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company for $513.60. He says that he bought a claim for this amount from the Western Carbonic Acid Gas Company which sold the defendant company 64,200 pounds magnesite June 24, 1911.

SCHMIDT ESTATE $1,500.
The estate of John Jacob Schmidt, who died September 16, 1911, was filed for probate in the County Court Monday. It is valued at $1,500. Augusta Ochs was named administratrix. The relatives of Mr. Schmidt live in Bavaria.

FORESTERS HAVE FINE DANCE.
The dance given by the Companions of the Foresters at the Busch Hall, Saturday night, was largely attended and all had a delightful time. Bowler's orchestra, of Portland, furnished the music. The committee in charge of the affair decorated the hall very prettily with ferns and bright colored autumn leaves.

The Enterprise has a position open for you. Call at once.

W. S. FIELDING.

Canadian Minister of Finance, Who is Working For Reciprocity.

MR. AND MRS. UPTON ENTERTAIN.

Delightful Family Reunion Held at Pretty Covell Home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Upton, of Covell, entertained at their pretty home Sunday at a family reunion, and one of the features of the afternoon was the dinner served by Mrs. Upton. The decorations were very pretty, the living room and dining room being decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers.

5 COUPLES GRANTED LICENSES.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following Monday: Dora Woodard and Thomas Sackett; Rosa Beck and John Tomer; Elizabeth Franklin and L. W. Keller; Ivy May Webster and C. A. Robb and Elizabeth Weber and Edmond M. J. Herre.

EQUALIZATION BOARD HAS FEW COMPLAINTS

Fewer remonstrances than ever before on the first day were received by the Board of Equalization, which convened Monday. The board consists of County Judge Beatie, chairman; County Clerk Mulvey, clerk, and County Assessor Jack. The board will be in session one month. It is believed that the assessments this year are more nearly correct than ever before, and that complaints will be much fewer. Assessor Jack and his assistants have done everything possible to prevent making mistakes, and it is thought, they have made few if any. The gross value of all property in the county is $21,630,510, which is an increase over 1910 of $550,400.

PHILIP J. SINNOTT GETS FINE OFFER

Philip J. Sinnott, a bright young newspaper man of this city, has been offered a position, which probably he will accept, on a paper at Klamath Falls. However, he has other offers and may decide to remain here or locate in Portland. He was city editor of a paper in Klamath Falls for several months and did so well that he has had several offers from there since he left. Mr. Sinnott worked on the Enterprise a number of years, and demonstrated that he thoroughly understood his business. He is both an "office" and an "outside man," if you know what those terms mean. If you don't ask "Speed Demon" Charles Hoyt.

PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS DEFEAT GIANTS IN SECOND

BAKER'S HOME RUN OVER FENCE IN SIXTH PUTS M'GRAW'S MEN TO ROUT.

MARQUARD IS FINALLY TAKEN OUT

Plank, Steady All Through Game, And Allows Only Five Hits—30,000 See Great Contest.

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA.
Oct. 16.—(Special).—One solid swat over the right field fence from Frank Baker's war club won the second game in the world's championship series for the Athletics here today by three to one from the New York Giants.

ATHLETICS DEFEAT GIANTS IN SECOND

BAKER'S HOME RUN OVER FENCE IN SIXTH PUTS M'GRAW'S MEN TO ROUT.

MARQUARD IS FINALLY TAKEN OUT

Plank, Steady All Through Game, And Allows Only Five Hits—30,000 See Great Contest.

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—(Special).—One solid swat over the right field fence from Frank Baker's war club won the second game in the world's championship series for the Athletics here today by three to one from the New York Giants.

The deciding wallop came in the sixth inning. Eddie Collins had poked one into the crowd for two bases, and with the score tied 1 to 1, Baker delivered the home run. He leaped against the ball good and hard and as he followed Collins across the home plate such a scene broke loose as a stand Philadelphia has seldom seen.

Thirty thousand fans, who hung, breathless on the struggle, split the air with one roar of joy. It was all over, and from that time the Athletics were never in danger.

The first run for the Athletics was made in the first inning, when Lorsch crossed the pan on a wild pitch by Rube Marquard. In the second inning Oldring misjudged a double by Herzog, who scored for New York when the Big Chief Meyers delivered a nice clean single. From the start of the game McGraw's beauty, Marquard, was wild. In the middle of the struggle he settled down but weakened again in the eighth when McGraw jerked him out of the box, sending Crandall to bat. Crandall delivered the goods, but Plank, who was steady as a rock throughout the game, held the Giants hitless and the deed was done.

Thirty thousand persons finally squeezed into the park and 5,000 others packed temporary stands and the roofs of adjoining buildings. The ground rules agreed upon provided that a hit into the crowd should go for two bases and anything over the fence, for a home run.

The Athletics made four hits and the Giants five.

First Inning.
New York—Devore struck out. Doyle flied out to Lord. Snodgrass was hit by a pitched ball. Murray drove a line fly to Collins. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord singled to right and went to second on Oldring's fumble. (Crandall warmed up for the Giants.) Lord took third on Oldring's beautiful sacrifice, Marquard to Merkle. Lord scored on a wild pitch. Collins beat out an infield hit. Marquard was visibly nervous. Baker struck out. Murphy was the third out on a fly to Devore. One run.

Second Inning.
New York—Merkle was retired, Barry to Davis. Herzog drove a double to center, Oldring misjudging the ball. Fletcher was thrown out, Collins to Davis, Herzog taking third. Herzog scored a moment later on Meyers' pretty single. Marquard struck out. One run.

Philadelphia—Captain Davis was retired, Doyle to Merkle. Barry drove a hard fly to left, which Devore got under but muffed, Barry taking second. Thomas lifted a fly to Devore. Plank was out, Meyers to Merkle, on a slow grounder towards first. No runs.

Third Inning.
New York—Devore struck out the second time during the game. Doyle flied out to Lord. Snodgrass singled to right. Murray was retired, Plank to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord fanned. Oldring lifted a foul which Meyers took care of. Collins flied out to Devore. No runs.

Fourth Inning.
New York—Merkle was thrown out, Collins to Davis, on a pretty pickup. Herzog lifted a high one to Barry. Fletcher was thrown out by Barry to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Baker retired, Doyle to Merkle. Marquard had staidied down and was pitching a splendid game. Murphy gave Devore an easy out on a high fly. Davis made the third out on a foul to Meyers. No runs.

Fifth Inning.
New York—Meyers was out, Baker to Davis, on an easy chance. Marquard fanned on four pitched balls. Devore struck out for the third time in succession. No runs. Up to this time Plank had five strikeouts and Marquard two.

COMMISSION PLAN TO BE CONSIDERED

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT FOR DISCUSSION OF NEW SCHEME OF GOVERNMENT.

MEMBERS FAVORABLE TO CHANGE

Mayor Brownell Suggests Appointment of Committee of Seven—Voters to Have Chance Studying Charter.

The City Council will meet tonight in special session, which was called by Mayor Brownell, to discuss the advisability of appointing a commission to revise the city charter so as to provide for the commission form of government. It is believed that all members of the council favor the change. The Mayor will, if the council favors the plan, appoint two members of the council and five other citizens on the commission to revise the charter. His idea is to give as large a representation of all classes as possible.

Interviews published in the Morning Enterprise from time to time indicate that almost all the voters of Oregon City favor giving the commission form of government a trial. It has been pointed out that it has been successful wherever tried and there is no reason why it should not be a success here. Mayor Brownell desires that the commission named to revise the charter embody in the instrument the best features of the character in cities that have the new scheme of government and that the charter as revised be published in the newspapers so that the voters may become familiar with its provisions before a special election is called to vote upon the change.

PRICES LOWER HERE THAN IN PORTLAND

It was demonstrated twice last week that Clackamas county residents could buy cheaper in Oregon City than in Portland. An Oregon City woman who paid $22.50 for a cloak at a "Big Reduction Sale" of a Portland department store, learned to her sorrow that she could buy a garment of identically the same make, finish, style and cloth at a local store for $19. A big poultry raiser in the county asked a local house and several Portland firms for bids on 3,200 pounds of chicken feed. The lowest bid received from a Portland firm was $96.50 and that of the Oregon City house was $96.85. With the freight charges added the Portland firm's bid was $4.50 higher than that of the Oregon City company.

HEDGES TO ANSWER CROSS' CANAL SPEECH

The weekly luncheon of the Live Wires of the Oregon City Commercial Club will be held at noon today in the banquet hall of the Masonic Building. Live Wires will not receive personal notification of the luncheon, but are all expected to be present. J. E. Hedges will reply to H. E. Cross, relative to the construction of new locks on the East Side of the river at Oregon City, and there will be other important matters of great interest to Oregon City and Clackamas county.

ALLEGED AFFINITY NAMED BY ALISKY

SAN FRANCISCAN ACCUSED BY RICH THEATRICAL MAN OF DESPOILING HOME.

WIFE STRUCK HIM, SAYS PLAINTIFF

Beautiful Defendant, Who is Sister Of Maybelle Gilman Corey, Also Files Suit—$250 Monthly Alimony Asked.

Norman Gray, of San Francisco, is named as the despoiler of his home by Charles W. Alisky, the well-known theatre owner and son of C. A. Alisky, a wealthy retired Portland confectioner, who has sued Cleta Pearl Alisky, sister of Mrs. Maybelle Gilman Corey, wife of the former president of the United States Steel Company, for a divorce in the circuit court here. Mrs. Alisky also has sued for divorce here, but he has not been served with the summons, and County Clerk Mulvey refuses to make the complaint public.

Alisky further charges that his beautiful wife has been cruel to him, and has repeatedly humiliated him. He recites how he sent her to school after their marriage in order that she might obtain an education suitable to her standing in society, and how while at school she accused a school-mate of stealing two checks, which he declares was untrue.

Wife Cruel, He Declares. It is alleged by the plaintiff that his wife misbehaved with Gray in the Central Hotel at Santa Ana, Cal., September 10, 1911, and before that date and afterward in the same month they misbehaved in other places in California. The complaint continues.

"That said defendant has violated and broken her marriage contract and vows with the said plaintiff and has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment toward said plaintiff, rendering his life burdensome in this; that shortly after the said marriage the said plaintiff and the said defendant went to Sacramento, Cal., to reside; that said plaintiff rented a furnished flat for plaintiff and defendant to live in, immediately thereafter the plaintiff became sick and ill and the said defendant instead of taking care of the said plaintiff, as wife should do, left the said plaintiff to take care of himself and went to San Francisco, Cal., and a short time after the said plaintiff and the said defendant were married to each other, the said defendant began a course of cruel and inhuman treatment against the said plaintiff, calling the said plaintiff vile names and endeavoring to commence quarrels with him and on one occasion, without any provocation whatever, struck and assaulted the said plaintiff and in the year 1909, and while the said defendant was attending school at San Jose, in the state of California, pursuant to an arrangement between the said plaintiff and the said defendant, she, the said defendant, falsely accused a girl school-mate attending the same school defendant of having stolen two checks for the payment of money of $25 and $50 respectively, and by reason of said accusation caused the girl to be suspended from said school and by reason of the conduct of the said defendant, the said plaintiff, and by reason of the conduct of the said plaintiff, the said defendant, was given a great deal of notoriety, and the said plaintiff was humiliated thereby.

Neglect is Charged. "That the said defendant shortly after her marriage to said plaintiff, wholly neglected to attend to any of her household duties, left the home of said plaintiff, and without the consent of the said plaintiff, went about different parts of the state of California and associated with people of questionable character, and kept the said plaintiff in a constant state of
