Heart to Heart Talks.
By EDWIN A. NYE.

YOUNG OLD FOLKS.
Uncle Joe Cannon, at the age of seventy-five, is as spry as a boy.
At about the same age Chauncey Depew walks Broadway as straight as an Indian.
Chief Justice Harlan, at seventy-eight, recently wrote his famous dissenting opinion in the Standard Oil case.
Edison says he is just beginning at seventy to live and learn and is planning ahead thirty years.
Wu Ting Fang, the famous Chinese diplomat, says a man should be his best as seventy—as he is.
Although he is ninety-one, Dr. Daniel K. Pearsons, the philanthropist, says he feels in his heart all the thrills of youth.
Shelby M. Cullom, at eighty-one, represents the state of Illinois in the senate and is soon to begin writing a history of his times.
Lord Strathmore of Canada, who recently celebrated his ninetieth birthday, works every day at his desk.
John Bigelow, our former minister to France, at ninety-four is writing a history of the tariff.
Isaac Johnson, who invented portland cement, is 100 years old. He recently began to translate the Gospel of St. John from the Greek.
Susan B. Anthony, who died at eighty-six, within a year of her death always ran upstairs like a girl.
Now—
What is the secret of the longevity of these young old persons?
Chiefly this: They did not grow old in mind or dull in spirit. They kept in close touch with the ongoing of things.
They refused to be pushed into the chimney corner.
Would you stay young through the advancing years? Then select some work that will stimulate your hope and stir your enthusiasm. Let that work lead you as your task led you in the days of your youth.
Spend no time in regrets over the road by which you have come. Look at the road ahead of you.
Add above all, continue to think when the life-sap quits going to your head you will begin to die at the top.
Like certain trees.
Accustom yourself to the spirit of progress. Stay young in soul. Cultivate the spiritual part of you and thus put about your gray hairs the halo of eternal youth.

Stories from Out of Town

ELWOOD.
By the quantity of smoke the farmers must be taking advantage of the pleasant weather. We all are foolish enough to enjoy sunshine.
"Jack Frost" visited this vicinity last night with a vengeance.
A number of the farmers are digging potatoes.
J. Johnson went to Estacada Wednesday. He realized $1.45 per sack for potatoes.
Fred Banister visited friends here last week.
Mr. Otis and Miss Nouna Vallen spent a pleasant evening at Mrs. Dan Stahlnecker's.
Mrs. A. Vallen and Mr. Frank Wilson were in Estacada Thursday.
Mr. Beardsley is home again.
Mrs. Dan Stahlnecker was in Es-tacada Thursday.
Estacada is surely growing. Many very costly houses are being built.
Mr. Cary's store affords a good asortment on every line.
Mr. Lowellen, of Springwater, has released his store work to Mr. Smith and Mr. Spurlin. It is reported Mr.
Lowellen intends to move to California for a time at least. His many friends wish him and family a pleasant trip, hoping their return.
Lewis Vallen is plowing for Dan Stahlnecker.
Rev. John Purk is contemplating a visit to Parkplace with Emery French and sisters, thence to Southern Oregon to engage in ministerial work.
We owe him praise as he is one of those plucky "boys in blue." He can tell you of Sherman's march and many war exploits.
Mrs. Amy Hulbert, of Estacada, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Baker.

been plowing land they have rented near the old Scott place.
A. Vallen butchered a mutton which many of his neighbors relished in a delicious roast.
Rev. A. S. Henderson preached at Medford last Sunday. Next Sunday he will preach here morning and evening. Hear him. You will not regret your coming.
The school supervisor, Mr. Anderson of Clackamas county, visited this school last week. The school yard being near the graveyard prevents digging a well. This will undoubtedly necessitate a change in the schoolhouse.
Jean Lowellen, of Springwater, was chagrined by finding a bear was so liberal as to overturn his beehives and destroy fruit trees. An angry and lively chase sent the intruder into the woods, etc. A number of Elwoodites gave him an extended chase. No news as to capture.
M. Dibble killed the largest wildcat known of being killed in these regions.

An Irish Answer.
The London Chronicle tells a story of an incident in a Donegal village showing the friendly Irish habit of giving a pleasing answer in preference to the bald truth. "I want some peppermint wafers," said the Saxon visitor, coming straight to the point.
"Sure ye do," smiled the Irish shop-man, keeping off it. "How much are they?" pursued the Saxon as the man did not move. "And isn't it two ounces a penny they are?" answered the Irishman, still without moving. "Well, have you got any?" persisted his customer impatiently. "Sure, not any at all," said the Irishman, coming reluctantly to the point, with his sweetest smile of all.

Underhose
CHATTANOOGA KNITTING MILLS

Try Underhose on Our Recommendation

Since "guaranteed" hosiery first made its appearance many brands have been advertised. By far the best is Underhose. All good judges of hosiery agree that Underhose is superior to ordinary brands. For one thing, they are specially dyed with the new celebrated Underdyke—which does not injure or harden the fabric and preserves its lustre to the end. The texture is soft and resilient like silk. The threads are specially twisted and extra strong. The finish is equal to the finest. All through they show the evidences of the greatest care in making. We bought Underhose in preference to other brands on account of its superiority. We believe it to be the most remarkable hosiery possible to make for the price. We recommend it without hesitation, to all wanting a superior guaranteed hose. The makers guarantee Underhose to give satisfactory wear for four months. We add to that our personal guarantee that it is the best 25 cent hosiery we ever examined.

We want you to get acquainted with Underhose and enjoy its wonderful wearing quality and value. No matter what brand of hosiery you now wear, you will be delighted with Underhose. Four pairs in a box for a dollar. A beautiful line of colors. All sizes for men, women, misses and boys.
